Almost Paradise

Don Chaput, David D. de Haas

Almost Paradise:

Almost Paradise Patt Gavin, 2003 Peter Grant and Craig Walters have been friends for over 20 years having first met in college Their friendship endured throughout the years first as roommates and then as neighbors and relocated from New York to Los Angeles Now the two explore a deeper relationship as they express a long ignored love for each other Craig an openly gay man shows Peter a world he never knew existed In the process Peter learns of the difficulties and discriminations that gay people face every day in America Almost Paradise explores the gay subculture in America from the perspective of these men and their friends and families The topic is treated with a certain amount of humor indicative of the handling of the situation by most gay Americans Underneath the mirthful veneer is an example of what life can be like for gays if they band together as well as what this country would be like for heterosexuals were all the gays to leave New York Magazine, 1984-02-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Billboard, 1957-03-09 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Merchant Vessels of the United States, 1989 If Not Us Frank Tayell, If not us who If not now when As the much depleted United Nations meets in Canberra the scale of the global catastrophe becomes clear The tsunami left Brisbane a flooded ruin Vanuatu has disappeared The Madagascan evacuation has failed Vancouver has been reduced to a radioactive crater For as far west as Mozambique as far to the east as Chile and as far north as Canada the world is a catalogue of devastation From the Atlantic there has been no news since the early days of the outbreak four weeks ago With the satellite networks down searching for survivors is difficult With the relief fleets destroyed rescue is impossible While the fallout is still settling the collective minds of the refugees in Australia focus on rebuilding as a distraction from the rising risk of radiation and extinction Commissioner Tess Qwong has a different duty She must find those responsible for this ultimate crime against humanity Her investigation into the failed coup provides the identity of those behind the outbreak and the location of their lab With her misfit group of Special Forces and civilian conscripts she heads to Mozambique There a New Zealand frigate will take them on into the unknown dangers of the Atlantic But while they hunt the radioactive seas for the war criminals below the waves their enemy is hunting for them From Perth to Panama from South Africa to South America from paradise islands to radioactive wastelands the battle against extinction continues Imperfect Passage Michael Cosgrove, 2015-03-03 Turning sixty isn t the end it s only the beginning Michael Cosgrove had a beautiful family a successful career and a lovely

Southern California home overlooking the Pacific Ocean At age sixty he decided to leave all that behind to sail around the world With the vision of rugged individualism and salty tales to share with his grandchildren Cosgrove quickly realized that sailing around the world wasn't as easy as he had imagined From a psychotic crewmate to sleep deprivation and mental breakdowns to constant storms and hallucinations Cosgrove rode the waves trying to keep his idea of doing something grand alive Alone and thousands of miles away from everyone he loved he was forced to ask himself one question What in God's name am I doing here In his attempt to avoid the inevitable growing old weak frail Cosgrove runs amok He breaks his budget to outfit the boat and then refuses to read the manuals He enters unfamiliar harbors in the dead of night hires a violent first mate and sails headlong into ferocious storms At the same time he longs for the simpler days when his four daughters were still children when his first marriage was still intact and when his dreams were still within reach Though driven by scenes of sheer terror absurd folly and deep inner searching the tone is always buoyant and laugh out loud funny Imperfect Passage is the story of one man's perseverance against Father Time and Mother Nature proving that with enough will one can indeed conquer the unconquerable Most Dramatic Ever Suzannah Showler,2018-01-23

The right reasons to fall in love with The Bachelor When it debuted in 2002 The Bachelor raised the stakes of first wave reality television offering the ultimate prize true love Since then thrice yearly dozens of camera ready young and eligibles have vied for affection and roses in front of a devoted audience of millions In this funny insightful examination of the world's favorite romance factory Suzannah Showler explores the contradictions that are key to the franchise's genius longevity and power and parses what this means for both modern love and modern America She argues the show is both gameshow and marriage plot an improbable combination of competitive effort and kismet and that it's both relic and prophet a time traveler from first gen reality TV that proved to be a harbinger of Tinder In the modern media savvy climate the show cleverly highlights and resists its own artifice allowing Bachelor Nation to see through the fakery to feel the romance Taking on issues of sex race contestants as villains the controversial spin offs and more Most Dramatic Ever is both love letter to and deconstruction of the show that brought us real love in the reality TV era Public Interiority Liz Teston,2024-09-30

Public Interiority reconsiders the limits of the interior and its perceived spaces exploring the notion that interior conditions can exist within an exterior environment and therefore challenging the very foundations of the interior architecture field Public Interiority contains eight chapters and 16 visual essays that document the historical material and social conditions in contemporary cities reconsidering the limits of the interior resiliency in design spatial perception and territories within curated urban exteriors Topics include the supergraphics of Black Lives Matter protests privacy and US Supreme Court landmark cases Instagram as a quasi public interior domestic simulation in Victorian curative environments the micro urban commons of public transit and the timely study uncovering Jean Michel Wilmotte's approach to urban interior designing among many others Including scholarly and visual essays by experts from a range of disciplines including architecture interior architecture landscape architecture exhibition design craft and the visual arts and design history and theory this volume will be a helpful resource for all those upper level students and scholars working in these related fields The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

The Reluctant Groom Debbie Macomber, 2015-01-27 www.DebbieMacomber.com All Things Considered Judd Matthiessen was married and it didn't work out He left his wife Lanni and their daughter which seemed to prove what his father had always said he was no good But now the old man's illness brings Judd back to the family ranch Despite all his bitterness all his anger Judd asks Lanni to join him When she does he finds that he still has strong feelings for her and he has to wonder Is there such a thing as a second chance Almost Paradise Jeff Roarke has a strict no romance in the workplace policy So what if the workplace happens to be a summer camp deep in the woods He's the camp director and he's against anything that will distract the kids or the counselors And there's nothing more distracting than love He discovers how true that is when he falls for counselor Sherry White He's determined to resist her and she's just as determined not to let him
