Albert Kahn Roger Matuz, 2002 A Biography of the German Born Jewish Architect Who From the 1880s Through the Early 1940s Designed Elegant Homes Factories for Henry Ford and Industrial Plants to Support the United States War Effort

Albert Kahn, Architect, Detroit, Michigan Albert Kahn, 1921 Building the Modern World Michael H. Hodges, 2018 A photographically rich biography of protean architect Albert Kahn Albert Kahn Roger Matuz, 2001-09-01 He left his mark across the skyline of Detroit in skyscrapers and factories hospitals and theaters as well as across southeastern Michigan and the world Albert Kahn was an architect at the dawn of the automobile age when the Motor City came into its own This biography tells young readers how he overcame numerous disadvantages to make that indelible mark Raised in a poor family Kahn s formal education ended when he was 12 He was colorblind and was fired from his first architectural job for lack of talent Yet through skill determination and self confidence he turned hardship to advantage and realized his dream of becoming an architect Roger Matuz tells Kahn s story in narrative fashion weaving together anecdotes and quotes by and about Kahn while chronicling his life and work Matuz relates both major incidents in Kahn s life and descriptions of his work from the factory in which the first Model T was produced to elegant homes that have received national recognition He explains how Kahn was influenced by Renaissance architecture he saw while traveling in Europe Although Kahn attributed much of his success to the good fortune of being in the right place at the right time he exemplified hard work and perseverance Matuz s account conveys that example for young readers who can see the results of Kahn s determination in their own world The Legacy of Albert Kahn Albert Kahn, 1987 From the Back Cover An invaluable handbook tracing the creative genius of Albert Kahn one of America s most distinguished architects The Legacy of Albert Kahn presents a chronology of designs in the areas of commercial civic institutional and domestic architecture Over 280 photographs drawings and floor plans illustrate the highly readable text Albert Kahn Inc. Claire Zimmerman, 2025-08-12 A study of Albert Kahn Incorporated the architecture firm closely associated with the Ford Motor Company and other auto companies that explores capitalism and political economy through the built environment of industry and culture In Albert Kahn Inc Claire Zimmerman provides a history of second wave industrialization associated with the growth and development of the United States auto industry and its global footprint A forensic analysis of the architects of Ford the book theorizes how building and capitalism intersected in the case of twentieth century industrial buildings but also in other kinds of architecture and in the built environment writ large Generally a marginal subject in histories of architecture industrialism here exposes the expansionist modern project in Western architecture and culture which was based on natural resource extraction and labor exploitation With more than 140 full color illustrations the book combines an analysis of industrial architecture with compelling photographic evidence drawn from assorted archives Zimmerman offers a political economy of architecture reconceptualizes the design process within a high volume firm in dialogue with fast paced industrial capitalism

tracks the feedback loops that industrialization introduced into architecture and maps the unequal effects of these industrial environments on the workers who labored within them Ultimately Zimmerman shows how the coalition of US private capital and state power built industrial installations as imperialist projects and how its practices survive to the present day
