Long Island Alive Fran Silverman, Francine Silverman, 2003 Each chapter of this guide to Long Island's fine dining recreation shopping historic sites and scenery focuses on a particular region of Long Island and presents its highlights from an insider's point of view Some of the attractions described include tours and day trips beaches and national parks farm stands wildlife preserves and museums

Early Childhood, Aging, and the Life Cycle Jonathan G. Silin, 2018-01-08 In this book Silin maps the common ground between early childhood and the period sociologists call young old age Emphasizing the continuities that bind children and adults rather than the differences that traditional developmental psychology claims separate us he focuses on the themes we all manage across a lifetime Building on memoir and narrative Silin argues that when we recognize how the concerns of childhood continue to thread their way through our experience we look anew at the shape of our lives This book highlights the powerful generative acts through which people of all ages find new meanings and relationships to compensate for the individual and social losses that mark our lives

Cycle Paths Isaac B. Potter, 1898 New York Magazine, 1994-04-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
