an Entropic tsunami of destruction one must apply personal effort Failure to do so can only result in catastrophe Over 700 years ago the concept was succinctly captured by the polymath Leonardo da Vinci He wrote that God sells us all things at the price of labor Arguing that dreams are only achievable through sustained effort the book relies heavily on biographical philosophical economic religious historical and scientific data Accordingly work is the mission the multiple rewards are the byproducts More significantly the pleasure resides in the effort not the outcome Against the dark backdrop of malignancies inflicted on society by unrepentant leeches the benefits of unstinting diligence are sharply focused The reader is nudged into a higher plane of reality namely purposeful effort is rewarding Hence regardless of the end result effort is never wasted Conversely indolence is the bane of progress the root cause of socio economic crimes and social chaos Indeed corruption in all its diabolical forms is nothing but laziness masquerading as diligence Analysis of biographical data sustains the thesis that hard work extends life indolence shortens it Moreover indolence in all its fiendish forms is causally related to personal chaos The terminally lazy degenerate Pablo Escobar validates this principle when he prophetically asserted that no drug dealer ever died of old age He was right at age 44 he was slaughtered The persuasiveness of the arguments is supported by a wealth of references Together they form the final authority they lend credence to the arguments provided Albert Schweitzer's Legacy for Education A.
