

Transfer of political, administrative and fiscal responsibilities to Panchayats not achieved.

- Formal strong legal framework hides reality of marginalisation of Panchayats.
- Poor definition of and considerable overlap in their roles among Panchayat levels.
- Poor fiscal decentralisation
- Panchayats supplanted by parallel institutions, to which entitled funds of Panchayats are diverted.
- Large measure of centralisation in plan formulation, with virtually no local discretion leading to tendency to divide funds equally among elected representatives for their constituencies, which limits the size, scale, reach and effectiveness of projects.
- Empowerment of communities to exert control over Panchayats still weak.
- Failure of Gram Sabhas to ensure downwards accountability and good social audit.
