Albany Cycle:

The Cycle ,1886 Hardware ,1895 Bootlegger of the Soul Suzanne Lance,Paul Grondahl,2019-02-06 The award winning novelist William Kennedy is perhaps best known for his Albany Cycle a series of novels that put Albany on the world's literary map alongside James Joyce's Dublin Gabriel Garcia Marquez's Macondo and William Faulkner's Yoknapatawpha County Bootlegger of the Soul offers a fresh and authoritative overview of Kennedy's long literary career and his astonishing trajectory from journalist to struggling novelist to Pulitzer Prize winner Included here are reviews interviews and scholarly essays on Kennedy's work as well as essays speeches a play and a short story by the author himself together with more than fifty historical and personal photographs Lively readable and brimming with the infectious wit and lyrical prose that animates Kennedy's novels Bootlegger of the Soul is a celebration of a writer still working hard at his craft at age ninety Novel History Mark C. Carnes,2004-03-05 Historical fiction is a contradiction in terms History is what happened fiction what did not Yet great novelists have often disregarded this logical difficulty taking up the tools of the historian to explore the shadowy recesses of the past Their labors have brought forth many literary treasures But how accurately do these masterpieces of the imagination reflect the past In Novel History twenty accomplished historians consider this question in relation to some of our most important historical novels Their essays are followed in most instances by a response from the novelist These dialogues illuminate one of the most fascinating and perplexing issues of our time the relation between the real past and our finest imaginative renderings of it Novel History includes essays by distinguished historians such as John Demos Michael Kammen Joan D Hedrick John Lukacs Eugene D Genovese Richard White and Tom Wicker and responses from notable novelists including Gore Vidal John Updike Russell Banks Don DeLillo Larry McMurtry Jane Smiley Madison Smartt Bell William Styron T Coraghessan Boyle William Kennedy Charles Frazier Thomas Fleming and Tim O'Brien Novel History is both a uniquely compelling perspective and a superb collection of literary history L.A.W. bulletin and good roads: official organ of the League of American Wheelmen Коллектив авторов, Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1986: Justification of the budget estimates United States. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of the Interior and Related Agencies,1986 A Mirror in the Roadway Morris Dickstein,2021-08-10 In a famous passage in The Red and the Black the French writer Stendhal described the novel as a mirror being carried along a roadway In the twentieth century this was derided as a naive notion of realism Instead modern writers experimented with creative forms of invention and dislocation Deconstructive theorists went even further questioning whether literature had any real reference to a world outside its own language while traditional historians challenged whether novels gave a trustworthy representation of history and society In this book Morris Dickstein reinterprets Stendhal's metaphor and tracks the different worlds of a wide array of twentieth century writers from realists like Theodore Dreiser Sinclair Lewis Edith Wharton and Willa Cather through modernists like Franz Kafka and Samuel Beckett to wildly inventive postwar writers like Saul Bellow Ginter Grass Mary McCarthy George Orwell Philip Roth and Gabriel Garcia Marquez Dickstein argues that fiction will always yield rich insight into its subject and that literature can also be a form of historical understanding Writers refract the world through their forms and sensibilities He shows how the work of these writers recaptures yet also transforms the life around them the world inside them and the universe of language and feeling they share with their readers Through lively and incisive essays directed to general readers as well as students of literature Dickstein redefines the literary landscape a landscape in which reading has for decades been devalued by society and distorted by theory Having begun with a reconsideration of realism the book concludes with several essays probing the strengths and limitations of a historical approach to literature and criticism

Faulkner and the Natural World Donald M. Kartiganer, Ann J. Abadie, 1999 Although he belonged to an American generation of writers deeply influenced by the high modernist revolt against nature and against the self imposed limits of realism to a palpable world William Faulkner reveals throughout his work an abiding sensitivity to the natural world He writes of the big woods of animals and of the human body as a ground of being that art and culture can neither transcend nor completely control The eleven essays that make up this volume including a paper written by the acclaimed novelist William Kennedy explore the place of the unbuilt world in Faulkner's fiction They give particular attention to the social mythic and economic significance of nature to the complexity of racial identity and to the inevitable clash of gender and sexuality These essays were presented in 1996 as papers at the Faulkner and Yoknapatawpha Conference held annually at the University of Mississippi Included are the following Lawrence Buell s Faulkner and the Claims of the Natural World Thomas L McHaney s Oversexing the Natural World Theresa M Towner s Color Race and Identity in Faulkner s Fiction Jay Watson s The Art of the Literal in Light in August Mary Joanne Dondlinger s The Matter of Race and Gender in Faulkner s Light in August Louise Westling s Sutpen s Marriage to the Dark Body of the Land Myra Jehlen s Faulkner and the Unnatural Diane Roberts s Eula Linda and the Death of Nature David H Evans s The Bear and the Incarnation of America Wiley C Prewitt Jr s Hunting and Habitat in Yoknapatawpha and William Kennedy s Learning from Faulkner The Obituary of Fear Donald M Kartiganer Howry Chair of Faulkner Studies in the Department of English and Ann J Abadie Associate Director of the Center for the Study of Southern Culture teach at the University of Mississippi

Monastero, Paula Yablonsky, 2008-12-18 TechKnowledgies New Imaginaries and Transmigrations in the Humanities Arts and TechnoSciences is a diverse collection of essays a recently produced technology play by William Kennedy art and installations that represent and at times resist the ways science and technology are interacting with the arts and the humanities to produce new imaginaries and disciplinary transmigrations that gesture towards a university of tomorrow As theorists posit new futures and call for an end to historically grounded or discipline based so called silo approaches to knowledges a de facto reorganization of disciplinary boundaries and a migratory spirit have spontaneously infused the humanities with new life These transmigrations instead of diffusing the disciplinary terrain have strengthened and broadened existing fields They are provoking re mappings of intellectual topography and ironically have brought about more rather than less integration Activated by such massive cultural shifts as the turn from print to visual culture the technological revolution and its virtual sublimates the acceleration of scientific advances the rise and incorporation of mass or popular culture and the possibilities of replication the humanities are producing integrated knowledges what we are calling new TechKnowledgies that interface the humanities the arts the social and hard sciences with digital technologies and research emerging at the borders of all these fields

The Irish Voice in America Charles Fanning, In this study Charles Fanning has written the first general account of the origins and development of a literary tradition among American writers of Irish birth or background who have explored the Irish immigrant or ethnic experience in works of fiction The result is a portrait of the evolving fictional self consciousness of an immigrant group over a span of 250 years Fanning traces the roots of Irish American writing back to the eighteenth century and carries it forward through the traumatic years of the Famine to the present time with an intensely productive period in the twentieth century beginning with James T Farrell Later writers treated in depth include Edwin O Connor Elizabeth Cullinan Maureen Howard and William Kennedy Along the way he places in the historical record many all but forgotten writers including the prolific Mary Ann Sadlier The Irish Voice in America is not only a highly readable contribution to American literary history but also a valuable reference to many writers and their works For this second edition Fanning has added a chapter that covers the fiction of the past decade He argues that contemporary writers continue to draw on Ireland as a source and are important chroniclers of the modern American experience

Billy Phelan's Greatest Game William Kennedy,2011-12-22 Billy Phelan a slightly tarnished poker player pool hustler and small time bookie moves through the lurid nighttime glare of a tough Depression era town A resourceful man full of Irish pluck Billy works the fringes of Albany sporting life with his own particular style and private code of honor until he finds himself in the dangerous position of potential go between in the kidnapping of a political boss s son In relating Billy s fall from the underworld grace and his storybook redemption Kennedy captures the seamy underside of a brassy sweaty city that would prefer to pretend that the Depression doesn t exist

The Flaming Corsage William Kennedy,2011-12-22 In a Manhattan hotel room the Love Nest Killings of 1908 take place But the mystery of who killed whom and why does not unravel until we explore the lives of Katrina Taylor and Edward Daugherty He is a first generation Irish American and a successful playwright She is a high born Protestant a beautiful seductive woman with complex attitudes towards life Their marriage is a passionate one but a cataclysmic hotel fire changes it into something else altogether Moving back and forth between the 1880s and 1912 The Flaming Corsage follows Katrina and Edward as other lives impact upon theirs their socially opposed families Edward s flirtatious actress paramour Melissa Spencer the physician Giles Fitzroy and his wife and Edward s friend the cynical journalist Thomas Maginn The Flaming Corsage evocatively portrays through the lens of Albany s robust Irishtown and English Dutch aristocracy the seething contradictory impulses of our humanity lusts and furies that know no bounds of time or place

Ironweed William Kennedy,2011-12-22 The beloved Pulitzer Prize winning novel basis of the film starring Jack Nicholson and Meryl Streep Francis Phelan ex big leaguer part time gravedigger full time bum with the gift of gab is back in town He left Albany twenty two years earlier after he dropped his infant son accidentally and the boy died Now he s on the way back to the wife and home he abandoned haunted at every corner by the ghosts of his violent life Francis his wino ladyfriend of nine years Helen and his stumblebum pal Rudy shuffle their ragtag way through the city s bleakest streets surviving on gumption muscatel and black wit estiny is not their business The premise of Ironweed was so unpromising that in marketing terms the writer still to this day finds it funny the story of a bunch of itinerant alcoholics knocking around Kennedy's hometown falling out having visions trying to pass for sober to cadge a bed for the night in the homeless shelter Guardian But for all the rich variety of prose and event from hallucination to bedrock realism to slapstick and to blessed quotidian peace Ironweed is more austere than its predecessors It is more fierce but also more forgiving Quoted from the classic New York Times review of Ironweed which made it an overnight sensation Essays in Honor of Enrique García Díez Antonia Sánchez Macarro, 1991 All great novels are critical novels that is to say experimental novels which under the pretense of telling a story of bringing characters to life of interpreting situations slide under our eyes the mirage of a tangible form
