The Art & Ritual of Childbirth in Renaissance Italy Jacqueline Musacchio, 1995 Images and Identity in Fifteenth-century Florence Patricia Lee Rubin, 2007-01-01 An exploration of ways of looking in Renaissance Florence where works of art were part of a complex process of social exchange Renaissance Florence of endless fascination for the beauty of its art and architecture is no less intriguing for its dynamic political economic and social life In this book Patricia Lee Rubin crosses the boundaries of all these areas to arrive at an original and comprehensive view of the place of images in Florentine society The author asks an array of questions Why were works of art made Who were the artists who made them and who commissioned them How did they look and how were they looked at She demonstrates that the answers to such questions illuminate the contexts in which works of art were created and how they were valued and viewed Rubin seeks out the meeting places of meaning in churches in palaces in piazzas places of exchange where identities were taken on and transformed often with the mediation of images She concentrates on questions of vision and visibility on seeing and being seen With a blend of exceptional illustrations close analyses of sacred and secular paintings by artists including Fra Angelico Fra Filippo Lippi Filippino Lippi and Botticelli and wide ranging bibliographic essays the book shines new light on fifteenth century Florence a special place that made beauty one of its defining features

Motherhood and Meaning in Medieval Sculpture Marian Bleeke, 2017 An examination of women as mothers in medieval French sculpture What can medieval sculptural representations of women tell us about medieval women s experiences of motherhood Presumably the work of male sculptors working for clerical patrons these sculptures are unlikely to have been shaped by women s maternal experiences during their production Once produced however their beholders would have included women who were mothers and potential mothers thus opening a space between the sculptures intended meanings and other meanings liable to be produced by these women as they brought their own interests and concerns to these works of art Building on theories of reception and response this book focuses on interactions between women as beholders and a range of sculptures made in France in the twelfth through sixteenth centuries aiming to provide insight into women s experiences of motherhood particular sculptures considered include the Annunciation and Visitation from Reims cathedral the femme aux serpents from Moissac the transi of Jeanne de Bourbon Vendôme the Eve from Autun and a number of French Gothic Virgin and Child sculptures Marian Bleeke is Associate Professor of Art History and Chair of the Department of Art and Design at Cleveland State University

The Early Modern Child in Art and History Matthew Knox Averett, 2015-10-06 Childhood is not only a biological age it is also a social construct The essays in this collection range chronologically from the fifteenth to the eighteenth century and geographically across England France Germany Italy and Spain They chart the depictions of children in various media including painting sculpture and the graphic arts

Reconsidering Gender, Time and Memory in Medieval Culture Elizabeth Cox, Liz Herbert McAvoy, Roberta Magnani, 2015 A consideration of the ways in which the past was framed and remembered in the pre modern world The training and use of memory was crucial in medieval culture given the limited literacy at the time but to date very little thought has been given to the complex and disparate ways in which the theory and practices of memory interacted with the inherently unstable concepts of time and gender at the time The essays in this volume drawing on approaches from applied poststructural and queer theory among others reassess those ideologies meanings and responses generated by the workings of memory within and over time Ultimately they argue for the inherent instability of the traditional gender time memory matrix within which men are configured as the recorders of history and women as the repositories of a more inchoate familial and communal knowledge showing the Middle Ages as a locus for a far more fluid conceptualization of time and memory than has previously been considered Elizabeth Cox is Lecturer in Old English at Swansea University Roberta Magnani is Lecturer in Medieval Literature at Swansea University Liz Herbert McAvoy is Professor of Medieval Literature at Swansea University Contributors Anne E Bailey Daisy Black Elizabeth Cox Fiona Harris Stoertz Ayoush Lazikani Liz Herbert McAvoy Pamela E Morgan William Rogers Patricia Skinner Victoria Turner

Selected Poems and Translations Madeleine de l'Aubespine, 2008-09-15 Madeleine de l'Aubespine 1546 1596 the toast of courtly and literary circles in sixteenth century Paris penned beautiful love poems to famous women of her day The well connected daughter and wife of prominent French secretaries of state l'Aubespine was celebrated by her male peers for her erotic lyricism and scathingly original voice Rather than adopt the conventional self effacement that defined female poets of the time l'Aubespine's speakers are sexual dominant and defiant and her subjects are women who are able to manipulate rebuke and even humiliate men Unavailable in English until now and only recently identified from scattered and sometimes misattributed sources l'Aubespine's poems and literary works are presented here in Anna Klosowska's vibrant translation This collection which features one of the first French lesbian sonnets as well as reproductions of l'Aubespine's poetic translations of Ovid and Ariosto will be heralded by students and scholars in literature history and women's studies as an important addition to the Renaissance canon The Formation of the Child in Early Modern Spain Grace E.

Coolidge, 2016-03-16 Drawing on history literature and art to explore childhood in early modern Spain the contributors to this collection argue that early modern Spaniards conceptualized childhood as a distinct and discrete stage in life which necessitated special care and concern The volume contrasts the didactic use of art and literature with historical accounts of actual children and analyzes children in a wide range of contexts including the royal court the noble family and orphanages The volume explores several interrelated questions that challenge both scholars of Spain and scholars specializing in childhood How did early modern Spaniards perceive childhood In what framework literary artistic did they think about their children and how did they visualize those children's roles within the family and society How do gender and literary genres intersect with this concept of childhood How did ideas about childhood shape parenting parents and adult life in early modern Spain How did theories about children and childhood interact with the actual experiences of children and their parents The group of international scholars contributing to this book have developed a variety of creative interdisciplinary approaches to uncover children's lives the role of children within the larger family adult perceptions of childhood images of children and childhood in art and literature and the ways in which children and childhood were vulnerable and in need of protection Studying children uncovers previously hidden aspects of Spanish history and allows the contributors to analyze the ideals and goals of Spanish culture the inner dynamics of the Habsburg court and the vulnerabilities and weaknesses that Spanish society fought to overcome God's Bounty? Ecclesiastical History Society, Ecclesiastical History Society. Summer Meeting, 2010 Papers read at the 2008 summer meeting and the 2009 winter meeting of the Ecclesiastical History Society

Household Goods and Good Households in Late Medieval London Katherine L. French, 2021-08-20 Household Goods and Good Households in Late Medieval London looks at how increased consumption in the aftermath of the Black Death reconfigured long held gender roles and changed the domestic lives of London's merchants and artisans for years to come

Many Pious Women Harry Fox, Justin Jaron Lewis, 2011-10-27 This work is of importance to anyone with an interest in whether women especially Jewish Ashkenazic women had a Renaissance It details the participation in the Querelle des Femmes and Power of Women topos as expressed in this hagiographic work on the lives of biblical women including the apocryphal Judith The Power of Women topos is discussed in the context of the reception of the Amazon myth in Jewish literature and the domestication of powerful female figures In the Querelle our author pleads with husbands for generosity and respect for their wives piety Whether women living in the Renaissance experienced a renaissance is a debate raging since Joan Kelly raised the possibility that this historic phenomenon essentially did not affect women The question is raised with reference to the women depicted in Many Pious Women These topics find their expression in a richly annotated translation with extensive introductory essays of a unique 16th century manuscript in Western Yiddish Judeo German written in Italy The text will also be useful to scholars of the history of Yiddish and theorists of its development Women everywhere gender and Renaissance scholars Yiddishists and linguists will all welcome this work now available for the very first time in the original text with an English translation Composing Community in Late Medieval Music Jane D.

Hatter, 2019-05-02 An exploration of what self-referential compositions reveal about late medieval musical networks linking choirboys to canons and performers to theorists Pieter Bruegel and the Culture of the Early Modern Dinner Party Claudia Goldstein, 2017-07-05 Mining a rich interdisciplinary mix of sources including stoneware jugs personal correspondence paintings inventories and literature written for the dining room this study offers a critical and entirely original examination of the function of early modern images for the people who owned and viewed them The study explores the emergence functions and material culture of the Antwerp dinner party during the heady days of the mid sixteenth century when Antwerp's art market was thriving and a new wealthy non-noble class dominated the city The author recontextualizes some of Bruegel's work within the cultural nexus of the dining room where material culture and theatrical performance met humanist wit and the desire for professional advancement The narrative also touches on the reception of Northern art in Lombardy on intersections among painting material culture and theater and on intellectual history Women and Gender in Early Modern Europe Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks, Merry E. Wiesner, 2019-01-24 This new edition of Merry E Wiesner Hanks's prize winning survey features significant changes to reflect the newest scholarship in every chapter The Routledge History of Sex and the Body Sarah Toulalan, Kate Fisher, 2013-03-20 The Routledge History of Sex and the Body provides an overview of the main themes surrounding the history of sexuality from 1500 to the present day The history of sex and the body is an expanding field in which vibrant debate on for instance the history of homosexuality is developing This book examines the current scholarship and looks towards future directions across the field The volume is divided into fourteen thematic chapters which are split into two chronological sections 1500-1750 and 1750 to present day Focusing on the history of sexuality and the body in the West but also interactions with a broader globe these thematic chapters survey the major areas of debate and discussion Covering themes such as science identity the gaze courtship reproduction sexual violence and the importance of race the volume offers a comprehensive view of the history of sex and the body The book concludes with an afterword in which the reader is invited to consider some of the tensions problems and areas deserving further scrutiny Including contributors renowned in their field of expertise this ground breaking collection is essential reading for all those interested in the history of sexuality and the body The Early Modern Italian Domestic Interior, 1400-1700 Erin J. Campbell, Stephanie R. Miller, Elizabeth Carroll Consavari, 2016-03-23 Emphasizing on the one hand the reconstruction of the material culture of specific residences and on the other the way in which particular domestic objects reflect shape and mediate family values and relationships within the home this volume offers a distinct contribution to research on the early modern Italian domestic interior Though the essays mainly take an art historical approach the book is interdisciplinary in that it considers the social implications of domestic objects for family members of different genders age and rank as well as for visitors to the home By adopting a broad chronological framework that encompasses both Renaissance and Baroque Italy and by expanding the regional scope beyond Florence and Venice to include domestic interiors from less studied centers such as Urbino Ferrara and Bologna this collection offers genuinely new perspectives on the home in early modern Italy

Domestic Devotions in Early Modern Italy, 2018-11-01 Domestic Devotions in Early Modern Italy illuminates the vibrancy of spiritual beliefs and practices which profoundly shaped family life in this era Scholarship on Catholicism has tended to focus on institutions but the home was the site of religious instruction and reading prayer and meditation communal worship multi sensory devotions contemplation of religious images and the performance of rituals as well as extraordinary events such as miracles Drawing on a wide range of sources this volume affirms the central place of the household to spiritual life and reveals the myriad ways in which devotion met domestic needs The seventeen essays encompass religious history the histories of art and architecture material culture musicology literary history and social and

Mona Lisa Dianne Hales, 2014-08-05 The book rests on the premise that the woman in the painting Mona Lisa is indeed the person identified in its earliest description Lisa Gherardini 1479 1542 wife of the Florence merchant Francesco del Giocondo Dianne Hales has followed facts from the Florence State Archives to the squalid street where Mona Lisa was born to the ruins of the convent where she died Memoirs Marie Mancini, Hortense Mancini, 2009-05-15 The memoirs of Hortense 1646 1699 and of Marie 1639 1715 Mancini nieces of the powerful Cardinal Mazarin and members of the court of Louis XIV represent the earliest examples in France of memoirs published by women under their own names during their lifetimes Both unhappily married Marie had also fled the aftermath of her failed affair with the king the sisters chose to leave their husbands for life on the road a life quite rare for women of their day Through their writings the Mancinis sought to rehabilitate their reputations and reclaim the right to define their public images themselves rather than leave the stories of their lives to the intrigues of the court and to their disgruntled ex husbands First translated in 1676 and 1678 and credited largely to male redactors the two memoirs reemerge here in an accessible English translation that chronicles the beginnings of women's rights to personal independence within the confines of an otherwise circumscribed early modern aristocratic society Selected Poetry and Prose Chiara Matraini, 2009-05-15 Chiara Matraini 1515 1604 was a member of the great flowering of poetic imitators and innovators in the Italian literary heritage begun by Petrarch cultivated later by the lyric poet Pietro Bembo and supplanted by the epic poet Torquato Tasso Though without formal training Matraini excelled in a number of literary genres popular at the time poetry religious meditation discourse and dialogue In her midlife she published a collection of erotic love poetry but later in life her work shifted toward a search for spiritual salvation Near the end of her life she published a new poetry retrospective Mostly available in only a handful of rare book collections her writings are now adeptly translated here for an English speaking audience and situated historically in an introduction by noted Matraini expert Giovanna Rabitti Selected Poetry and Prose allows the poet to finally take her place as one of the seminal authors of the Renaissance next to her contemporaries Vittoria Colonna and Laura Battiferra also published in the Other Voice series

The Ashgate Research Companion to Women and Gender in Early Modern Europe Jane Couchman, 2016-03-23 Over the past three decades scholars have transformed the study of women and gender in early modern Europe This Ashgate Research Companion presents an authoritative review of the current research on women and gender in early modern Europe from a multi disciplinary perspective The authors examine women's lives ideologies of gender and the differences between ideology and reality through the recent research across many disciplines including history literary studies art history musicology history of science and medicine and religious studies The book is intended as a resource for scholars and students of Europe in the early modern period for those who are just beginning to explore these issues and this time period as well as for scholars learning about aspects of the field in which they are not yet an expert The companion offers not only a comprehensive examination of the current research on women in early modern Europe but will act as a spark for new research in the field
