On the Roof of the World Richard Nelsson, 2012-06-05 Throughout its history the Guardian has had unparalleled access to mountaineers and climbers and its coverage of the sport is second to none From Edward Whymper's conquest of the Matterhorn in 1865 through to the first ever ascent of Everest in 1953 and on to the extreme climbing and associated apparatus that dominates the modern day incarnation of the sport the paper has chronicled every development with insight and intelligence This beguiling collection draws together a selection of Guardian writing that is both informative and celebratory tracking the sport's history and uncovering how public perception has changed over time Postings on how cigarettes aided breathing on some of the earliest Everest expeditions Victorian advice to lady climbers Small rings should be sewn inside the seams of the skirt so that the whole dress may be drawn up at a moment's notice to the requisite height Articles on scrambling fell running rock climbing and rambling Whether you're a serious mountaineer or a weekend Rambler On the Roof of the World is packed full of insights and stories that make it the perfect bedside companion      The Mystery and Painful Truth about Life Here and After Death Christian Uchenna Ngozi, 2014-06-24 No one knows about that day or hour not even the angels in heaven nor the Son but only the Father As it was in the days of Noah so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man For in the days before the flood people were eating and drinking marrying and giving in marriage up to the day Noah entered the ark and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man Two men will be in the field one will be taken and the other left Two women will be grinding with a hand mill one will be taken and the other left Therefore keep watch because you do not know on what day your Lord will come But understand this If the owner of the house had known at what time of the night the thief was coming he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into So you also must be ready because the

Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him Matthew 24 36 44 This is truly an exposition of spiritual truths hidden and avoided for the ages exposing us to the surprise that awaits everyone at the boundary between physical life and eternity This will bring life and spiritual revolution to everyone who can read irrespective of age Whoever wishes to evade hell and not be deceived by its perverted concepts should read this book Born in Nigeria Christian Uchenna Ngozi now lives in Italy Publisher s website <http://sbprabooks.com> ChristianUchennaNgozi We'll Call You If We Need You Susan
