Gavin Dingwall

Alcohol Crime Proceedings Of A Confere:

Alcohol and Crime Gavin Dingwall, 2013-07-23 Alcohol is massively associated with crime Evidence from the British Medical Association found that alcohol use is associated with 60 70 per cent of murders 70 per cent of stabbings 50 per cent of fights or assaults in the home For non violent offences the association is very strong as well 88 per cent of those arrested for criminal damage 83 per cent for breach of the peace 41 per cent for theft and 26 per cent for burglary had drunk in the four hours prior to their arrest At the same time there has been intense concern about public drunkenness in town and city centres especially on the part of young people and the cost and damage this causes This book seeks to understand the nature of the connection between alcohol and crime and the way the criminal justice system responds to the problem providing a clear and accessible account and analysis of the subject It draws upon a wide range of sources and research findings and also sets the subject within a broader comparative context It takes an interdisciplinary approach and includes a sociological account of the role of alcohol in British society a criminological analysis of the link between alcohol and crime and a philosophical consideration of individual responsibility for harm caused whilst intoxicated and a legal analysis of different approaches that can be adopted as a response to alcohol related offending Proceedings of the National Conference on Criminal Justice United States. National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals, 1976 This book provides a record of the speeches and discussion of the conference that was held to review major standards and recommendations of the National Advisory Commission on Criminal Justice Standards and Goals This book is a companion to the six volumes of the Commission report but it is not a statement of the Commission itself This conference enabled criminal justice practitioners from across the nation to gain an overview of the Commission s work and an understanding of the intent of the Commission in developing its standards and goals Other recent commissions have studied the causes and debilitating effects of crime in our society This effort has sought to expand their work and build upon it developing a clear statement of priorities goals and standards to help set a national strategy to reduce crime through the timely and equitable administration of justice the protection of life liberty and property and the efficient mobilization of resources The Commission hopes that its standards and recommendations will influence the shape of the criminal justice system in the nation for many years to come And it believes that adoption of those standards and recommendations will contribute to a measurable reduction of the amount of crime in America Australian national bibliography, 1961 Criminal Justice in Native America Marianne O. Nielsen, Robert A. Silverman, 2009-04-09 Native Americans are disproportionately represented as offenders in the U S criminal justice system However until recently there was little investigation into the reasons Furthermore there has been little acknowledgment of the positive contributions of Native Americans to the criminal justice system in rehabilitating offenders aiding victims and supporting service providers This book offers a valuable and contemporary overview of how the American criminal justice system impacts Native Americans on both sides of the law Contributors many of whom are Native

Americans rank among the top scholars in their fields Some of the chapters treat broad subjects including crime police courts victimization corrections and jurisdiction Others delve into more specific topics including hate crimes against Native Americans state corporate crimes against Native Americans tribal peacemaking and cultural stresses of police officers Separate chapters are devoted to women and juveniles Criminology, Penology, and Police Science Abstracts ,1995

Alcohol and Crime ,1993 Recent Developments in Alcoholism Marc Galanter,2006-01-02 From the President of the Research Society on Alcoholism On behalf of the Research Society on Alcoholism I am pleased to introduce this thirteenth volume of Recent Developments in Alcoholism about alcohol and violence Current concepts are presented in well organized sections that focus on epidemiology neurobiology psychology and family issues It is coming increasingly clear that age gender socioeconomic circumstances and genetics affect aggressive behavior and vulnerability to alcoholism This volume contains up to date discussions of these issues Indeed the information presented here will help all alcohol researchers to identify biological and social factors that contribute to the comorbidity of alcoholism and aggression The editors and associate editors should be congratulated for bringing together such important information This volume will be a valuable resource for investigators and therapists alike Ivan Diamond M D Ph D President Research Society on Alcoholism From the President of the American Society of Addiction Medicine The American Society of Addiction Medicine is honored to continue its sponsorship with the Research Society on Alcoholism of Recent Developments in Alcoholism The topic of alcohol and violence is a particularly timely one given the growing number of studies that are examining the relationship between the two These studies are consistent with the hypothesis that alcohol can increase aggression and contribute to both domestic and criminal violence Intoxicating blood levels of alcohol have been found to be especially prevalent in those injured in fights and assaults Document Retrieval Index ,1972 Social, Psychological, and Economic Aspects of Alcoholism

Catherine S. Chilman,1966 Dealing with Alcohol Sherry Saggars,Dennis Gray,1998-11-02 The devastating impact of alcohol on indigenous populations is well known but debate often overlooks the broad context of the problem and the priorities of indigenous people themselves This book was written with the desire to improve the level of informed debate and lead to constructive action It aims to provide readers with a coherent explanation of alcohol misuse among indigenous peoples in Australia New Zealand and Canada The extensive health economic social and cultural consequences of misuse are described in the words of the indigenous people themselves The book found that patterns of indigenous alcohol consumption could not be understood in isolation from the impact of European colonialism and its continuing consequences Its authors argue that our understanding of alcohol misuse needs to be reconceptualised and structural inequalities addressed
