Alaska This Beautiful World:

Alaska's Brooks Range John Kauffmann, 1992-11-30 Explores both geologic and human history of the region Includes a sampling of literature inspired by the Brooks Range Examines past present and future conservation efforts in this extraordinary place Not just the ultimate mountains for their northernmost location on the North American continent the Brooks Range also is one of the world's last great unspoiled wildernesses A land of environmental and cultural extremes its impressions on those who visit or reside there is as far ranging as humankind's effect on the Range itself Austere mystical and stunningly beautiful the psychic and corporeal influence of the region is inescapable Alaska's Brooks Range The Ultimate Mountains looks at the many facets that make this region so provocative and so worthy of our strongest preservation efforts It explores the geologic origins of some of the most desolate beauty on earth the native inhabitants both man and animal whose age old methods of survival have been altered by the winds from the lower 48 and the human history from the early British military explorers to gold panners to the geographers who first mapped the Arctic wilderness The story of Bob Marshall traces his influence as the father of the Arctic conservation movement and Range Writings offers a sampling of literature inspired by the Brooks Range experience Finally this book takes a hard look at past present and proposed conservation efforts in the Brooks Range because there is much more at stake than land and wildlife in this last frontier The future of humankind is here where the rarity of existence in pristine country is an everyday reality where we can learn how best to fit in without destroying the scheme of life so exquisitely evolved on this planet Alaska's Brooks Range is an affectionate portrait of an untamed territory a land that challenges the limits of its natural inhabitants and those of human spirit and providence Inclusion of Alaska Lands in National Park, Forest, Wildlife Refuge, and Wild and Scenic Rivers System United States. Along Alaska's Great River Frederick Schwatka,1885 These pages narrate the travels of the Alaska exploring expedition of 1883 In April of that year the expedition was organized with seven members at Vancouver Barracks Washington Territory and left Portland Oregon in May floated over the great stream for over thirteen hundred miles the longest raft journey ever made in the interest of geographical science The entire river over two thousand miles was traversed the party returning home by way of Bering s Sea and touching at the Aleutian Islands Preface Along Alaska's great river, account of the travels of the Alaska exploring expedition of 1883 Frederick Schwatka,1885 Alaska Region Overview ,2001 This look at the circumstances and amenities of Alaska emphasizes matters under Forest Service oversight World's Most Haunted Places Jeff Belanger,2009-01-15 Describes paranormal activity at haunted locations from the Ballygally Castle Hotel in Ballgally Ireland to Hibbing High School in Hibbing Minnesota Alaska Man's Luck and Other Works Hjalmar

Rutzebeck,1988 Two in the Far North Margaret E Murie,2003-06-01 This enduring story of life adventure and love in Alaska was written by a woman who embraced the remote Alaskan wilderness and became one of its strongest advocates In this moving testimonial to the preservation of the Arctic wilderness Mardy Murie writes from her heart about growing up in Fairbanks becoming the first woman graduate of the University of Alaska and marrying noted biologist Olaus J Murie So begins her lifelong journey in Alaska and on to Jackson Hole Wyoming where along with her husband and others they founded The Wilderness Society Mardy s work as one of the earliest female voices for the wilderness movement earned her the Presidential Medal of Freedom Along Alaska's Great River Frederick Gustavus Schwatka,2020-09-28 This Alaskan exploring expedition was composed of the following members Lieut Schwatka U S A commanding Dr George F Wilson U S A Surgeon Topographical Assistant Charles A Homan U S Engineers Topographer and Photographer Sergeant Charles A Gloster U S A Artist Corporal Shircliff U S A in charge of stores Private Roth assistant and Citizen J B McIntosh a miner who had lived in Alaska and was well acquainted with its methods of travel Indians and others were added and discharged from time to time as hereafter noted The main object of the expedition was to acquire such information of the country traversed and its wild inhabitants as would be valuable to the military authorities in the future and as a map would be needful to illustrate such information well the party s efforts were rewarded with making the expedition successful in a geographical sense I had hoped to be able through qualified subordinates to extend our scientific knowledge of the country explored especially in regard to its botany geology natural history etc and although these subjects would not in any event have been adequately discussed in a popular treatise like the present it must be admitted that little was accomplished in these branches The explanation of this is as follows When authority was asked from Congress for a sum of money to make such explorations under military supervision and the request was disapproved by the General of the Army and Secretary of War This disapproval combined with the active opposition of government departments which were assigned to work of the same general character and coupled with the reluctance of Congress to make any appropriations whatever that year was sufficient to kill such an undertaking When the military were withdrawn from Alaska by the President about the year 1878 a paragraph appeared at the end of the President s order stating that no further control would be exercised by the army in Alaska and this proviso was variously interpreted by the friends of the army and its enemies as a humiliation either to the army or to the President according to the private belief of the commentator It was therefore seriously debated whether any military expedition or party sent into that country for any purpose whatever would not be a direct violation of the President s proscriptive order and when it was decided to waive that consideration and send in a party it was considered too much of a responsibility to add any specialists in science with the disapproval of the General and the Secretary hardly dry on the paper The expedition was therefore to avoid being recalled kept as secret as possible and when on May 22d it departed from Portland Oregon upon the Victoria a vessel which had been specially put on the Alaska route only a two or three line notice had gotten into the Oregon papers announcing the fact a notice that in spreading was referred to in print by one government official as a junketing party by another as a prospecting party while another bitterly acknowledged that had he received another day s intimation he could have had the party recalled by the authorities at Washington Thus the little expedition which gave the first complete survey to the third river of our country stole away like a thief in the night and with far less money in its hands to conduct it through its long journey than was afterward appropriated by Congress to publish its report
