Alternative Vision An Interpretation Of Liberation Theology:

An Alternative Vision Roger Haight, 1985 Presents liberationist materials under some of the basic Christian doctrines including God christology Church and sacraments to show that this vision of truth has wide applications Liberation Theology and Its Critics Arthur F. McGovern, 2009-08-01 From its beginnings liberation theology has provoked a wide and diverse range of responses from a multitude of critics theological methodological political ecclesiastical Liberation Theology and Its Critics is a comprehensive and systematic explication of these diverse criticisms as well as a reasoned and rigorous defense of liberation theology McGovern states his aim thus to understand better the world of Latin America and the culture and conditions which prompt a liberation theology while at the same time giving expression to some of the misgivings that many US Americans experience when reading about liberation theology Liberation Theology and Its Critics begins by discussing the place of theology itself in liberation theology The book offers an historical overview shows us what liberation theologians see as most distinctive in their work addresses the biblical interpretations and major areas of theology stressed by liberation theologians and discusses other theologians critiques Next McGovern explicates the use of social and political analysis in liberation theology which has been one of the areas of particular controversy He focuses on such issues as dependency theory Marxism class struggle socialism and the Nicaraguan revolution addressing throughout the concerns raised by a range of critics from the Vatican to Michael Novak Finally McGovern explores the role of the church and how liberation theology is lived out in practice He examines base communities ecclesiology current political trends in Latin America the varying status of liberation theology as well as its most recent developments McGovern demonstrates that liberation theology encompasses a wide spectrum of theologians with different styles and emphases It requires careful study non polemical debate and an honest effort to present the views of both liberation theologians and their critics fairly McGovern s book will be the benchmark against which subsequent work is measured An Introduction to Theology in Global Perspective Stephen B. Bevans, 2009 A comprehensive work on doing theology as part of the Catholic ecclesial community in today s world Freedom and Discipleship Daniel S. Schipani, 2021-12-29 An appraisal of liberation theology from the Anabaptist Mennonite perspective Freedom and Discipleship brings together essays by prominent theologians of that tradition and responses by Protestant liberation theologians Emerging from differing ethnic socio cultural and denominational backgrounds the contributors seek to promote an inter Christian dialogue This dialogue in turn locates foundations for both building and equipping the ecclesial community for mission especially the witness of peace and justice It spurs modern descendants of both traditions to reflect on their own radical roots while simultaneously raising critical questions on such topics as violence and nonviolence Freedom and Discipleship offers a unique assessment of liberation theology from the perspective of the Radical Reformation that stream of Protestantism which has understood the discipleship of Jesus to imply commitments to peace and to justice The contributors address the myriad dimensions of liberation theology including hermeneutical ecclesiological christological ethical and eschatological concerns In Part I Perspectives on Liberation Theology essays evaluate liberation theology at various points and in different ways Part II Dialogical Interface and Implications reflects the ongoing conversation in a dialectical and dynamic fashion In bringing together liberation theology and the Anabaptist perspective Freedom and Discipleship makes a significant contribution to the engagement of two Christian traditions

What Christians Believe Alan F. Johnson, Robert E. Webber, 1993 This book offers a biblical and historical summary of a general theology that affirms the unity of the various confessions as well as the validity of diversity in matters of secondary importance Defining Salvation in the Context of Black Theology James T. Murphy, Jr., 2012-08 An initial introduction to the study of Christian theology is both exciting and invigorating for students of its discipline One can become enameled in the classic perspectives of theology without any consideration of a possible alternative Defining Salvation in the Context of Black Theology is an exit from the classic conviction that trumpets the doctrine of soteriology attributing its substance to the posture of eternity while ignoring the importance of salvation in the existential Careful not to reject the question of eternal life but examining the nuances of the term salvation empowers this work to present the like manner essential that having salvation is just as much about now than it is in the here after

Black Theology and Ideology Harry H. Singleton, III, 2020-10-20 Combining the theological methods of Juan Luis Segundo and James H Cone Harry Singleton sheds new light on the impact of race on the origin and development of theology in America In Black Theology and Ideology Singleton appropriates Segundo's method of deideologization to argue that relevant theological reflection must expose religious political ideologies that justify human oppression in the name of God as a distortion of the gospel and counter them with new theological presuppositions rooted in liberation Singleton then contextualizes Segundo's method by offering the theology of James Cone as the most viable example of such a theological perspective in America Chapters are The Black Experience and the Emergence of Ideological Suspicion The Western Intellectual Tradition and Ideological Suspicion Hermeneutical Methodology and the Emergence of Exegetical Suspicion A New Hermeneutic and The Case for Indigenous Deideologization Harry H Singleton III Ph D is assistant professor of comparative religions and African American religion in the religion philosophy department at Benedict College Columbia South Carolina

A Philosophy of Human Hope J.J. Godfrey, 2012-12-06 Few reference works in philosophy have articles on hope Few also are systematic or large scale philosophical studies of hope Hope is admitted to be important in people's lives but as a topic for study hope has largely been left to psychologists and theologians For the most part philosophers treat hope en passant My aim is to outline a general theory of hope to explore its structure forms goals reasonableness and implications and to trace the implications of such a theory for atheism or theism What has been written is quite disparate Some see hope in an individualistic often existential way and some in a social and political way Hope is proposed by some as essentially atheistic and by others as incomprehensible outside of one or another kind of theism Is it possible to think consistently and at the same time comprehensively about the phenomenon of human hoping Or is it several phenomena How could there be such diverse understandings of so central a human experience On what rational basis could people differ over whether hope is linked to God What I offer here is a systematic analysis but one worked out in dialogue with Ernst Bloch Immanuel Kant and Gabriel Marcel Ernst Bloch of course was a Marxist and officially an atheist Gabriel Marcel a Christian theist and Immanuel Kant was a theist but not in a conventional way

God So Loves the City Charles E. Van Engen, Jude Tiersma, 2009-08-01 From the explosive contexts of Nairobi Mexico City Los Angeles and Madras burst fresh insights on the mission of the church for the city Jude Tiersma and Charles Van Engen worked closely with an international team of experienced urban practitioners to explore the most urgent issues facing those who minister in today's cities From each particular urban setting a team member contributed a story from ministry in the city Each story uniquely illustrates a different challenge of urban ministry in the face of injustice marginalization and urban structures This book brings you these stories then retells them in light of Scripture introducing new hope to each one From these stories emerge new ideas about the nature of cities and how to practice ministry in them The new methodology employed by Van Engen and Tiersma's team leads us in the first steps toward a theology of mission for the city God So Loves the City is a must for pastors seminary students missiologists congregation members and all who are concerned about urban ministry

Christian Encounters with the Other John C. Hawley, 1998-02 Why does Christianity feel the need to impose its customs and beliefs on the rest of the world Using a cultural studies approach CHRISTIAN ENCOUNTERS WITH THE OTHER covers the Renaissance through to the present It spans much of the globe discussing a range of authors and their works and the social forces that help shape missionary movements

Historicizing Christian Encounters with the Other John C. Hawley, 2016-07-27 Written from a cultural studies point of view thirteen original essays analyse literary accounts of historically famous sites of conversion Beginning with the Renaissance and extending to the present authors under discussion include Beaumont and Fletcher Lope de Vega Guamam Poma Thomas Nashe Daniel Defoe Chateaubriand Salvation Army pamphleteers Chinese missionaries Stephen Riggs Samson Occom Shusaku Endo Mongo Beti and Rigoberta Menchu What were the missionaries' intentions and how were they perceived

African Voices Israel Oluwale Olofinjana, 2017-08-30 Introducing an emerging academic field known as African British

Theologies this publication explores the significant presence of African Christianity in Britain Featuring contributions from twelve scholarly African pastors engaged in ministry and theology in Britain this book is a unique expression of theology from African Christians contextualizing the gospel for a multicultural British society Under three key areas of missiology contextual constructive theology and transformative practical theology the contributors interact with topics such as reverse missiology African pneumatology prosperity gospel and urban mission This book rigorously examines new contexts of Christianity and articulates new theological perspectives that are required to understand twenty first century ministry not only in urban Britain but also across the world Spiritual and Religious Haight, Roger,2016-02-09 La Cosecha

Eduardo C. Fernández,2000 marks a new stage in the development of U S Hispanic Latino theology Critical Essays on Edward Schillebeeckx's Theology Corneliu C. Simut,2010-02-18 This book presents the main teachings of Edward Schillebeeckx widely considered one of the most important Catholic thinkers of the twentieth century Schillebeeckx is known for his radical departure from traditional theology which he saw as no longer relevant to the modern world Because today s world has been shaped by a process of secularization heavily based on reason and progress in science technology economics urbanism etc modern people seek relevant answers to their deep existential questions that can be explained rationally In his quest to foster relevant and meaningful answers for today s world Schillebeeckx changed the traditional metaphysical content of Christian theology into explanations that radically reinterpret traditional Christian doctrines Primarily the supernatural essence of Christianity is given up as irrelevant and is replaced by a natural perspective on the world In Schillebeeckx s thoroughly historical and truly immanent theology God is man s terrestrial future Christ the symbol of universal human values and the Church is identified with the world as those communities which share these universal human values Schillebeeckx is convinced that these explanations emptied of metaphysical content can help today s people understand their existence in a new relevant and meaningful way Listening to the Spirit Aaron Stauffer,2024 People organize to protect and fight for what they hold most dear Using auto ethnography from over a decade of interfaith Broad based Community Organizing BBCO experiences Listening to the Spirit makes a case for the political role of sacred values in BBCO especially as they show up in two organizing practices the listening campaign and the relational meeting Aaron Stauffer argues that by centering sacred values in democratic politics these organizing practices can be seen as religious practices and that BBCO can build deeper solidarity through sacred values and relational power Stauffer offers a social ethical social practical account of religion and grounds democracy in our diverse religious values Acting for the Common Good Michael J. McGrath,2023-08-08 The goods that we pursue in our lives are for us first and foremost goods that are particular and personal and thus goods that are immediate to our attention Not readily apparent to us are goods necessary for the flourishing of our lives but that can be attained by us only in consort with others and thus realized only through collective action Such goods are common goods The wider the good the more extensive must be the human cooperation to realize the good A stable orderly society and a habitable planetary environment are common goods that can be realized only in and through the cooperation of all for the benefit of all That all contribute to the shared good of the whole is a matter of justice social justice Acting for the Common Good undertakes the study of social justice in light of the common good this from the viewpoint of Catholic social teaching which draws upon the tradition of the common good that is articulated classically in the philosophy of Aristotle and the theology of Thomas Aquinas and in the modern day social thought and authoritative teachings of the Catholic Church Fragile Resurrection Ashley E. Theuring, 2021-09-14 How do we practice hope after trauma What shape does hope take after abuse In grappling with these questions Ashley E Theuring implicates the entire church and advocates changing our theologies of hope and our understanding of resurrection Reimagining the Empty Tomb narrative from the Gospel of Mark in light of the experiences of domestic violence survivors Fragile Resurrection reveals the possibility for everyday practices and relationships to mediate hope and resurrection Theuring constructs an embodied imaginative hope found in the wake of trauma which can speak to our current context of trauma and uncertainty
