Alberta's Local Governments: Politics and Democracy Jack Masson, Edward C. LeSage, 1994 During the last decade Alberta municipalities have endured hardships they have not faced since the Great Depression Changes in the province's political structures appear to have been made primarily to transfer a greater share of the costs of local government to the municipalities yet surprisingly few municipal politicians have resisted the province's financial policies Teaching the World Merrill Distad, University of Alberta. Office of the Vice-President (Research and External Affairs), 1996-04 This book catalogues an exhibition of textbooks by authors from the University of Alberta Each finished textbook contains its own story of challenges and victories And each has its own power as a record of knowledge a teaching tool and an object of permanence and beauty

Governing Ourselves? Mary Louise McAllister, 2011-11-01 Popular rhetoric suggests that the twenty first century has ushered in an era of homogeneity Urbanization globalization amalgamation media conglomeration and technological convergence have become familiar terms Given the pressures of integration and assimilation how are people within communities able to make decisions about their own environment whether individually or collectively To what extent can they govern themselves Governing Ourselves explores issues of influence and power within local institutions and decision making processes using numerous illustrations from municipalities across Canada It shows how communities large and small from Toronto to Iqaluit have distinctive political cultures and therefore respond differently to changing global and domestic environments Case studies of Prince George Sherbrooke Saint John and Kitchener Waterloo are used to illuminate historical and contemporary challenges to local governance This stimulating book covers traditional topics such as government structures and institutions and intergovernmental relations It also reaches more broadly into areas of inquiry relevant to geography urban planning environmental studies public administration sociology and Canadian studies

During the last decade Alberta municipalities have endured hardships they have not faced since the Great Depression Changes in the province's political structures appear to have been made primarily to transfer a greater share of the costs of local government to the municipalities yet surprisingly few municipal politicians have resisted the province's financial policies Alberta's Local Governments Politics and Democracy documents the policies and events that have tested and strengthened the commitment of municipalities to democratic government Foundations of Governance Andrew Sancton,Robert A. Young,2009-07-03 Municipalities are responsible for many essential services and have become vital agents for implementing provincial policies including those dealing with the environment emergency planning economic development and land use In Foundations of Governance experts from each of Canada's provinces come together to assess the extent to which municipal governments have the capacity to act autonomously purposefully and collaboratively in the intergovernmental arena Each chapter follows a common template in order to facilitate comparison and covers essential features such as institutional structures municipal functions demography and municipal finances Canada's municipalities function in diverse ways but have similar problems and in this way are illustrative of the importance of local democracy Foundations of Governance shows that municipal governments require the legitimacy granted by a vibrant democracy in order to successfully negotiate and implement important collective choices about the futures of communities
