A Guide To The Community Land Act:

A Guide to the Community Land Act Sir Frederick Vernon Corfield, 1976 A Guide to the Community Land Act, 1976 A Short Guide to the Community Land Act, 1975 Community Land Victor Moore, 1976 Shaw's Guide to the Community Land Act 1975 Sir Hugh Rossi, 1976 Housing and Planning References, 1976 Understanding African Real Estate Markets Aly Karam, François Viruly, Catherine Kariuki, Victor Akujuru, 2022-04-28 This book brings together a broad range of research that interrogates how real estate market analysis finance planning and investment for residential and commercial developments across the African continent are undertaken In the past two decades African real estate markets have rapidly matured creating the conditions for new investment opportunities which has increased the demand for a deeper understanding of the commercial and residential markets across the continent The chapters consider issues that pertain to formal real estate markets and the critical relationship between formal and informal property markets on the continent With contributing authors from South Africa Ghana Nigeria Uganda Kenya and Tanzania the book considers the achievements of African real estate markets while also highlighting the complex central themes such as underdeveloped land tenure arrangements the availability of finance in both the commercial and residential sectors rapidly growing urban areas and inadequate professional skills This book is essential reading for students in real estate land management planning finance development and economics programs who need to understand the nuances of markets in the African context Investors and policy makers will learn a lot reading this book too Suriname Mineral, Mining Sector Investment and Business Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Regulations Inc. Ibp, 2013-08 Suriname Mineral Mining Sector Investment and Business Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Regulations The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 Land, Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa William Beinart, Rosalie Kingwill, Gavin Capps, 2021-05-01 This edited collection illustrates contestations over land and political authority in South Africa's rural areas focusing on threats to popular rights and how they are being supported Who controls the land and minerals in the former Bantustans of South Africa chiefs the state or landholders Disputes are taking place around the ownership of resources decisions about their exploitation and who should benefit With respect to all of these issues the courts have become increasingly important The contributors to Land Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa capture some of these intense contestations over land law and political authority focussing on threats to the rights of ordinary people History and customary law feature strongly in most disputes and succession to chieftaincy is also frequently disputed Judges have to make decisions in a context where rival claimants to property or office assert their own versions of history and custom The South African constitution recognizes customary law and the courts are attempting to incorporate and develop this branch of jurisprudence as living customary law Lawyers community leaders and academics are called on to assist in researching cases around restitution land rights and customary law The chapters in this collection discuss legal cases and policy directions that have evolved since 1994 Some chapters analyze the increasing power of chiefs in the South African rural areas while others suggest that the courts are giving support to popular rights over land and supporting local democratic processes Contributors record significant pushback from groups that reject traditional authority These political tensions are a central theme of the collection and thus serve as vital case studies in furthering our understanding of rights and restitution in South Africa Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1979 Local Government in Britain Since Reorganisation Alan Alexander,2024-10-01 Originally published in 1982 this book was the first comprehensive critical assessment of the outcome of the controversial reorganisation of British local government outside London which took place between 1973 and 1975 The book deals with the new systems in England Wales and Scotland drawing upon the results of almost 100 in depth interviews with leading members and officers from Shetland to Cornwall from major cities to rural districts Liaison between the tiers the effects of corporate management the spread of the office of chief executive the increasing levels of partisanship and the changing face of central local relations are examined on the basis of close observation and practical experience rather than theoretical preconceptions A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins,American Historical Association,Royal Historical Society (Great Britain),1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index Negotiating Norms Ricarda Rösch,2023-12-12 The book explores the right to free prior and informed consent FPIC a highly controversial right It is mainly discussed in the context of large scale business projects on Indigenous territories but also with respect to the creation of protected areas and communities traditional resource rights From a legal anthropological perspective it attempts to disentangle the various coexisting understandings of FPIC and provide an explanation for the multiplicity of FPIC norms or to put it in other words its fragmentation It examines the right or stakeholders of FPIC the scope of the consent requirement the respect for self determined decision making and the right to FPIC of women in different sociolegal fields Moreover it explores the impact of power relations strategic alliances and discourses within these fields and shows that the emerging FPIC norms are the result of norm negotiation processes The fields that are examined include transnational law more specifically human rights environmental and development law the Liberian post conflict forest and land legislation and Liberian community forests as fields in which FPIC is operationalized Liberia is quite unique in this respect It is not only one of the few countries in Africa recognizing FPIC but has also begun implementing it The book shows that based on the logic of a sociolegal field legal identities are discursively created and determine the meaning of FPIC Moreover different actors can resort to different legalities shaping the emerging FPIC norm Land, People, and Forests in Eastern and Southern Africa at the Beginning of the 21st Century Liz Wily,Sue Mbaya,2001 Town and Country Planning in the UK Barry Cullingworth,Vincent Nadin,2003-09-02 Town and Country Planning in the UK has become the Bible of British planning In this new edition detailed consideration is given to the nature of planning and its historical evolution central and local government the EU and other agencies the framework of plans and other instruments development control land policy and planning gain environmental and countryside planning sustainable development waste and pollution heritage and transport planning urban policies and regeneration This twelfth edition has been completely revised and expanded to cover the whole of the UK The new edition explains more fully the planning policies and actions of the European Union and takes into account the implications of local government reorganization the plan led system and the growing interest in promoting sustainable development

Community, Home, and Identity Terry L. Turnipseed, 2016-05-23 Community home and identity are concepts that have concerned scholars in a variety of fields for some time Legal scholars sociologists anthropologists psychologists and economists among others have studied the impacts of home and community on one's identity and how one's identity is manifested in one's home and in one's community This volume brings together some of the leading thinkers about the connections between community home and identity Several chapters address how the law and lawyers contribute or detract from the creation and maintenance of community and in some cases the conscious destruction of communities Others examine the protection of individual and group identities through rules related to property title and use of such things as Home and identity property

Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1982 Foreign Direct Investment as a Tool for Poverty Reduction in Developing Countries Ronald K.S. Wakyereza, 2019-10-15 The textbook experience of poverty can be witnessed in a number of developing countries in Sub Saharan Africa South East Asia and Latin America Accordingly Foreign Direct Investment FDI has been identified as an important tool for poverty reduction as it is noted to accelerate economic growth and employment in a nation and is currently an essential issue for countries such as Uganda This book finds that Ragnar's 1953 Vicious Circle of Poverty remains undisputed even today showing that attracting FDI is not the end but that a nation's absorption capacity is equally paramount The implications of the FDI frog leap theory for developing countries and the Community Capital Absorption Capacity Development CCACD framework provide plausible poverty reduction approaches in the 21st century Without such measures bringing an end to poverty is likely to elude governments and multinational corporations in developing countries

Development Control Keith Thomas, 2013-09-13 Development Control is a comprehensive introductory text for students of planning and related subjects Drawing widely on the literature the approach and treatment are very much geared to the needs of students on courses rather than focusing on practical and how to do it issues It should be of interest to students in schools of planning the built environment estate management land economy and other related subjects
