 Exploration of Language and Linguistics is designed as a comprehensive introductory text for first and second year university students of language and linguistics It provides a chapter on each of the more established areas in linguistics such as lexicology morphology syntax phonetics and phonology historical linguistics and language typology and on some of the newer areas such as cross cultural semantics pragmatics text linguistics and contrastive linguistics In each of these areas language is explored as part of a cognitive system comprising perception emotion categorisation abstraction processes and reasoning All these cognitive abilities may interact with language and be influenced by language Thus the study of language in a sense becomes the study of the way we express and exchange ideas and thoughts This Second Revised Edition is corrected updated
