Classifying by Race Paul E. Peterson,2014-07-14 The contemporary debate over racial classification has been dominated by fringe voices in American society Cries from the right say history should be abrogated and public policy made color blind while zealots of the left insist that all customs language institutions and practices are racially tinged and that only aggressive color conscious programs can reverse the course of American history The essays in this volume however recognize that racial classification is an issue that cuts too deep and poses too many constitutional questions to be resolved by slogans of either the right or the left The contributors to this volume are James Alt Kenneth Benoit Henry Brady John Bruce Rodolfo O de la Garza Andrew Gelman Lani Guinier Fredrick C Harris Gary King Robert C Lieberman David Ian Lublin David Metz Paul E Peterson Kay Lehman Schlozman Kenneth Shepsle Theda Skocpol Katherine Tate Richard Valelly Sidney Verba and Margaret Weir Originally published in 1995 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
