Alberta the Gorilla Georgeanne Irvine,1982 A baby gorilla is cared for during the first year of her life by the zoo staff and later released into a cage to her gorilla family      Will the Real Alberta Please Stand Up? Geo Takach,2010-12-01

One little question propels both author and reader on a genre bending quest to find the elusive essence of a Canadian province built on sturdy stereotypes of oil spoiled beef eating bible thumping rednecks devoid of class or culture Through essay interview colourful observation and whatever other expos it takes to amplify the hyperbolic absurdity of seeking a simple answer to an incendiary question Geo Takach spotlights the cultural complexity of this perplexing province Readers will be delightfully edified after a dizzying romp around Wild Rose Country with Geo and a cast of citizens and celebs alive and dead      Tar Sands Andrew Nikiforuk,2010-08-01 Tar Sands critically examines the frenzied development in the

Canadian tar sands and the far reaching implications for all of North America Bitumen the sticky stuff that ancients used to glue the Tower of Babel together is the world s most expensive hydrocarbon This difficult to find resource has made Canada the number one supplier of oil to the United States and every major oil company now owns a lease in the Alberta tar sands The region has become a global Deadwood complete with rapturous engineers cut throat cocaine dealers Muslim extremists and a huge population of homeless individuals In this award winning book a Canadian bestseller journalist Andrew Nikiforuk exposes the disastrous environmental social and political costs of the tar sands arguing forcefully for change This updated edition includes new chapters on the most energy inefficient tar sands projects the steam plants as well as new material on the controversial carbon cemeteries and nuclear proposals to accelerate bitumen production      Beyond the Fire and the

Rain Wilbert Williams Jr. M. D.,2011-11 In July 1978 Wilbert Williams Jr was standing on a street corner in Brooklyn New York afraid for his life It had been less than three months since he was awarded a medical degree from Albany Medical College in upstate New York yet there he was enduring racial slurs from a group of angry white people who hated him simply because of the color of his skin Even as the police stood guarding him the group continued to taunt him with the words He can go back where he came from In his poignant memoir Williams narrates the story of how he beat overwhelming odds as an African American youth growing up in a public housing project in Brooklyn New York to eventually become a physician While chronicling a journey that took him from the streets of New York through the challenges of medical school to the beautiful Caribbean island of St Croix he details how he learned to prevail over racism anxiety and depression in order to achieve his dream of becoming a doctor Dr Williams s inspiring story offers motivation to soar over the challenges of life and reach for the stars      Animal Labour Charlotte E. Blattner,Kendra Coulter,Will Kymlicka,2020 Animals do a wide range of work in our society but they are rarely recognized as workers or accorded any labour rights and their working conditions are often oppressive and exploitative Drawing on law ethics and labour studies the essays in this volume explore the potential and dangers of animal labour      The Best Science Books & A-V Materials for Children Susan M. O'Connell,1988 Some scientists and science educators believe that the most effective strategy for raising science literacy among future workers and voters is to focus on the youngest members of the public. The reviews in this publication were undertaken to increase public understanding and appreciation of the importance and promise of the methods of science in human progress. This publication is directed towards librarians, teachers, and parents who are concerned about science information and education for children 5 through 12 years of age and covers science and mathematics books, films, filmstrips, and videocassettes. These materials cover the life and physical sciences, mathematics, engineering, and technology, medicine, and the social and behavioral sciences. A wide range of topics is covered, including science museums, environmental problems, careers in science, oceanography, insect culture, robots, and the ancient world. Audiovisual materials include such diverse topics as energy and resources, chemical interactions, meteorology, aquatic environments, zoological sciences, medicine, and engineering. The indexes list authors, titles, and subjects; series titles and distributors. Availability and cost information are provided in the annotations.

RT The Social Behavior of Older Animals Anne Innis Dagg, 2009-02-02 A groundbreaking study on the lives of senior mammals and birds from the aging of alphas to the role of grandmothers by the author of Animal Friendships. How do young and old social animals view each other? Are aged animals perceived by others as weaker or wiser? What is the relationship between age and power among social animals? Taking a cue from Frans de Waal's seminal work examining the lives of chimpanzees, Anne Innis Dagg in this pioneering study probes the lives of older mammals and birds. Synthesizing the available scientific research and anecdotal evidence, she explores how aging affects the lives and behavior of animals ranging from elk to elephants and gulls to gorillas, examining such topics as longevity, how others in a group view senior members, in regard to leadership, wisdom, and teaching; mating success; interactions with mates and offspring; how aging affects dominance; changes in aggressive behavior and adaptability; and death and dying. At once instructive and compelling, this theme-spanning book reveals the complex nature of maturity in scores of social species and shows that animal behavior often displays the same diversity we find in ourselves. Dagg's book should be a corrective to us all: species that lose or ignore the contributions of their older members do so at their peril. Literary Review of Canada. Humans and chimps: it turns out, value age in sexual partners very differently. In our species, youth is prized, but among chimps, the reverse is the case. The New York Review of Books. Wildlife Review, 1995. Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print, 1986. Human Exhibitions Rikke Andreassen, 2016-03-09 From the 1870s to the second decade of the twentieth century, more than fifty exhibitions of so-called exotic people took place in Denmark. Here, large numbers of people of Asian and African origin were exhibited for the entertainment and education of a mass audience. Several of these exhibitions took place in Copenhagen Zoo, where different villages constructed in the middle of the zoo hosted men, women, and children who sometimes stayed for months performing their daily lives for thousands of curious Danes. This book draws on unique archival material newly discovered in Copenhagen, including photographs, documentary evidence, and newspaper articles to offer new insights and perspectives on the exhibitions both in Copenhagen and in other European cities Employing post colonial and feminist approaches to the material the author sheds fresh light on the staging of exhibitions the daily life of the exhibitees the wider connections between shows across Europe and the thinking of the time on matters of race science gender and sexuality A window onto contemporary racial understandings Human Exhibitions presents interviews with the descendants of displayed people connecting the attitudes and science of the past with both our continued modern fascination with the exotic and contemporary language and popular culture As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology anthropology and history working in the areas of gender and sexuality race whiteness and post colonialism Issues in Life Sciences—Zoology: 2012 Edition ,2013-01-10 Issues in Life Sciences Zoology 2012 Edition is a ScholarlyEditions eBook that delivers timely authoritative and comprehensive information about Avian Research The editors have built Issues in Life Sciences Zoology 2012 Edition on the vast information databases of ScholarlyNews You can expect the information about Avian Research in this eBook to be deeper than what you can access anywhere else as well as consistently reliable authoritative informed and relevant The content of Issues in Life Sciences Zoology 2012 Edition has been produced by the world s leading scientists engineers analysts research institutions and companies All of the content is from peer reviewed sources and all of it is written assembled and edited by the editors at ScholarlyEditions and available exclusively from us You now have a source you can cite with authority confidence and credibility More information is available at <http://www.ScholarlyEditions.com> Dancing in Fire Wilbert Williams, Jr.,1998

The Zoological Record ,2003 Developments in Primate Gesture Research Simone Pika,Katja Liebal,2012 The book is a themed mutually referenced collection of articles from a very high powered set of authors based on the workshop on Current developments in non human primate gesture research which was held in July 2010 at the European University Viadrina Frankfurt Oder Germany The motivation for this book following on from the motivation for the workshop series was to present the state of the art in non human primate gesture research with a special emphasis on its history interdisciplinary perspectives developments and future directions This book provides for the first time in a single volume the most recent work on comparative gestural signaling by many of the major scholars in the field such as W D Hopkins D Leavens T Racine J van Hooff and S Wilcox in alphabetical order Conservation Medicine A. Alonso Aguirre,2002 Conservation medicine is an emerging discipline focussing on the intersection of ecosystem health animal health and human health Work in the biomedical and veterinary sciences is now being folded into conservation biology to explore the connections between animal and human health trace the environmental sources of pathogens and pollutants develop an understanding of the ecological causes of changes in human and animal health and understand the consequences of diseases to populations and ecological communities Conservation Medicine defines this new discipline It examines ecological health issues from various standpoints including the emergence and resurgence of infectious disease agents the increasing impacts of toxic chemicals and hazardous substances and the health implications of habitat fragmentation and degradation and loss of biodiversity It will provide a framework to examine the connections between the health of the planet and the health of all species and challenge practitioners and students in the health sciences and natural sciences to think about new collaborative ways to address ecological health concerns

Central American Biodiversity Falk Huettmann, 2015-08-04 This book highlights key results and lessons learnt from two field sites La Suerte in Costa Rica and Ometepe Nicaragua It provides long term data on species abundance and distribution Primates receive specific attention in this book as they are flagship species and good indicators for the health of an ecosystem but as well a money maker Many primate species are sensitive to habitat alteration and are often hunted out first But they play an important role as seed dispersal agents for the regeneration of the forest The book then compares results from the two field sites with regional trends and explores potential solutions such as REDD This book strongly calls for new approaches in conservation it makes the case for looking beyond the pure species biology and classic conservation angle and to take into account the economic and political realities
