A Guide to Dying at Home Deborah Duda, 1982 Through Death's Gate: A Guide to Selfless Dying Joel Morwood, 1995 This book is designed to help committed spiritual seekers prepare for death It summarizes the basic teachings found in the major spiritual traditions of the world on how to pass through death as selflessly and effortlessly as possible In particular it contains three fundamental spiritual practices to help you transform your own death from a terrifying ordeal into what the Sufi poet Rumi called our wedding with eternity Coming Home Deborah Duda, 1987 Provides answers to questions about efforts to ease the path of terminally ill patients to a peaceful conclusion This book outlines how to make the final weeks as comfortable and meaningful as possible encouraging the dying person to live fully until the moment of death Death Rituals among the Karanga of Zimbabwe John Chitakure, 2021-10-04 One of the inescapable truths that humanity has to grapple with is the reality of death The manner in which we die or the cause of our death may differ but death remains inevitable We may be afraid of it or not we may try to evade it or not but death still comes Although most religions promise the possibility of another life in the hereafter there is no scientifically verifiable evidence about the reality of that life Despite that lack of evidence every culture performs death rituals meticulously to prepare the spirits of its deceased for whatever form of life that may be available Death Rituals among the Karanga of Zimbabwe Praxis Significance and Changes explores the causes of sickness and death and the praxis of pre burial burial and post burial rituals of the Karanga of Zimbabwe in an attempt to unearth their original form and significance to identify the changes that have taken place It also provides a brief manual for the performance of some selected Karanga death rituals Choices in Healing Michael A.
