A Guide To Economic Policy In Australia:

A Guide to Economic Policy in Australia Joseph Martin (B.Com.),1969 Area Handbook for Australia Donald P. Whitaker,1974 A philosophical analysis informed by history this work examines the reasons for the highly destructive behavior of the Red Guards in the early part of China s Cultural Revolution By probing the political educational and psychological factors influencing the Red Guards Jing Lin sheds light on how teenagers and young adults were able to justify violence in the name of class struggle and human rights She concludes that non critical categorical thought buttressed by the political and educational systems was pivotal Jing Lin introduces the work with a discussion of democratic and non democratic thought and of the Red Guards views about class struggle authority and justice She then examines the theory behind Mao s totalitarian rule Chapter Three is devoted to schools and their decisive role in developing the Red Guards The psychology of the Red Guards follows Lin details how concepts of the proletariat class enemies and intellectuals nurtured habits of aggression and obedience In concluding Lin suggests how to foster critical and democratic thinking in Chinese education APAIS 1999: Australian public affairs information service , Australian National Bibliography ,1978 linked arguments He focuses on the underpinnings of successful social democracy and traces when economic policy has worked for Australia and when it hasn't He leads off with a critique of the Albanese government is this a case of policy half done or a government sailing at half mast His second argument is about the low carbon opportunity that Australia has before it Garnaut brings to bear his unrivalled expertise on industrial development here and internationally He calls for a new Carbon Solutions Levy Getting this right is a way to secure the economic base of Australia's social democracy A thought provoking book by a visionary thinker

Family Formation in 21st Century Australia Genevieve Heard,Dharmalingam Arunachalam,2014-10-13 This book provides a detailed up to date snapshot of Australian family formation answering such questions as what do our families look like and how have they come to be this way The book applies sociological insights to a broad range of demographic trends painting a comprehensive picture of the changing ways in which Australians are creating families The first contemporary volume on the subject Family Formation in 21st Century Australia chronicles significant changes in partnering and fertility In the late 20th century cohabitation divorce and births outside marriage rose dramatically Yet family formation patterns continue to evolve requiring fresh analysis Even since the turn of the century divorce has stabilized and fertility has increased Using information from the 2011 Australian Census and from large scale surveys leading Australian academics dissect recent trends in cohabitation living apart together marriage interethnic partnering relationship dissolution repartnering contraceptive use and fertility Since there is more diversity in family formation patterns than ever before the book also considers differences between groups within the Australian population Which groups are more likely to marry cohabit or have higher fertility And how do patterns differ among indigenous migrant or same sex attracted Australians

Schooling Reform In Hard Times Bob Lingard,John Knight,Paige Porter,2003-09-02 Based on research carried out under Labour governments throughout the 1990s in Western Australia the authors consider the social political and economic conditions under which policy is formulated understood and enacted They look at how the state structure affects the content and nature of policy statements and provide an outline of the history of policy developments and point to future possibilities and probabilities Outcomes within funding ceilings accountability frameworks and national guidelines are but some of the changes referred to The emergence of competency based standards in education and training in schools workplaces and the professions is evident throughout Australia at state level but the concern is whether issues of education should be played out within the state and outside civil society The authors argue for the mediation in implementation of policy rather than a lambasting of policy formulation and implementation This text is intended for heads of education departments PGCE BED
