African Traditional And Oral Literature As Pedagogical Tools In Content Area

Classrooms Lewis Asimeng-Boahene, Michael Baffoe, 2013-12-01 For a long time many American educators and educational stakeholders have drawn their ideas for educational reforms from ideas generated in Europe and Asia for the changing demographics of America's diverse classrooms. This book is therefore motivated by a bold attempt at advocating for the revision of existing pedagogic forums and the creation and addition of new forums that would provide for the inclusion of thoughts, perspectives and practices of African traditional oral literature in the pedagogical tools of content area classrooms, especially in North America. The articles that are presented in this book provide theoretical frameworks for using African traditional oral literature and its various tenets as teaching tools. They bring together new voices of how African literature could be used as a helpful tool in classrooms. Rationale for advocating for its use as an ideal pedagogic tool is the recurrent theme throughout the various articles presented. The book explores how educators, literacy educators, learners, activists, policy makers and curriculum developers can utilize the powerful yet untapped gem of African oral literature as pedagogical tools in content area classrooms to help expand educators' repertoire of understanding beyond the conventional wisdom of their pedagogic creed. It is a comprehensive work of experienced and diverse scholars, academicians and educators who have expertise in multicultural education, traditional oral literature, urban education, children's literature and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U.S. discourses in public education and teacher preparation. This anthology serves as part of the quest for multiple views about our global village, emphasizing the importance of linking the idea of diverse knowledge with realities of global trends and development. Consequently, the goal and the basic thrust of this anthology is to negotiate for space for non-mainstream epistemology to share the pedagogical floor with the mainstream template to foster an alternative vision of reality for other knowledge production in the academic domain. The uniqueness of this collection is the idea of bringing the content and the pedagogy of most of the genres of African oral arts under one umbrella and thereby offering a practical acquaintance and appreciation with different African cultures. It therefore introduces the world of African mind and thoughts to the readers. In summary, this anthology presents an academic area which is now gaining its long overdue recognition in the academia.

African Names Jane E. Mohraz, 1982 African Folklore Philip M. Peek, Kwesi Yankah, 2004-03-01

Written by an international team of experts, this is the first work of its kind to offer comprehensive coverage of folklore throughout the African continent. Over 300 entries provide in-depth examinations of individual African countries, ethnic groups, religious practices, artistic genres and numerous other concepts related to folklore. Featuring original field photographs, a comprehensive index and thorough cross-references, African Folklore: An Encyclopedia is an indispensable resource for any library's folklore or African studies collection. Also includes seven maps. A Book of African Names

National Joint Action Committee (Trinidad and Tobago), 1982* African Traditional Medicine DAVID OYEBOLA MD, 2020-02-10 This book is written to provide information on various aspects of Yoruba and indeed African traditional medicine. The writer's research on Yoruba traditional medicine provides the bulk of the materials in the book. The book consists of eleven chapters Chapters 1 and 2 provide the background to the book Chapters 3 to 10 encapsulate the different aspects of Yoruba traditional medicine such as classification of healers methods of training of healers methods of diagnosis and investigation of diseases treatment of diseases Yoruba pharmacopoeia midwifery bone setting and other forms of traditional surgery Chapter 11 describes the meeting point of hospitals and healers this meeting point in the opinion of the author should be how best to serve the interests of the patients The best form of relationship that should exist between hospitals and healers is also discussed The two systems of medicine exist side by side in Nigeria and most African countries yet remain functionally unrelated in any intentional sense It is argued that no medical system is perfect and no single care system has all the answers to all human health and related problems Each of the two systems has its strong and weak points The often talked about integration of the two systems has potential pitfalls and may be undesirable The book concludes that the best form of relationship may well be one of genuine cooperation and mutual respect between the two systems since this will lead in the ultimate to advancement of medical knowledge and overall improvement of patient care All levels of government in Nigeria have decisive roles to play in achieving this mutually beneficial cooperation of the two systems

Naming Africans Oyèrónkẹ Oyěwùmí, Hewan Girma, 2023-06-08 Focusing on the epistemic value of African names this edited collection is based on the premise that personal names constitute valuable sources of historical and ethnographic information and help to unveil endogenous forms of knowledge The chapters assembled here document and analyze personal names and naming practices in a slew of African societies on the geographically vast and ethnically diverse continent including contributions on the naming practices in Angola Cameroon Ethiopia Ghana Kenya Namibia Nigeria South Africa and Uganda The contributors to this anthology are scholars from different African language communities who investigate names and naming practices diachronically Taken together their work offers a comparative focus that juxtaposes different African cultures and reveals the historical and epistemic significance of given names
