Art And Other Serious Matters:

Harold Rosenberg Debra Bricker Balken, 2021-10-06 The biography recounts Rosenberg's full story for the first time Art critic for The New Yorker from 1962 until 1978 Rosenberg together with Clement Greenberg radically reshaped the interpretation of art in the post World War II period by promoting and examining abstract expression But Rosenberg was also a social and literary critic writing about art was just one aspect of his work Harold Rosenberg A Critic's Life weaves together Rosenberg's life and literary production cast against the dynamic intellectual and social ferment of his time Rosenberg's mid century linking of the New York School with the art establishment together with his observations on the commodification of the artwork and the evisceration of the self in favor of celebrity especially in his often cited essay The Herd of Independent Minds make this book especially topical

The Sense of Art Ralph A. Smith, 2014-10-29 Ralph A Smith provides a theory of aesthetic education that addresses the need to revitalize the capacity for genuine judgment in society reaffirm the ideal of excellence in culture and reorder our thoughts about teaching the arts in schools The book presents an image of the curriculum as itinerary preparing the young to traverse the world of art with adroitness and sensitivity

The Artless Jew Kalman P. Bland, 2001-07-02 Conventional wisdom holds that Judaism is indifferent or even suspiciously hostile to the visual arts due to the Second Commandment's prohibition on creating graven images the dictates of monotheism and historical happenstance This intellectual history of medieval and modern Jewish attitudes toward art and representation overturns the modern assumption of Jewish iconophobia that denies to Jewish culture a visual dimension Kalman Bland synthesizes evidence from medieval Jewish philosophy mysticism poetry biblical commentaries travelogues and law concluding that premodern Jewish intellectuals held a positive liberal understanding of the Second Commandment and did in fact articulate a certain Jewish aesthetic He draws on this insight to consider modern ideas of Jewish art revealing how they are inextricably linked to diverse notions about modern Jewish identity that are themselves entwined with arguments over Zionism integration and anti-Semitism Through its use of the past to illuminate the present and its analysis of how the present informs our readings of the past this book establishes a new assessment of Jewish aesthetic theory rooted in historical analysis Authoritative and original in its identification of authentic Jewish traditions of painting sculpture and architecture this volume will ripple the waters of several disciplines including Jewish studies art history medieval and modern history and philosophy

Reinventing Jewish Art in the Age of Multiple Modernities Lola Kantor-Kazovsky, 2022-12-05 Can studying an artist's migration enable the reconfiguration of art history in a new and global mode Michail Grobman's odyssey in search of a contemporary idiom of Jewish art led him to cross the borders of political blocs and to observe absorb and confront different patterns of modernism in his work His provocative art his rich archives and collections his essays and personal diaries all reveal this complexity and open up a new perspective on post World War II twentieth century modernism and on the interconnected functioning of its local models

Modernism's Masculine Subjects Marcia Brennan, 2004

Rejecting the typical view of formalism's exclusive engagement with essentialized and purified notions of abstraction and its disengagement from issues of gender and embodiment Brennan explores the ways in which these categories were intertwined Historically and theoretically Jacket

Into the Light of Things George J. Leonard, 1995-06-15 When John Cage opened his compositions to chance sounds in the 1950s and Andy Warhol began exhibiting paintings of Brillo boxes in the 1960s the art of the commonplace seemed like something radically even frighteningly new But noting an unprecedented shift around 1800 away from the idealism of Western aesthetics Leonard shows that attacks on the art object as outspoken as any made by twentieth century avant gardists can be found in the works of Wordsworth Ruskin Carlyle Emerson and Whitman From Wordsworth to Cage a certain kind of artist sought to re orient humanity's devotion from the next world to this one to situate paradise in the simple produce of the common day Enough of Science and Art Wordsworth began his first book of poems Come forth into the light of things Two hundred years later John Cage would tell us We open our eyes and ears seeing life each day excellent as it is This realization no longer needs art By studying artists together with poets Leonard uncovers the rich tradition that links Wordsworth to Cage and illuminates many figures in between Into the Light of Things transforms our understanding of modern culture Jacket

Semiotics Tejera, 2022-08-01 Raphael Soyer and the Search for Modern Jewish Art Samantha Baskind, 2015-12-01 Artist Raphael Soyer 1899-1987 whose Russian Jewish family settled in Manhattan in 1912 was devoted to painting people in their everyday urban lives He came to be known especially for his representations of city workers and the down and out and for his portraits of himself and his friends Although Soyer never identified himself as a Jewish artist Samantha Baskind in the first full length critical study of the artist argues that his work was greatly influenced by his ethnicity and by the Jewish American immigrant experience Baskind examines the painter's art and life in the rich context of religious cultural political and social conditions in the twentieth century United States By promoting an understanding of Soyer as a Jewish American artist she addresses larger questions about the definition and study of modern Jewish art Whereas previous scholars have defined Jewish art simply as art produced by people who were born Jewish Baskind stresses the importance of an artist's cultural identity when defining ethnic art As Baskind explains how Soyer negotiated his Jewish identity in changing ways over his lifetime she offers new strategies for identifying and interpreting Jewish art in general Her analysis of Soyer's work places the artist in a necessary context and provides a valuable new approach to the study of modern Jewish art anthology as a whole American Aesthetics Walter B. Gulick, Gary Slater, 2020-05-01 Although there are distinctly American artists Walt Whitman Herman Melville Grandma Moses Thomas Hart Benton and Andy Warhol for example very little attention has been devoted to formulating any distinctively American characteristics of aesthetic judgment and practice This volume takes a step in this direction presenting an introductory essay on the possibility of such a distinctly American tradition and a collection of essays exploring particular examples from a variety of angles Some of the essays in this collection extend pragmatist and process insights about the important place aesthetics has in molding and assessing experience Other essays examine the place of American aesthetics in relation to such particular forms of art as painting literature music and film Three essays attend to the aesthetic aspects of a flourishing life In each of the essays American aesthetics is understood to arise out of deeply felt personal historical and cultural backgrounds Consequently not only are such relatively abstract notions as harmony fit elegance proportion and the like involved in aesthetic judgment but also religious political and social factors become embroiled in aesthetic discernment Thus the ongoing pattern of American aesthetics is shown to be distinguishable from such other varieties of aesthetic thought as analytic aesthetics New Criticism and postmodern approaches to aesthetics The Oxford Dictionary of American Art and Artists Ann Lee Morgan, 2007 In this dictionary of American art 945 alphabetically arranged entries cover painters sculptors graphic artists photographers printmakers and contemporary hybrid artists along with important aspects of the cultural infrastructure The International Review , 1883 Art Education Albert William Levi, Ralph Alexander Smith, 1991 Recommending that art be taught as a humanity this volume provides a philosophical rationale for the idea of discipline based art education Levi and Smith discuss topics ranging over both the public and private aspects of art the disciplines of artistic creation art history art criticism and aesthetics and curriculum proposals featuring five phases of aesthetic learning While there is no consensus on how the various components of aesthetic learning should be presented in order to accomplish the goals of discipline based art education the authors point out that progress toward those goals will require that those who design art education programs bring an understanding of the four disciplines to their work The introductory volume of a five volume series this book will appeal to elementary and secondary art teachers those who prepare teachers at the college level and museum educators Robert Rauschenberg's »Erased de Kooning Drawing« (1953) Gregor Stemmrich, 2023-01-01 Erased de Kooning Drawing ist ein Kunstwerk das auf radikale Weise die Definition von Kunst und das Verständnis von Autorschaft herausfordert Drei amerikanische Künstler waren 1953 an seiner Erschaffung beteiligt Robert Rauschenberg radierte eine Zeichnung Willem de Koonings aus der mit einem gewissen Widerwillen sein Einverständnis gegeben hatte Jasper Johns versah es anschließend seiner ersten Präsentation mit einem Label das maßgeblich zu seiner Wahrnehmung als eigenständigem Werk beitrug Das zu etwas Neuem transformierte Blatt wurde in den 1950er Jahren als Neo Dada aufgefasst in den 1960ern als Beginn der Konzeptkunst und in den 1980er Jahren als Aufbruch in die Postmoderne Zahlreiche Künstlerinnen bezogen
