HMM Dallas Signature Auction Catalog #647 Ivy Press, 2007-02 Saxophone Mollie Hawkins, 2025-02-20 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things The saxophone is a contradictory instrument that has rooted itself in the soil of pop culture It's the devil's horn it's the voice of jazz an extension of the player's soul it is a character trait of U S Presidents YouTube sensations and cartoon characters It has both enhanced and ruined songs it is sensuous yet abrasive and it is the only instrument widely excluded from symphonies and orchestras never quite being taken seriously As an object that is symbolic of living on the margins of society the saxophone has never been kind to its players Blending research cultural criticism and personal narrative about her saxophonist father who lived on the margins until his unexpected death Mollie Hawkins explores more than just the history of this expressive instrument She illuminates the dark paths that our passions can lead us down Saxophone turns the lens around to ask us all what does it mean to devote your life to such an object even if it kills you Can music hold such power over us Clarinet and Saxophone, 2008 After Django Tom Perchard, 2015-01-12 How did French musicians and critics interpret jazz that quintessentially American music in the mid twentieth century How far did players reshape what they learned from records and visitors into more local jazz forms and how did the music figure in those angry debates that so often suffused French cultural and political life After Django begins with the famous interwar triumphs of Josephine Baker and Django Reinhardt but for the first time the focus here falls on the French jazz practices of the postwar era The work of important but neglected French musicians such as Andr  Hodeir and Barney Wilen is examined in depth as are native responses to Americans such as Miles Davis and Thelonious Monk The book provides an original intertwining of musical and historical narrative supported by extensive archival work in clear and compelling prose Perchard describes the problematic efforts towards aesthetic assimilation and transformation made by those concerned with jazz in fact and in idea listening to the music as it sounded in discourses around local identity art 1968 radicalism social democracy and post colonial politics The Saxophone Symposium, 2005

Saxophone Journal, 2001 The A to X of Alternative Music Steve Taylor, 2006-09-27 Covers those bands and artists who have rejected the mainstream in favor of innovation originality and the pursuit of their own unique musical identity Darmst dter Beitr ge zur neuen Musik Michael Rebhahn, Thomas Sch fer, 2024-11-29 Der 26 Band der Darmst dter Beitr ge zur Neuen Musik versammelt Vortr ge und Texte der Ferienkurse der Jahre 2021 und 2023 Beitragende sind u a Mark Andre Malin B ng Sarah Nemtsov Matthew Shlomowitz Steven Takasugi und Jennifer Walshe "Strange Orphans" Beatrix Taumann, 1999 Everyday Reading Mike Chasar, 2012 Exploring poetry scrapbooks old time radio show recordings advertising verse corporate archives and Hallmark greeting cards among other unconventional sources Mike

Chasar casts American poetry as an everyday phenomenon consumed and created by a vast range of readers. He shows how American poetry in the first half of the twentieth century and its reception helped set the stage for the dynamics of popular culture and mass media today. Poetry was then part and parcel of American popular culture spreading rapidly as the consumer economy expanded and companies exploited its profit making potential. Poetry also offered ordinary Americans creative emotional political and intellectual modes of expression whether through scrapbooking participation in radio programs or poetry contests. Reenvisioning the uses of twentieth century poetry Chasar provides a richer understanding of the innovations of modernist and avant garde poets and the American reading public's sophisticated powers of feeling and perception.

Gettin' Around Jürgen E. Grandt, 2018-12-15

Gettin' Around examines how the global jazz aesthetic strives in various ways toward an imaginative reconfiguration of a humanity that transcends entrenched borders of ethnicity and nationhood while at the same time remaining keenly aware of the exigencies of history. Jürgen E. Grandt deliberately refrains from a narrow empirical definition of jazz or of transnationalism and true to the jazz aesthetic itself opts for a broader more inclusive scope even as he listens carefully and closely to jazz's variegated soundtrack. Such an approach seeks not only to avoid the museal whiff of a golden age time past but also to broaden the appeal and the applicability of the overall critical argument. For Grandt international simply designates currents of people ideas and goods between distinct geopolitical entities or nation states whereas transnational refers to liminal dynamics that transcend preordained borderlines occurring above below beside or along the outer contours of nation states. Gettin' Around offers a long overdue consideration of the ways in which jazz music can inform critical practice in the field of transnational American studies and grounds these studies in specifically African American cultural contexts.

Playing with Identities in Contemporary Music in Africa Annemette Kirkegaard, 2002

The musics of Africa play a particularly important role in expressing and forming identities. This book brings together African and Nordic scholars from both musicology and other disciplines in an attempt to analyse various aspects of the complex playing with volatile identities in music in Africa today. Taken together the papers put new light on the assumed or real dichotomies between countryside and city collective and individual tradition and modernity authentic and alien. The papers are based on contributions for a conference organized by the research project Cultural Images in and of Africa of the Nordic Africa Institute together with the Sibelius Museum Department of Musicology and the Centre for Continuing Education at Åbo Akademi University in Åbo, Turku.

Finland in October 2000 The book includes a keynote speech by Christopher Waterman UCLA and an introduction by Annemette Kirkegaard Copenhagen University Southern West and East Africa are represented in the studies which cover a great variety of musics

Postopera: Reinventing the Voice-Body Jelena Novak, 2016-03-09 Both in opera studies and in most operatic works the singing body is often taken for granted In Postopera Reinventing the Voice Body Jelena Novak reintroduces an awareness of the physicality of the singing body to opera studies Arguing that the voice body relationship itself is a producer of meaning she furthermore posits this relationship as one of the major driving forces in recent opera She takes as her focus six contemporary operas La Belle et la Bête Philip Glass Writing to Vermeer Louis Andriessen Peter Greenaway Three Tales Steve Reich Beryl Korot One Michel van der Aa Homeland Laurie Anderson and La Commedia Louis Andriessen Hal Hartley which she terms postoperas These pieces are sites for creative exploration where the boundaries of the opera world are stretched Central to this is the impact of new media a de synchronization between image and sound or a redefinition of body voice gender relationships Novak dissects the singing body as a set of rules protocols effects and strategies That dissection shows how the singing body acts within the world of opera what interventions it makes and how it constitutes opera's meanings
