Schröder,2016-04-08 Since the end of state repression against religion two major processes have taken place in the formerly socialist countries historically dominant churches strive to reassert their position in society while new religious groups and ideas from various parts of the world are proliferating This generates pluralism of religious communities and individual religious attitudes Religious Diversity in Post Soviet Society presents the first collection of ethnographies of this new religious diversity for Lithuania a country that has a long history of a dominant Catholic Church The authors reveal how Catholicism has become increasingly diversified and other religions Charismatic Protestantism Baltic Paganism Eastern religions and other alternative spiritualities are claiming their space in the religious field Research in the Social

Scientific Study of Religion Ralph L. Piedmont,Andrew Village,2012-05-23 The twenty third volume of RSSSR includes a landmark collection of papers on Theism and Non Theism in Psychological Science as well as papers on other key areas in the study of religion such as spirituality and social capital Possession, Power and the New Age Matthew

Wood,2016-04-08 This book provides a new sociological account of contemporary religious phenomena such as channelling holistic healing meditation and divination which are usually classed as part of a New Age Movement Drawing on his extensive ethnography carried out in the UK alongside comparative studies in America and Europe Matthew Wood criticises the view that such phenomena represent spirituality in which self authority is paramount Instead he emphasises the role of social authority and the centrality of spirit possession linking these to participants class positions and experiences of secularisation Informed by sociological and anthropological approaches to social power and practice especially the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault Wood s study explores what he calls the nonformative regions of the religious field and charts similarities and differences with pagan spiritualist and Theosophical traditions Elusive UFOs - a Solid Matter

Jaakko Närvä,2022-04-20 This is a book dealing with the fundamental question of ufology Are UFOs real or not This problem has been studied for decades and it is still severely debated by ufologists and skeptics Most academics are skeptics What is the right answer This book goes systematically and thoroughly through the essential arguments for and against UFOs and enlightens the scientific grounds of ufology Embedded Faith Carlton Johnstone,2013-12-04 Embedded Faith explores the way Christian faith journeys of young adults are embedded within church communities It discusses why young adults go to church why they change churches why some are involved in the practice of church two timing and what they are looking for in a church Embedded Faith also provides valuable insight into the relationship between geographic mobility and belonging to a faith community in a transient age Embedded Faith discusses areas where young adults are engaging and disengaging with church life such as preaching and worship It addresses how stage of life transitions and life experience impact on one's experience and involvement in church This book will enable anyone working with young adults in a church context to give shape to a ministry that is more sensitive and connected to the realities faced by young adults and will call you to the importance of listening to the lived experience of young adults as it relates to faith and church The Role of Religion in Modern Societies Detlef Pollack, Daniel V.A. Olson, 2012-08-21 Does modernization lead to the decline of religion This question lies at the centre of a key debate in the sociology of religion During the past decade American scholars using primarily American data have dominated this debate and have made a strong case that the answer to this question is no Recently however a new crop of European scholars working with new sources of European data have uncovered evidence that points toward an affirmative answer This volume pays special attention to these trends and developments to provide the reader with a more well rounded understanding of the many ways in which religion interacts with modernization Respected scholars such as David Voas Steve Bruce and Anthony Gill examine modern societies across the world in this splendid book which will interest sociologists political scientists historians and theologians in equal measure Church and Religion in Contemporary Europe Gert Pickel, Olaf Müller, 2009-09-15 The Ethical Foundations of Postmodernity Nina Michaela von Dahler, Nina Michaela Von Dahler, 2013-07 A return to ethics which began in the 1980s and 1990s and is still predominant today has been ascribed to literary studies and theory In this book theoretical issues within ethics are discussed based on the examples of literary analyses The authors examined are Margaret Atwood Jeffrey Eugenides and Robert M Pirsig The main questions concern the foundation on which ethical concepts are based and the way in which such concepts function These topics are evidently connected to matters of human concepts and human nature in general which are understood to be fundamentally communicative Contrary to popular conclusions of relativity the need for a realist foundation of ethics implying universal validity will be revealed It is not only possible but also necessary to develop such an idea of ethics within a postmodern relativist framework A communicative foundationalist ethics will thus be designed With regard to literature an increasing emergence of first person narrative can be witnessed in addition to a new focus on a realist and more mimetic style after a peak of pluralist conceptions at the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twenty first centuries The analysis of such narrative situations will reveal the significance of the narrative generation of individual personalities for an understanding of ethical questions The conflict between relativist and realist points of view centers on the postmodern critique of the individual The study of the literary generation of individuals will elucidate means of confronting this critique The theoretical background includes the poststructuralist and communicative concepts of Judith Butler and Seyla Benhabib as well as Ernst Tugendhat's analytical approach Nina von Dahler studied English language and literature philosophy sociology and educational sciences at the Universities of Hamburg and Heidelberg This book is based on her Ph D thesis Youth in Europe I Hans-Georg Ziebertz, 2005 This book contains a report of an extraordinary study about life perspectives of young people in different countries in Europe It reveals remarkable differences in perspective for the future of the young people in these countries Are we in the process of establishing a society in which future generations will feel at home and in which they can put their faith The European Union should support this kind of research Handbook of Contemporary Paganism Murphy Pizza,James R. Lewis,2009 Contemporary Paganism is a movement that is still young and establishing its identity and place on the global religious landscape The members of the movement are simultaneously growing unifying and maintaining its characteristic diversity of traditions identities and rituals The modern Pagan movement has had a restless formation period but has also been the catalyst for some of the most innovative religious expressions praxis theologies and communities As Contemporary Paganism continues to grow and mature new angles of inquiry about it have emerged and are explored in this collection This examination and study of contemporary Paganism contributes new ways to observe and examine other religions where innovations paradoxes and inconsistencies can be more accurately documented and explained

Western Sufism Mark Sedgwick,2016 In this book Mark Sedgwick shows that Western Sufism is not a recent phenomenon of the new age but rather is rooted in a series of intercultural transfers between the Muslim world and the West starting in the Middle Ages and in centuries of later Western intellectual history Possession, Power and the New Age Mr Matthew Wood,2013-05-28 This book provides a new sociological account of contemporary religious phenomena such as channelling holistic healing meditation and divination which are usually classed as part of a New Age Movement Drawing on his extensive ethnography carried out in the UK alongside comparative studies in America and Europe Matthew Wood criticises the view that such phenomena represent spirituality in which self authority is paramount Instead he emphasises the role of social authority and the centrality of spirit possession linking these to participants class positions and experiences of secularisation Informed by sociological and anthropological approaches to social power and practice especially the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault Wood s study explores what he calls the nonformative regions of the religious field and charts similarities and differences with pagan spiritualist and Theosophical traditions Care, Healing, and, Human Well-Being within Interreligious Discourses Helmut Weiss,Karl H. Federschmidt,Daniël Louw,Linda Sauer

Bredvik,2021-12-08 Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an edited peer reviewed volume of global perspectives on interreligious approaches to healing and well being by 23 academics and practitioners from five different faith practices and 13 different cultures With chapters by counsellors chaplains religious thinkers and linguists the multifaceted nature of the volume provides an expansive approach to spiritual care and counselling In order to understand the ways in which interreligious encounters can have an enriching effect on our humanity the volume is divided into four sections that address methodological questions surrounding spiritual caregiving perspectives of different faith traditions on care and healing the challenges to the praxis of care in diverse cultural and political settings and finally how spiritual care and healing can be carried out in public places such as the police the military and hospitals The book is an outgrowth of 25 years of experience within the Society for Interreligious Care and Counselling SIPCC to promote better understanding and practices of intercultural and interreligious spiritual caregiving
