Albion Jennifer Westwood,1985 The New Arthurian Encyclopedia Norris J. Lacy,Geoffrey Ashe,Sandra Ness Ihle,Marianne E. Kalinke,Raymond H. Thompson,2013-09-05 First published in 1996 Now updated with a new information packed 40 page Supplement covering the years 1990 1995 this unique Encyclopedia highlights the World of King Arthur from its origins in Dark Age Britain to the present day when Arthurian novels films and music continue to appear around the world at an astonishing rate The Supplement which provides five full years of coverage not available anywhere else enhances the usefulness of more than 1 300 entries on all aspects of the Arthurian legend in literature history folklore archaeology art and music Written by an international team of over 130 authorities no other work approaches this A Z guide to the legends of King Arthur and his knights of the Round Table for breadth and depth of coverage This is the ultimate source for reliable information on topics as diverse as the Grail Tristan and Isolde Lancelot and Guenevere Arthurian operas the historicity of Arthur and more The Use of Hereford Mr William Smith,2015-10-28 The Use of Hereford a local variation of the Roman rite was one of the diocesan liturgies of medieval England before their abolition and replacement by the Book of Common Prayer in 1549 Unlike the widespread Use of Sarum the Use of Hereford was confined principally to its diocese which helped to maintain its individuality until the Reformation This study seeks to catalogue and evaluate all the known surviving sources of the Use of Hereford with particular reference to the missals and gradual which so far have received little attention In addition to these a variety of other material has been examined including a number of little known or unknown important fragments of early Hereford service books dismembered at the Reformation and now hidden away as binding or other scrap in libraries and record offices The Social Circulation of the Past Daniel R. Woolf,2003 Woolf details here the ways in which English men and women first became seriously aware of and interested in their own and the world's past Previous works have focused exclusively on the writings of a small minority of historians yet through using a variety of manuscript and printed sources this study examines the wider historical culture within which historical and antiquarian studies could emerge Dampier's Monkey Adrian Mitchell,2010 Including William Dampier's unpublished journal The Spoken Word Adam Fox,Daniel Woolf,2002 Previous studies on oral culture have traditionally emphasized the contradictions between oral and literate culture and focussed on individual countries or regions The essays in this fascinating collection depart from these approaches in several ways By examining not only English but also Scottish and Welsh oral culture they provide the first pan British study of the subject The authors also emphasize the ways in which oral and literate culture continued to compliment and inform each other rather than focusing exclusively on their incompatibility or on the inevitable triumph of the written word Theatres of Memory Raphael Samuel,1994 This work offers an overview of how the past has been manipulated in art politicized and sold to the consumer yet takes issue with those who claim this interest in heritage is merely obsessive nostalgia The author covers a multitude of topics such as the Festival of Britain and conservation Encyclopedia of

The Pataphysician's Library Ben Fisher, 2000-12-01 The Pataphysician's Library is a study of aspects of 1890s French literature with specific reference to the traditions of Symbolism and Decadence Its main focus is Alfred Jarry who has proved perhaps surprisingly to be one of the more durable fin de siècle authors The originality of this study lies in its use of the enigmatic list of books termed the livres pairs which appears in Jarry's 1898 novel Gestes et Opinions du docteur Faustroll pataphysicien his best known prose work The greatest interest of the livres pairs lies in a group of works by Jarry's friends and contemporaries primarily Leon Bloy Georges Darien Gustave Kahn Catulle Mendès Josephin Rodin Rachilde and Henri de Regnier Several of these authors feature as the lords of islands visited by the pataphysician Dr Faustroll in his curious voyage around Paris In conjunction with Jarry's own works the contemporary livres pairs serve to illustrate the vibrant and experimental atmosphere in which these authors worked The Aquarian Guide to British and Irish Mythology Caitlin Matthews, John Matthews, 1988 Áedán of the Gaels Keith Coleman, 2022-03-24 This is the first full length work devoted to ed n mac Gabr in 6th century king of Dál Riata in Scotland An associate of the famous St Columba he was the first recorded king to be ordained in the British Isles and was the most powerful ruler in his generation His astonishing military reach took him from Orkney Pictland Ireland Northumbria and the Isle of Man This book details his dominant career which came to a shattering end after decades of warfare at the Battle of Degsaston in AD 603 Beyond the record of warfare there is a unique and tantalising accumulation of legend concerning ed n from stories about his birth to tales of him in battle with Irish heroes English sources mention him and he is one of the few Gaelic kings to feature prominently in Welsh tradition where he is remembered as a uniquely powerful player in the north of Britain Modern writers highlight ed n as the father of a prince named Arthur which has led to his place in Arthurian studies ed n s prominence in his era qualifies him as a fascinating figure whose life and legend are accessibly explored in this exciting account of this unique ruler Famous Ghost Stories Brian Haughton, 2011-08-15 Presents a history and critique of a selection of the famous ghost stories from different countries organized by such common themes as spectral armies phantom women in white haunted houses screaming skulls crisis apparitions and ghostly lights Theatres of Memory: Past and present in contemporary culture Raphael Samuel, 1994 This work offers an overview of how the past has been manipulated in art politicized and sold to the consumer yet takes issue with those who claim this interest in heritage is merely obsessive nostalgia The author covers a multitude of topics such as the Festival of Britain and conservation
