Stagecoach rides, bank robberies, and Indian encounters—this is not a scene from a Hollywood movie, but the real events of Parker's history. Excitement from Parker's past, not told from the viewpoint of some dry historian, but in the word and life experiences of the area's early pioneers.

Parker's past is rich in historic events and humorous incidents. The revised, expanded A FOLK HISTORY OF PARKER AND HILLTOP will take you on an adventure through historic events told by those who lived them.

From the cattlemen to the wild men, this action packed account of the Parker and Hilltop area is a must read.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

A fourth generation Parker resident, Sandy Whelchel is the author of seven nonfiction books and three novels. Her articles and short stories have appeared in regional and national publications. She enjoys taking local school children on tours of the Parker area sites.
