Crandall, Susan M. Crandall, 2007-08-15 Archaeological digs have turned up sculptures in Inuit lands that are thousands of years old but Inuit art as it is known today only dates back to the beginning of the 1900s Early art was traditionally produced from soft materials such as whalebone and tools and objects were also fashioned out of stone bone and ivory because these materials were readily available The Inuit people are known not just for their sculpture but for their graphic art as well the most prominent forms being lithographs and stonecuts This work affords easy access to information to those interested in any type of Inuit art There are annotated entries on over 3 761 articles books catalogues government documents and other publications Al Purdy and His Works Louis K. MacKendrick, 1991 These studies of Canadian authors fulfill a real need in the study of Canadian literature Each monograph is a separately bound study of about 55 pages Each contains a biography of the author a description of the tradition and milieu that influenced the author a survey of the criticism on the author a comprehensive essay on all the author's key works and a detailed bibliography of primary and secondary works Canadian Writers and Their Work Robert Lecker, Jack David, Ellen Quigley, 1992 Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English Maria Teresa Bindella, Geoffrey V. Davis, 1993 Imagination and the Creative Impulse in the New Literatures in English brings together the proceedings of a symposium organised by the editors at the University of Trento in 1990 At a time when the study of the post colonial literatures is gaining more widespread recognition scholars based mainly at universities in Italy and Germany were invited to address the manner in which writers are giving literary expression to the complexity of contemporary post colonial and multicultural societies and to consider from their differing perspectives on the new literatures central questions of formal experimentation linguistic innovation social and political commitment textual theory and cross culturality Focusing on such major writers such as Achebe Soyinka and Walcott as well as on lesser known figures such as Jack Davis Witi Ihimaera Rohinton Mistry and Manohar Malgonkar the contributors take up many themes characteristic of the new literatures the challenge posed to traditional authority the expression of national identity the role of literature in the liberation struggle modes of literary practice in multicultural societies the relationship of the new literatures in English to that of the former metropolitan centre and the complex intertextuality characterizing much of the literary production of post colonial societies

Weingarten,2025-06-17 The Weather and the Words The Selected Letters of John Newlove 1963 2003 gathers hundreds of never before seen letters from the poet John Newlove s archives and sheds light on an author who was to many Canadian writers a literary master Despite his stature during his lifetime Newlove has been largely forgotten and these letters remind readers of what an influential compelling and combative figure he was in Canadian literary history Newlove lived and wrote during a time when Canadian writers were well funded widely read and members of thriving literary communities By the time he died in 2003 that culturally prosperous era had ended Something else had changed too the practice of letter writing began to disappear as email replaced mailed correspondence Telling the story of Newlove s life The Weather and the Words pays tribute not just to this one remarkable poet but also to a remarkable era in Canadian history and the lost art of letter writing the medium through which writers politicians and other public figures fought collaborated conferred and philosophized about art and culture throughout the twentieth century In Newlove s correspondence readers will find a compelling story about the incredible difficulty of establishing a literary career and raising a family while struggling with poverty addiction and mental health issues Through colourful letters Newlove exchanged with Canadian writers such as Margaret Atwood Susan Musgrave Michael Ondaatje Al Purdy and numerous others The Weather and the Words gives readers a ground level view of Newlove s life and era The book includes a foreword by Lorna Crozier an introduction by editor J A Weingarten and an afterword by Laura Cameron Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing, R5ference Reed, 1995-12
