Folklore and the Fantastic in Nineteenth-Century British Fiction Jason Marc

Harris, 2016-04-15. Jason Marc Harris's ambitious book argues that the tensions between folk metaphysics and Enlightenment values produce the literary fantastic. Demonstrating that a negotiation with folklore was central to the canon of British literature, he explicates the complicated rhetoric associated with folkloric fiction. His analysis includes a wide range of writers including James Barrie, William Carleton, Charles Dickens, George Eliot, Sheridan Le Fanu, Neil Gunn, George MacDonald,

William Sharp Robert Louis Stevenson and James Hogg These authors Harris suggests used folklore to articulate profound cultural ambivalence towards issues of class domesticity education gender imperialism nationalism race politics religion and metaphysics Harris s analysis of the function of folk metaphysics in nineteenth and early twentieth century narratives reveals the ideological agendas of the appropriation of folklore and the artistic potential of superstition in both folkloric and literary contexts of the supernatural World Folklore for Storytellers: Tales of Wonder, Wisdom, Fools, and Heroes Howard J Sherman,2014-12-18 Here is a treasury of favorite and little known tales from Africa Asia Europe the Americas Australia and Oceania gracefully retold and accompanied by fascinating detailed information of their historic and cultural backgrounds The introduction provides an informative overview of folklore its purpose in world cultures and in contemporary society and popular culture Following this the main sections of the book are arranged by tale type covering wonder tales hero tales tales of kindness repaid and hope and redemption and finally tales of fools and wise people Each section begins by comparing the tales cross culturally explaining similarities and differences in the folkloric narratives Tales from diverse cultures are then presented introduced and retold in a highly readable fashion The Folk-lore Journal Folklore Society (Great Britain),1883
