Guide to the Draper Manuscripts Josephine L. Harper,1983 Guide to the Draper Manuscripts Josephine L. Harper,2014-09-08 In the mid nineteenth century the Wisconsin Historical Society s first director Lyman C Draper gathered outstanding materials such as the Daniel Boone papers which include Draper s interviews with Boone s son and the papers of Revolutionary War hero George Rogers Clark These two collections alone are of vast significance to frontier history before 1830 but the full collection comprises nearly five hundred volumes of records including military and government records interviews Draper s own research notes and rare personal letters For scholars genealogists and local historians the Draper papers offer a wealth of information on the social economic and cultural conditions experienced by our frontier forebears The 180 page index lists thousands of names and is an indispensable guide for all who wish to use the collection which is available in libraries across the country on microfilm The New Microfilm Edition of The Draper Manuscripts State Historical Society of Wisconsin.
