Hinnells, 2010-03-25 Portion of edition statement from Intro Peasants and Religion Mats Lundahl, Jan Lundius, 2012-10-02 This book examines the relationship between economics politics and religion through the case of Olivario Mateo and the religious movement he inspired from 1908 in the Dominican Republic The authors explore how and why the new religion was formed and why it was so successful Comparing this case with other peasant movements they show ways in which folk religion serves as a response to particular problems which arise in peasant societies during times of stress Suffering, Death, and Identity, 2021-11-08 This book explores many of the issues that arise when we consider persons who are in pain who are suffering and who are nearing the end of life Suffering provokes us into a journey toward discovering who we are and forces us to rethink many of the views we hold about ourselves Archaeology and World Religion Timothy Insoll, 2002-09-11 This is the first text to consider the subjects of religion and archaeology in conjunction with each other It explores the relationship between and the contribution archaeology can make to the study of world religions Race, Gender, and Religion in the Vietnamese Diaspora Thien-Huong T. Ninh, 2017-08-15 This book examines how the racialization of religion facilitates the diasporic formation of ethnic Vietnamese in the U S and Cambodia two communities that have been separated from one another for nearly 30 years It compares devotion to female religious figures in two minority religions the Virgin Mary among the Catholics and the Mother Goddess among the Caodaists Visual culture and institutional structures are examined within both communities Thien Huong Ninh invites a critical re thinking of how race gender and religion are proxies for understanding theorizing and addressing social inequalities within global contexts The ^AMyth of Religious Violence William T Cavanaugh, 2009-09-03 The idea that religion has a dangerous tendency to promote violence is part of the conventional wisdom of Western societies and it underlies many of our institutions and policies from limits on the public role of religion to efforts to promote liberal democracy in the Middle East William T Cavanaugh challenges this conventional wisdom by examining how the twin categories of religion and the secular are constructed A growing body of scholarly work explores how the category religion has been constructed in the modern West and in colonial contexts according to specific configurations of political power Teaching about Scientific Origins Leslie Sandra Jones, Michael Jonathan Reiss, 2007 Persistent resistance to the teaching of evolution has so drastically impacted science curricula that many students finish school without a basic understanding of a theory that is a fundamental component of scientific literacy This evolution creationism controversy has crippled biological education in the United States and has begun to spread to other parts of the world This book takes an educational point of view that respects both the teaching of evolution and religious beliefs Authors from different academic traditions contribute to a collection of perspectives that begin to dismantle the notion that religion and science are necessarily incompatible Between the Worlds Siân Lee MacDonald Reid,2006 Neopaganism is the fastest growing new religion in the West Between the World Readings in Contemporary Neopaganism provides an engaging and well rounded introduction to this often misunderstood spiritual tradition This provocative new volume breaks away from the negative doomsday cult focus of existing books on new religious movements and provides a clear focus on feminist spirituality women and religion and goddess worship It offers a spiritual context for paganism and introduces the language of paganism and earth religions This book examines contemporary paganism not just the streams from the 1970s and 1980s but also the increasingly important streams of Druidry and Heathenry For the first time ever this book unites essential readings by leading academics and well known practitioners from all over the world including Canada It features the work of Starhawk Ronald Hutton Michael York Graham Harvey Helen A Berger and Wendy Griffith alongside contemporary Canadian scholars including Lucie Marie Mai DuFresne Lori G Beaman and Barbara Jane Davy GUIDANCE AND INSIGHT FROM THE BUDDHA Various Authors,2024-10-23 This book offers a selection from a broad range of Buddhist texts You will find here passages that may inspire guide and challenge you Overall they give a picture of this great tradition as it has been lived down the centuries
