analyzing how each actor uses his appearance voice and movement to perform in ways that viewers across cultural divides register as sexually appealing Cosmosexuals also explores the intersection of global sex appeal and exoticism in historical and contemporary contexts from the malleable racial identities of Omar Sharif and Conrad Veidt to Mads Mikkelsen's accented whiteness and assesses the barriers that confine nonwhite actors in spite of their talent or celebrity Far more than handsome faces and chiseled abs male sex symbols emerge as laborers subject to disciplinary regimes steeped in patriarchy racism and structural inequity As such they have much to tell us about the economies of taste at work in the construction of screen masculinity and the terms of human desire
