culture Integrating economic history biography consumer product design narrative analysis and film scholarship Marling makes new connections between events of the 1920s and 1930s and the modes styles and genres of their representation At the center of Marling s approach is the concept of prodigality how narrative represents having and having had too much Never before in the country he argues did wealth impinge on the national conscience as in the 1920s and never was such conscience so sharply rebuked as in the 1930s What asks Marling were the paradigms that explained accumulation and windfall waste and failure Marling first establishes a theoretical and historical context for the notion of prodigality Among the topics he discusses are such watershed events as the trial of Sacco and Vanzetti and the premiere of the first sound movie The Jazz Singer technology s alteration of Americans perceptive and figurative habits and the shift from synecdochical to metonymical values entailed by a consumer society Marling then considers six noir classics relating them to their authors own lives and to the milieu of prodigality that produced them and which they sought to explain Dashiell Hammett s Red Harvest and The Maltese Falcon James M Cain s The Postman Always Rings Twice and Double Indemnity and Raymond Chandler s The Big Sleep and Farewell My Lovely Reading these narratives first as novels then as films Marling shows how they employed the prodigality fabula s variations and ancillary value systems to help Americans adapt for better or worse to a society driven by economic and technological forces beyond their control

Twentieth-Century Crime Fiction Lee Horsley, 2005-08-25 Twentieth Century Crime Fiction aims to enhance understanding of one of the most popular forms of genre fiction by examining a wide variety of the detective and crime fiction produced in Britain and America during the twentieth century It will be of interest to anyone who enjoys reading crime fiction but is specifically designed with the needs of students in mind It introduces different theoretical approaches to crime fiction e g formalist historicist psychoanalytic postcolonial feminist and will be a useful supplement to a range of crime fiction courses whether they focus on historical contexts ideological shifts the emergence of sub genres or the application of critical theories Forty seven widely available stories and novels are chosen for detailed discussion In seeking to illuminate the relationship between different phases of generic development Lee Horsley employs an overlapping historical framework with sections doubling back chronologically in order to explore the extent to which successive transformations have their roots within the earlier phases of crime writing as well as responding in complex ways to the preoccupations and anxieties of their own eras The first part of the study considers the nature and evolution of the main sub genres of crime fiction the classic and hard boiled strands of detective fiction the non investigative crime novel centred on transgressors or victims and the mixed form of the police procedural The second half of the study examines the ways in which writers have used crime fiction as a vehicle for socio political critique These chapters consider the evolution of committed oppositional strategies tracing the development of politicized detective and crime fiction from Depression era protests against economic injustice to more recent decades which have seen writers launching protests against ecological crimes rampant consumerism Reaganomics racism and sexism

Phillips,2014-07-11 More than any other writer Raymond Chandler 1888 1959 is responsible for raising detective stories from the level of pulp fiction to literature Chandler s hard boiled private eye Philip Marlowe set the standard for rough brooding heroes who managed to maintain a strong sense of moral conviction despite a cruel and indifferent world Chandler s seven novels including The Big Sleep 1939 and The Long Goodbye 1953 with their pessimism and grim realism had a direct influence on the emergence of film noir Chandler worked to give his crime novels the flavor of his adopted city Los Angeles which was still something of a frontier town rife with corruption and lawlessness In addition to novels Chandler wrote short stories and penned the screenplays for several films including Double Indemnity 1944 and Strangers on a Train 1951 His work with Billy Wilder and Alfred Hitchcock on these projects was fraught with the difficulties of collaboration between established directors and an author who disliked having to edit his writing on demand Creatures of Darkness is the first major biocritical study of Chandler in twenty years Gene Phillips explores Chandler's unpublished script for Lady in the Lake examines the process of adaptation of the novel Strangers on a Train discusses the merits of the unproduced screenplay for Playback and compares Howard Hawks's director's cut of The Big Sleep with the version shown in theaters Through interviews he conducted with Wilder Hitchcock Hawks and Edward Dmytryk over the past several decades Phillips provides deeper insight into Chandler's sometimes difficult personality Chandler's wisecracking Marlowe has spawned a thousand imitations Creatures of Darkness lucidly explains the author's dramatic impact on both the literary and cinematic worlds demonstrating the immeasurable debt that both detective fiction and the neo noir films of today owe to Chandler's stark vision

American Noir Barry Forshaw, 2017-04-26 Barry Forshaw is acknowledged as a leading expert on crime fiction and film Following his books on Nordic Noir Brit Noir and Euro Noir he now tackles the largest and some might argue most impressive body of crime fiction from a single country the United States to produce the perfect reader's guide to modern American crime fiction The word Noir is used in its loosest sense every major living American writer is considered including the giants Harlan Coben Patricia Cornwell James Lee Burke James Ellroy and Sara Paretsky as well as non crime writers such as Stephen King who stray into the genre often through a concentration on one or two key books Many exciting new talents are highlighted and Barry Forshaw's knowledge of and personal acquaintance with many of the writers grants valuable insight into this massively popular field But the crime genre is as much about films and TV as it is about books and American Noir is a celebration of the former as well as the latter US television crime drama in particular is enjoying a golden age and all of the important current series are covered here as well as key contemporary films
