A General Theory Of Magic The Norton Library:

Modernity Nicos Mouzelis, 2021-07-01 In Modernity Religious and Ethical Perspectives Nicos Mouzelis examines the three unique structural features of modern societies inclusion of the whole population into the nation state top down differentiation of institutional spheres and the expansion of individualization from the top to the base of the social pyramid The author shows how the above features relate to present day religious phenomena such as secularisation desecularization the new religious movements and the forms of present day spiritualities He examines the extent to which secularisation and rationalization led to the disenchantment of the world Later however one observes a reaction to the established hierarchically organized churches and to the adherence mainly of young people to less structured religious groups to religious syncretism and to individual seekers who tried to find their own God From this perspective one can argue that we have a partial re enchantment of the world Routledge Library Editions: Occultism Various, 2022-07-30 The volumes in this set originally published between 1978 and 1992 draw together research by leading academics in the area of the occult and provide a rigorous examination of related key issues The collection examines occultism from a broad range of disciplines from shamanism and the occult tarot to the esoteric and spiritualism It includes volumes across the disciplines of religion covering new religious movements spiritualism ritual and magic practices The three books that comprise this set include investigations into the evolution of occultism as well as the history and practices of the occult as a religious movement This collection brings back into print insightful and detailed books and will be a must have resource for academics and students not only of religion and anthropology but also of history and psychology The Heart of the Pearl Shell James F. Weiner, 2022-08-19 For the Foi people who live on the edge of the central highlands of Papua New Guinea the flow of pearl shells is the heart of their social life The pearl shell is the exchange item that mediates the creation of their most important sexual and social roles The Heart of the Pearl Shell analyzes a number of myths of the Foi people elegantly bringing together significant ethnographic materials in a way that has important implications for the development of social theory in anthropology and in Melanesian studies Scholars of semiotic symbolic anthropology and of comparative religion will also share the author s interest in the meaning and role of mythology in Foi culture Instead of relying on orthodox methods of Freudian or structuralist interpretation James Weiner assumes there is a dialectical relationship between the images of Foi myth and the images of the Foi s social world He demonstrates how each set of these images is dependent upon the other for its creation This innovative study locates Foi social meaning in the re creation and attempted solution of the moral dilemmas that are crystallized in mythology and other poetic usages This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1988 The Crisis in the Humanities Zarko Cvejić, Ana Petrov, 2016-12-14 This volume will appeal to the reader interested in the so called long crisis in the humanities and transdisciplinary approaches as a possible way out of this It comprises a selection of 23 essays by both established and young scholars from the United States Slovenia Croatia and Serbia coming from a variety of disciplines including aesthetics anthropology architecture art critical theory ethnography feminism film studies gender and queer theory literary theory Marxism musicology philosophy and sociology among others What brings all these together here is the intention to advance transdisciplinarity both in theory and in practice in their scholarly work as a possible solution to this purported crisis the subject of heated debate in academia since the 1960s revolving around the crisis of the subject and the humanities positioning as a field of research The book examines the place of the humanities in contemporary society and challenges the ways that issues that form the foci of various disciplines have been addressed in recent theoretical discourses It reflects on the status of the disciplines in the humanities and explores the links between history culture media and art

The Late Bronze Egyptian Garrison at Beth Shan Frances W. James, Patrick E. McGovern, Anne G. Bonn, 1993 The University Museum excavated at Beth Shan from 1921 1934 when stratigraphical methods were first being developed For this study the two Late Bronze levels VII and VIII have been reevaluated by the careful analysis of field records photographs and drawings along with the restudy of all artifacts housed in The University Museum and a selection of objects in the Rockefeller Museum in Jerusalem The structures of these levels have parallels in New Kingdom Egypt and Late Bronze Early Iron Age sites of southern Levant and the Sinai Included are contributions by 13 specialists on specific classes of objects and technologies University Museum Monograph 85

Vision and Visual Perception Duco A. Schreuder, 2014-12-03 Vision is about insight and visual perception is about cognition and they form the foundation of how we see the world Duco A Schreuder a physicist and psychologist explores the finer details of each in this groundbreaking book that explores human consciousness and perception Sharing virtually everything he s learned over a varied career spanning more than sixty years he examines a wide array of topics including how we understand what we visually process how we store and retrieve information the role that neurons play in how what we see and much more While Schreuder isn t afraid to disagree with other leading thinkers he relies on science and focuses on the facts behind it so you can understand lighting visual perception engineering design and applied and experimental physics Looking is about insight whereas seeing is about knowledge and you need to know how each one works to truly understand how humanity views the world Whether you re an illuminating engineer considering the fundamentals of the trade or a student or professional in an allied discipline you ll be well served by taking a closer look at Vision and Visual Perception

Books in Print , 1991 The Publishers' Trade List Annual , 1982

Verging on Extra-Vagance James A. Boon, 2021-06-08 In this book James Boon ranges through history and around the globe in a series of provocative reflections on the limitations attractions and ambiguities of cultural interpretation The book reflects the unusual keyword of its title extra vagance a term Thoreau used to refer to thought that skirts traditional boundaries Boon follows Thoreau's lead by broaching subjects as diverse as Balinese ritual Montaigne Chaucer Tarzan Perry Mason opera and the ideas of Jacques Derrida Ruth Benedict Kenneth Burke and Mary Douglas He makes creative and often playful leaps among eclectic texts and rituals that do not hold single fixed meanings but numerous changing and exceedingly specific ones Boon opens by exploring links between ritual and reading focusing on commentaries about the seclusion of menstruating women in Native American culture trance dances in Bali and circumcision or lack of it in contrasting religions He considers the ironies of first person ethnography by telling stories from his own fieldwork reflecting on ethnological museums and making seriocomic connections between Mark Twain and Marcel Mauss In expansive discussions that touch on Manhattan and Sri Lanka the Louvre and the World of Coca Cola museum willfully obscure academic theory and shamelessly commercial show business Boon underlines the inadequacies of simple ideologies and pat generalizations The book is a profound and eloquent exploration of cultural comparison by one of America's most original and innovative anthropologists

Partakers of the Divine Jacob Holsinger Sherman, 2014 An extended essay in contemplative philosophy the meeting of mystical and philosophical theology Partakers of the Divine shows that Christian philosophical and contemplative practices arose together and that throughout much of Christian history philosophy theology and contemplation remained internal to one another Further the relation of philosophy theology and contemplation to one another is of more than antiquarian interest for it provides theologians and philosophers of religion today with a way forward beyond many of the stalemates that have beset discussions about faith and reason

Myths and the Malay Ruling Class Sharifah Maznah Syed Omar, 1993 Ecologies of Participation Zayin Cabot, 2018-04-30 In this daring debut Zayin Cabot challenges the wise homebodies of academia A profoundly interdisciplinary approach to comparative scholarship Ecologies of Participation offers a methodology whereby we can face our shared planetary predicament It is grounded in process philosophy and asserts the importance of a new ontology of agency It traces the importance of Lévy Bruhl and Lévi Strauss's early work while offering new insight into the ontological turn in anthropology This book sets out to destabilize modern reductionist trends toward scientific materialism without falling into postmodern cultural constructivism It does not assume the givenness of nature or culture By advancing a multi ontology approach this work offers robust interventions into decolonial and critical studies Cabot takes contemporary scholarship in new and exciting directions offering an unstable ground from which to examine our shared worlds both human and other Throughout the last chapters of the book these threads are illuminated through a detailed ethics of comparison and participation

Medicine, Miracle and Magic in New Testament Times Howard Clark Kee, 1988-11-17 This book illustrates in detail the range of understandings of the human condition in New Testament times and remedies for ills that prevailed when Jesus and the apostles were spreading the Christian message and launching Christian communities in the Graeco Roman world

Journal of the Oriental Institute, M.S. University of Baroda, Baroda, 2016 Black Folk Medicine Wilbur Watson, 1998-01-01 Folk medicine is an important informal and traditional system of social health care support that is still widely used in many nations including rural regions of the southern United States This volume provides new insight into the various conditions and structures that help to account for the development and persistence of folk medicine in societies The authors focus on older primarily female black users of folk medicine the problem of trust in folk and modern doctor patient relationships the need for communication and information exchange between folk and modern medical doctors and a variety of social cultural and psychological factors related to drug misuse among the poor the elderly rural and uneducated consumers of health services

A General Theory of Magic Marcel Mauss, 1975

The Historical Jesus John Dominic Crossan, 1991 The Historical Jesus reveals the true Jesus who he was what he did what he said It opens with The Gospel of Jesus Crossan's studied determination of Jesus' actual words and actions stripped of any subsequent additions and placed in a capsule account of his life story The Jesus who emerges is a savvy and courageous Jewish Mediterranean peasant a radical social revolutionary with a rhapsodic vision of economic political and religious egalitarianism and a social program for creating it The conventional wisdom of critical historical scholarship has long held that too little is known about the historical Jesus to say definitively much more than that he lived and had a tremendous impact on his followers There were always historians who said it could not be done because of historical problems writes Crossan There were always theologians who said it should not be done because of theological objections And there were always scholars who said the former when they meant the latter With this ground breaking work John Dominic Crossan emphatically sweeps these notions aside He demonstrates that Jesus is actually one of the best documented figures in ancient history the challenge is the complexity of the sources The vivid portrayal of Jesus that emerges from Crossan's unique methodology combines the complementary disciplines of social anthropology Greco Roman history and the literary analysis of specific pronouncements anecdotes confessions and interpretations involving Jesus All three levels cooperate equally and fully in an effective synthesis that provides the most definitive presentation of the historical Jesus yet attained

Psychology Library Editions: Social Psychology Various, 2021-07-09 Psychology Library Editions Social Psychology 30 volume set brings together an eclectic mix of titles from a wealth of authors with diverse backgrounds seeking to understand human behaviour and interaction from a socio psychological perspective The series of previously out of print titles originally published between 1908 and 1993 includes those from some authors considered to be founders of social psychology and traces the development of the subject from its early foundations

American Disgust Matthew J. Wolf-Meyer, 2024-05-14 Examining the racial underpinnings of food microbial medicine and disgust in America American Disgust shows how perceptions of disgust and fears of contamination are rooted in the country's history of colonialism and racism Drawing on colonial corporate and medical archives Matthew J Wolf Meyer argues that microbial medicine is closely entwined with changing cultural experiences of digestion excrement and disgust that are inextricably tied to the creation of whiteness Ranging from nineteenth century colonial encounters with Native people to John Harvey Kellogg's ideas around civilization and bowel movements to mid twentieth century diet and parenting advice books Wolf Meyer analyzes how embedded racist histories of digestion and disgust permeate contemporary debates around fecal microbial transplants and other bacteriotherapeutic treatments for gastrointestinal disease At its core American Disgust wrestles with how changing cultural notions of digestion what goes into the body and what comes out of it create and impose racial categories motivated by feelings of disgust rooted in American settler colonial racism It shows how disgust is a changing yet fundamental aspect of American subjectivity and that engaging with it personally politically and theoretically opens up possibilities for conceptualizing health at the individual societal and planetary levels

Disintegration: Bad Love, Collective Suicide, and the Idols of Imperial Twilight Mark P. Worrell, 2020-02-17 Together again for the first time Marx and Durkheim join forces in the pages of Disintegration Bad Love Collective Suicide and the Idols of Imperial Twilight for a dialectical exploration of the moral economy of neoliberalism animated as it is not only by the capitalist chase for surplus value but also by an immortal vortex of sacred powers Classical sociology and psychoanalysis are reconstituted within Hegelian social ontology and dialectical method that differentiates between the ephemeral and free and the eternal and fixed aspects of modern life
