between arts and nature and their impact on children and young people's wellbeing, health, equality and sustainability. Existing literature focuses on either the impact of the arts or the impact of being in with nature on children's and young people's wellbeing. However, the intersection between the two arts and nature and their combined effect on wellbeing has received limited attention. Through five research-based and seven practice-based chapters, this book draws upon arts in nature practices that incorporate visual arts, music, movement, drama and poetry in a range of natural environments such as forests, beaches, greenhouses, parks, community areas and school playgrounds. Arts in Nature with Children and Young People will appeal to anyone working with children and young people, including mental health and healthcare professionals, teachers, researchers, artists and arts therapists. It is also an accessible guide for parents and families looking for inspiration and ideas for creative and outdoor activities.

500 Kids Art Ideas Gavin Andrews, 2015-06-15 Showcases 500 art ideas for parents, teachers and kids. Each project features an image and a list of materials.

Creative Art Ideas For Children 1 Jacob Doong, 2013-05-14 This book records ideas, artwork and displays which were planned and produced in Early Years art classes at Dulwich College Beijing. Through activities that are engaging, fun and rewarding, we can stimulate children's creativity and imagination. Through these activities, children are introduced to a range of art skills as well as given opportunities to develop their understanding of colour, form, texture and pattern. The activities make links with many popular curriculum themes such as Oceans and stars. All the projects and ideas in the book are ideal tools for teachers, parents and people who work with young children. It can support those approaching art in the early years for the first time as well as giving new ideas for how to approach art in an original and exciting way.

Ideas About Art Kathleen K. Desmond, 2011-05-06 Ideas About Art is an intelligent, accessible, introductory text for students interested in learning how to think about aesthetics. It uses stories drawn from the experiences of individuals involved in the arts as a means of exposing readers to the philosophies, theories and arguments that shape and drive visual art. An accessible, story-driven introduction to aesthetic theory and philosophy. Prompts readers to develop independent ideas about aesthetics; this is a guide on how to think, not what to think. Includes discussions of non-western, contemporary and discipline-specific theories. Examines a range of art-based dilemmas across a wide variety of disciplines, from art and design and law to visual and museum studies.

Hands-on Ideas for Ministry with Young Teens Maryann Hakowski, Joyce Schoettler Jennings, 2001 Hands on Ideas for Ministry with Young Teens is a collection of thirty-eight strategies for tapping into the tactile and intellectual creativity of young adolescents as a way of helping them learn about and grow in faith and spirituality. The strategies are organized into three sections. The first section contains activities for personal reflection, self-disclosure and affirmation. The second section includes a variety of active strategies for learning and reviewing material. The third section is a collection of ideas for prayer and reflection that engage young teens at many different levels.
