Myth, Identity, and Conflict Anamaria Dutceac Segesten, 2011-09-16 Myth Identity and Conflict A Comparative Analysis of Romanian and Serbian Textbooks by Anamaria Dutceac Segesten is an examination of how history and politics became entangled in Romania and Serbia In it Segesten asks questions like Is myth present in the history textbooks of Romania and Serbia If so are there differences in the ways these myths define the in group and the relationship with the Other between a country that experienced interethnic conflict Serbia and a country that did not Romania Do textbooks affect the odds that conflict will occur Segesten s findings confirm the presence of mythologized versions of the past in the history textbooks of both countries over the entire fifteen year period studied 1992 2007 despite claims for professionalization of textbook making Myths of noble origins of heroism and victimhood appear in both cases Segesten finds the language to be ideological and in favor of the ethnic majority even if over time there is a slow tendency towards moderation especially in Romania probably due to the influence of the European Union Ultimately Myth Identity and Conflict by Anamaria Dutceac Segesten questions the alleged power of history textbooks to make a difference in ethnically divided societies prone to conflicts

Myths and Mythical Spaces Claudia Lichnofsky, Enriketa Pandelejmoni, Darko Stojanov, 2017-12-04 This volume addresses textbooks written in the Albanian language and in use in Albania Kosovo Macedonia and Serbia Political myths and mythical spaces play a key role in shaping processes of identity building concepts of self and other and ideas pertaining to the location of the self and nation within a post conflict context The Albanian case is particularly interesting because the majority of Albanians live outside the borders of Albania despite the existence of the nation state which gives rise to fascinating complexities regarding the shaping of national identities and myths surrounding concepts of self and other What textbooks teach is always of political interest as they represent society s intentions for its next generation This renders identity building processes via textbooks in this context a particularly fascinating topic for research here examined through the lens of myths and mythical spaces

Dynamics of National Identity and Transnational Identities in the Process of European Integration Elena Marushiakova, 2021-02-03 This collection was inspired by the international conference Dynamics of National Identity and Transnational Identities in the Process of European Integration organized by the Balkan Ethnology Department of the Ethnographic Institute and Museum at the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences and realized as project of the European Commission Jean Monnet Action Program for the support of Study and

Research Centers The book opens a debate on the changing notions of identity in the region of Central and Eastern Europe on the base of analysis of social developments influenced by EU accession and EU integration process The most important aspect is the analysis of processes of breaking up the borders of national identity and transition towards new forms of transnational identities and emerging of consciousness of All European unity The book has a dual focus on general topics related to the study of national and transnational identities and on the process of European integration It brings together the work of researchers not only from different parts of Europe from France to Russia but from USA and Asia too This book is a starting point for East West discussion and brings new knowledge that will be an invaluable contribution to the common European research area

Greek-Albanian Entanglements since the Nineteenth Century Alexis Heraclides, Ylli Kromidha, 2023-09-28 This book is a comprehensive study of more than 200 years of the shared and interconnected histories of Greek Albanian relations a field of inquiry that has not attracted the international scholarly attention it deserves The book presents and analyses in detail topics including the contested borderland 1800 1912 the Greek Revolution 1821 1830 and Greek Albanian entanglements during the Greek Revolution Greek nationalism identity and narrative the Albanians pre modernism belated nationalism origin the rise of Albanian nationalism Albanian national identity and historical narrative Greek Albanian relations from the League of Prizren 1878 until Albania s declaration of independence 1912 Greek irredentism the Northern Epirus Question 1912 1920 and Albania s precarious independence Greek irredentism and Greek Albanian relations the Northern Epirus Question 1940 1971 the Greek minority in Albania the Cham Muslim Albanian issue the turbulent first part of the 1990s the pending Greek Albanian issues and public opinion It concludes with a road map for an eventual Albanian Greek reconciliation This volume will interest scholars and students of Southeastern Europe Balkans international relations and history political science and sociology It will also be a valuable resource for diplomats journalists think tanks and other organizations and institutions involved in the Balkans Greek Albanian relations

National Narcissism Eric Beckett Weaver, 2006 National Narcissism offers a groundbreaking anthropological and sociological approach to nationalism through an expos of the belief systems and psychology of extreme nationalists for whom nationalism is a form of religion This theoretical approach is illustrated with examples primarily taken from Hungary with a special focus in two chapters on the role of gender in nationalism The state of politics and society in Hungary is also examined in a way that steps beyond the usual simplistic flat narratives of what Hungarians are like by stressing the broad variety of viewpoints current in Hungarian society the milieu in which a small minority of extreme nationalists are able to make their voice heard out of proportion to their numbers or political support The theory offered by National Narcissism has wide ranging implications for the future study of extremist nationalism in nation states throughout the world Sociologists anthropologists nationalism studies specialists social psychologists and historians of the recent past in Hungary will find that this theoretical book richly illustrated with examples from Hungarian society challenges positive and negative stereotypes about nationalism extremism post communism central and eastern Europe the European Union and not least about Hungarians themselves Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts Ehaab Abdou, Theodore Zervas, 2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden T rkiye and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy Balkan Border Crossings Vasilēs G. Nitsiakos, 2011 This volume is the second Annual of the Konitsa Summer School in Anthropology Ethnography and Comparative Folklore of the Balkans containing the proceedings of two years 2007 and 2008 It includes papers written by members of the teaching staff papers delivered as lectures or especially prepared for the Annual papers written by students based principally on their fieldwork exercise in Greece and Albania presentations of ongoing PhD theses and finally the syllabi of the subjects of instruction Theorising Social Change in Post-Soviet Countries Balihar Sanghera, Sarah Amsler, Tatiana Yarkova, 2007 The book traces three main approaches to the sociology of post Soviet societies studies guided by neoliberal theory and or practice work which may be termed neoconservative in orientation and which is often a response to the first and a third type of work that is considered both critical and reflexive and which seeks to transcend the limitations of the other approaches The book is divided into three parts addressing polity culture and economy In each section authors endeavour to transcend both neoliberalism and neoconservatism and reach for a third approach critical social science This is a broad movement and the authors vary in their own explanatory and normative ideas as they carve out frameworks that will enable them to develop a more rigorous and at the same time more comprehensive and critical understanding of social change
