Falling Off The Bed Nona-Michael Ankhesenamun Jackson, 2019-03-03 Handwritten lyrics in a medieval styled fashion is really one of life's ways of living in the medieval period and writing it all through A Father Losing His Daughter to Addiction Anthony M. Varone, 2023-06-21 About the Book This story recounts the painful struggles of a daughter's addiction told through her father's eyes It takes the reader on a journey in living and dealing with her addiction This is a story similar to many addicts A Father Losing His Daughter to Addiction will hopefully not only help those struggling with addiction but also help to educate family members and give them hope and ways to cope during the struggle The author hopes the reader can really see the pain his daughter lived with as well as any addict and how this disease destroys lives and families About the Author Anthony M Varone explains My daughter meant everything to me and was my life I loved taking care of her the day she was born Life today is very difficult for me without her I always loved being active and riding my bike or playing golf as well as working out but today that is hard to enjoy because of how lost I find myself I'm searching for my way back from her death By going to meetings with my daughter when she was alive and my meetings of Nar non it has opened my mind to see both sides that exist for the addict and their family It has educated me about her life as well as my life Huskerville Roger C. Aden, 2007-10-29 This work reveals the storied love affair that has long existed between native Nebraskans and the University of Nebraska football team The author draws upon his experiences as a devoted Huskerviller and the insights of more than 500 other Husker fans who shared their ideas through interviews questionnaires and Internet communication to compose a story that highlights how the culture history and geography of Nebraska are intimately embedded in fans devotion to the Cornhuskers The book features photographs and an extensive bibliography while an appendix provides 16 essays written by devoted Husker fans In the Field of Black Diamonds Drew Hudson, 2007-06 It is the year 1918 the zenith period of anthracite coal mining and James Mueller a fourteen and a half year old son of a coal miner is soon catapulted into the arduous life of a mine worker James decision is not based on greed or a directive from his parents but on his desire to help his family financially after learning that his older brother is to attend medical school in Philadelphia to become a doctor Along the turbulent path of his life James soon discovers that a special bond has formed with one of his seven children his daughter Catherine Catherine faces her own obstacles growing up in the impoverished idiosyncratic patch town of Shepsberg The experiences of both James and Catherine are entwined on many levels as they learn the most essential lessons in life from one another In the Field of Black Diamonds is based on a true story which chronicles the tale of a coal mining family set in the anthracite coal region of Eastern Pennsylvania This is the story of their lives their journeys their successes and their struggles in the black land simply known as coal country I Was a Mistake Shawn Woods, 2015-07-31 Shawn Woods writes about his life as being labeled a mistake by his mother and how she displays her resentment for him in front of family and friend besides verbally abusing him throughout his life Even to this day she insults degrades and rejects him Shawn went

Emeritus Professor of English University of Durham Durham UK The Planter Willis A. Thoen, 2012-06 The Planter is a remarkable story of a boy who grew up in one of the servant s houses that belonged to a very wealthy plantation owner in the late 1800 s and early 1900 s The story starts out in Louisiana where he plays and works the fields of endless cotton corn and beans The setting took place approximately forty years after Abraham Lincoln had signed the Emancipation Proclamation which set the slaves free at least on paper For most of the slaves there were still many hardships to endure Peter was fortunate in being brought up on a plantation that was owned by a generous and caring man He was also blessed with a superior genetic inheritance of his own that was later discovered from a box of papers in the mansion library by Mattie the plantation owner s daughter Peter was an intelligent and observing boy who reached for the high road in life He thoroughly enjoyed the surroundings of his childhood and playing with his peers as well as the beauty of the European architecture and the setting of the plantation along a lazy winding river But most of all he was overwhelmed by the plants and animals that were everywhere around him He was physically and emotionally involved with pollination and the breeding and crossbreeding of plants and animals Peter had a hungry mind and was the first generation of his family who became educated He learned to read in part from Mattie and his Sunday School teacher as well as his loving Grandma It was by his observations and experiments that he gained a windfall that paid his way to go to a prestigious New York University and from there on to a University in Bordeaux France to further those studies While all of those studies were bigger than life to him they mostly contributed to his own maturing and romantic relationships along the way that came from inside of Peter himself own way and about their own lives Each story is unique but the same issues appear again and again Abuse parenting as single mothers challenges in the labour market mental health and addictions issues a scarcity of quality childcare immigration and status vulnerability struggles with custody and poverty these factors combined with a lack of support contribute to their continued struggles The themes that recur across stories illustrate that the issues the women face are not just about individual struggle they demonstrate that major issues in Canada s social system have been neglected in public policy In order for these issues to be addressed we need to challenge the flawed public policies and the negative discourse that continue to marginalize single mothers in terms of the opportunities in their own lives and in terms of how they are understood by other Canadians The first person narratives of the struggles and issues faced by low income single mothers provide narrative richness and are augmented by introductory and concluding chapters that draw the narrative themes together and offer overarching discussion and analysis
