A Good:

A Good Yarn Debbie Macomber, 2014-04-29 The highly anticipated sequel to The Shop on Blossom Street Once again a disparate group of women find friendship and comfort as they learn the age old craft of knitting Beyond Price J. David

Velleman, 2015-10-08 In nine lively essays bioethicist J David Velleman challenges the prevailing consensus about assisted suicide and reproductive technology articulating an original approach to the ethics of creating and ending human lives He argues that assistance in dying is appropriate only at the point where talk of suicide is not and he raises moral objections to anonymous donor conception In their place Velleman champions a morality of valuing personhood over happiness in making end of life decisions and respecting the personhood of future children in making decisions about procreation These controversial views are defended with philosophical rigor while remaining accessible to the general reader Written over Velleman's 30 years of undergraduate teaching in bioethics the essays have never before been collected and made available to a non academic audience They will open new lines of debate on issues of intense public interest Effective Schooling for Pupils with Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties John Visser, 2013-10-23 First Published in 1998 Increasing pressure and new demands on LEAs schools and their staff have led to an overall reduction in the number of special schools for children with EBD and a questioning of their place within the range of provision for these pupils Recent attention has also been drawn by HMCI to the number of these schools which have failed to pass the OFSTED inspection process This book is based on a national examination of special schools providing for pupils with EBD The authors identify factors associated with good practice and offer advice on how schools can become more effective in providing for the country's most troubled and challenging pupils They also highlight aspects of successful provision which can be applied in mainstream schools and pupil referral units The Works of Francis Bacon Francis Bacon, 1861 The Collected Dialogues of Plato

Plato, 1961-10-01 The Platonic Forms of the Platonic dialogues Rebecca Newberger Goldstein author of Plato at the Googleplex A landmark one volume edition of the complete Plato in classic translations This is a classic one volume edition of all the writings of Plato generally considered to be authentic The editors Edith Hamilton and Huntington Cairns chose the contents from the work of the best modern British and American translators The volume contains prefatory notes to each dialogue by Hamilton an introductory essay on Plato's philosophy and writings by Cairns and a comprehensive index with cross references to assist the reader with the philosophical vocabulary of the different translators Political Neutrality

Roberto Merrill, Daniel Weinstock, 2014-07-31 The topic of neutrality on the good is linked rather closely to the ideal of political liberalism as formulated by John Rawls Here internationally renowned authors in several cases among the most prominent names to be found in contemporary political theory present a collection of ten essays on the idea of liberal neutrality Desiring the Good Katja Maria Vogt, 2017-08-01 Desiring the Good defends a novel and distinctive approach in ethics that is inspired by ancient philosophy Ethics according to this approach starts from one question and its most immediate answer what is the good for human beings a well going human life Ethics thus conceived is broader than moral philosophy It includes a range of topics in psychology and metaphysics Plato's Philebus is the ancestor of this approach Its first premise defended in Book I of Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics is that the final agential good is the good human life Though Aristotle introduces this premise while analyzing human activities it is absent from approaches in the theory of action that self identify as Aristotelian This absence Vogt argues is a deep and far reaching mistake one that can be traced back to Elizabeth Anscombe's influential proposals And yet the book is Anscombian in spirit It engages with ancient texts in order to contribute to philosophy today and it takes questions about the human mind to be prior to and relevant to substantive normative matters In this spirit Desiring the Good puts forward a new version of the Guise of the Good namely that desire to have one's life go well shapes and sustains mid and small scale motivations A theory of good human lives it is argued must make room for a plurality of good lives Along these lines the book lays out a non relativist version of Protagoras's Measure Doctrine and defends a new kind of realism about good human lives

Bass, 2010-01-23 Poems and short stories about a young mans new beginning Communication Approach in English Through the Internet Amzat K. Akbarov, 2012-03-15 Communication Approach in English Through the Internet carefully prepares students to read university level texts It teaches students the strategies and the vocabulary building skills to help them grow in confidence and progress to higher levels of linguistic proficiency The exercises will help students develop their four basic academic skills and express themselves in a mature and appropriate way that is relevant to the context whether it be a report conversation or other form of discourse Each unit plan provides step by step a variety of lively exercises for brainstorming ideas and planning a structure that can be used directly from the book or as a springboard for innovative Internet resources The author emphasizes active learning and addresses the needs of EFL students This is the perfect coursebook for weaving the excitement and usefulness of the Internet into your daily English communication Features A skills and strategies sections that teach essential linguistic skills Tasks that encourage students to interact with the text and practice using internet resources Activities that take students beyond the classroom and can be used for discussion and communication The Defense of the Reformed Faith Ulrich Zwingli, 1984-01-01 Pittsburgh Theological Monograph New Series General Editor Dikran Y Hadidian Theory of Games and Statistical Decisions David A. Blackwell, M. A. Girshick, 2012-06-14 Evaluating statistical procedures through decision and game theory as first proposed by Neyman and Pearson and extended by Wald is the goal of this problem oriented text in mathematical statistics First year graduate students in statistics and other students with a background in statistical theory and advanced calculus will find a rigorous thorough presentation of statistical decision theory treated as a special case of game theory The work of Borel von Neumann and Morgenstern in game theory of prime importance to decision theory is covered in its relevant aspects reduction of games to normal forms the minimax theorem and the utility theorem With this introduction Blackwell and Professor Girshick look at Values and Optimal Strategies in Games General Structure of Statistical Games Utility and Principles of Choice Classes of Optimal Strategies Fixed Sample Size Games with Finite and with Finite A Sufficient Statistics and the Invariance Principle Sequential Games Bayes and Minimax Sequential Procedures Estimation and Comparison of Experiments A few topics not directly applicable to statistics such as perfect information theory are also discussed Prerequisites for full understanding of the procedures in this book include knowledge of elementary analysis and some familiarity with matrices determinants and linear dependence For purposes of formal development only discrete distributions are used though continuous distributions are employed as illustrations The number and variety of problems presented will be welcomed by all students computer experts and others using statistics and game theory This comprehensive and sophisticated introduction remains one of the strongest and most useful approaches to a field which today touches areas as diverse as gambling and particle physics

Changing the Curriculum Bob Adamson, Tammy Kwan, Ka-ki Chan, 2000-11-01 The Target Oriented Curriculum TOC is arguably the most comprehensive fundamental and controversial attempt to promote systemic curriculum reform in Hong Kong It aimed at a radical change in the nature of knowledge pedagogy and assessment in schools After an initial phase of confusion and criticism this ambitious reform was revamped and vigorously promoted but within a few years it totally lost momentum as other educational issues attracted the attention of policy makers This book traces the career of TOC and studies the impact of the reform on the education system subjects schools and teachers Drawing on a four year multi level research project the chapters provide a deep understanding of the complex nature of educational reform and how a new curriculum is interpreted developed and implemented Besides providing a fascinating portrayal of the experiences of the TOC reform this book offers lessons for future curriculum change in Hong Kong and elsewhere This writes Ivor Goodson in the Foreword is curriculum research at its best

Mixed Motives Marc Levine, 1998 This book combines foundational constructions in the theory of motives and results relating motivic cohomology to more explicit constructions Prerequisite for understanding the work is a basic background in algebraic geometry The author constructs and describes a triangulated category of mixed motives over an arbitrary base scheme Most of the classical constructions of cohomology are described in the motivic setting including Chern classes from higher K theory push forward for proper maps Riemann Roch duality as well as an associated motivic homology Borel Moore homology and cohomology with compact supports
