Altogether Elsewhere Anna Wilson, 2003 This novel is the bleak epic of women as vigilantes varied in age race class and sexuality united only in desperation It examines the not so secret fears of every woman the possibilities and implications of violence

After the Fall Noemi Marin, 2007 Noemi Marin analyzes famous writers from the area as critical intellectuals and exiles in order to explore the role of rhetoric and identity in writers own experiences during the long history of communism Along with examinations of discursive relationships among power culture and resistance in works by George Konrad Andrei Codrescu and Siavenka Drakulic before and after the fall of communism Marin proposes specific dimensions for a rhetoric of exile pertinent to communist Eastern and Central Europe After the Fall shows how critical works on identity culture and communist history by the writers studied aid in reconstituting a rhetoric of dissidence identity and legitimation in the public discourse of a changing Europe The book offers a unique perspective on the complex contexts of political transition in which competing public discourse on freedom and democracy intersect with totalitarian regimes unsettled societies and issues of resistance

Wanderers Across Language Kinga Olszewska, 2017-12-02 Exile has become a potent symbol of Polish and Irish cultures Historical political and cultural predicaments of both countries have branded them as diasporic nations but in Adorno s dictum for an exile writing becomes home Olszewska offers a multifaceted picture of the figure of exile in postwar Poland and Ireland juxtaposing politics and culture whereas Irish exile appears more in an economic and cultural context the essence of Polish exile is political This comparative study of works by Polish and Irish authors Stanislaw Baranczak Adam Zagajewski Marek Hlasko Kazimierz Brandys Brian Moore Desmond Hogan and Paul Muldoon shows a literature which not only depicts the experience of exile but which uses exile as a literary device

Understanding Religious Ethics Charles Mathewes, 2010-03-02 This accessible introduction to religious ethics focuses on the major forms of moral reasoning encompassing the three Abrahamic religions

Judaism Christianity and Islam Draws on a range of moral issues such as examples arising from friendship marriage homosexuality lying forgiveness and its limits the death penalty the environment warfare and the meaning of work career and vocation Looks at both ethical reasoning and importantly how that reasoning reveals insights into a religious tradition Investigates the resources available to address common problems confronting Abrahamic faiths and how each faith explains and defends its moral viewpoints Offering concrete topics for interfaith discussions this is a timely and insightful introduction to a fast growing field of interest

Lesbian Utopics Annamarie Jagose,2017-09-29 In Lesbian Utopics Annamarie Jagose surveys the construction of the lesbian and finds her in a cultural space that is both everywhere and of all places nowhere The lesbian in other words is symbolically central yet culturally marginal

Zero Poverty Society Sarah Marchal,Ive Marx,2024-10-03 The notion that every person living amidst the relative affluence of the rich world has a right to a minimum income enabling social participation be it frugally and soberly holds as a fundamental matter of social justice to most people But how can we make sure that every person has a decent minimum income allowing for a life with dignity in societies rich enough to afford such a right How can we ensure that minimum income support is cost effective and compatible with other goals such as promoting work effort self reliance and upward mobility How can political support for such schemes be fostered and made robust Zero Poverty Society assesses the current state of minimum income protection in the rich world building on original empirical analysis It also engages with debates on topics as diverse as optimal targeting and means testing administrative complexity non take up behavioural economics the political economy of minimum income protection and basic income Marchal and Marx conclude that more adequate poverty prevention is possible without the costs having to be prohibitive However they are sceptical about silver bullet solutions such as basic income Adequate minimum income protection is not a matter of getting one scheme or policy right It is a matter of getting multiple policy levers right in the right configuration Incremental context conscious expansion is the way forward if we really care about the most vulnerable

Religion and the Rise of Jim Crow in New Orleans James B. Bennett,2005 Drawing on a range of local and personal accounts from the post Reconstruction period newspapers and church records Bennett s analysis challenges the assumption that churches fell into fixed patterns of segregation without a fight In sacred no less than secular spheres establishing Jim Crow constituted a long slow and complicated journey that extended well into the twentieth century BOOK JACKET
