epistemologies of the archive can be dismantled amidst systems of power that resist change The Remaking of Archival Values is relevant to researchers and students in the field of archival and information studies as well as practitioners who work with archives around the world It will also speak to the interests of those working in the fields of cultural heritage archaeology museum studies public history and gender and race studies Legacies of an Imperial City Samuel Aylett,2022-12-30 post processualism and interpretation but to date few have called their work interpretive archaeology This volume is based on a session at the Society for Historical Archaeology meeting in 2005 The organizers now editors brought together historical archaeologists from both the UK and the US working in the same areas industrial landscape monuments etc but because of their country based training their work arises out of differing intellectual traditions The chapters in each section do not stand in isolation rather the authors exchange ideas about what each other has written They construct dialogues about theories and practices that inform interpretive archaeology on either side of the Atlantic ends with commentary by two well known names in interpretive archaeology in the UK and in the States
