Racism in Football Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee, 2012-09-19 The atmosphere experienced by those attending football matches has changed hugely since the 1970s and 80s when racial and other forms of abuse were common Match attendance has become much more of a family friendly activity and clubs continue to introduce measures to try to improve the standards of behaviour at matches However there remain significant problems ranging from homophobic abuse to what is often described as laddish behaviour on the terraces Transparent and consistent methods for reporting criminal behaviour including racism are still lacking in particular at grass roots level The Committee recommends it should be a priority for the FA to develop procedures for stewards to follow and regular training opportunities to ensure that all relevant staff at club grounds are capable of reacting swiftly and consistently to incidents of abuse the efforts being made at league and club level to ensure successful prosecutions in cases of racial abuse are extremely welcome however it is important that similar efforts are applied to the grassroots game all appointments should be based on merit alone irrespective of the candidates race candidates from ethnic minorities to train as coaches and referees to ensure that clubs and boards can select from a more diverse pool of recruits

The Faces of Racism Vladimir Prempin, 2024-06-24 Say no to racism and never look away again This book is about the faces of racism These are mainly presented and clarified with the help of the author s own experiences with this destructive virus Many see it but only few people dare to do something against racism Through this book we see how we can best tackle this virus and gain courage to at least stand up to it This book is intended to inspire everyone to live racism critically and also give us clarity on why it is so important to fight this virus in our lives It may be that you are not aware of how many times you have been treated badly or discriminated against for racial reasons in your life but one thing is certain it doesn t matter what skin color or origin you have this topic racism affects us all Today it hurts me but tomorrow it can affect you So what are we waiting for Let us eradicate this virus from our lives once and for all to leave a safe peaceful and above all a just world for future generations
