

The book cover has a dark reddish-brown background. It features several detailed illustrations of hand planes: a large smoothing plane on the left, a block plane on the right, and a bench plane at the bottom. A pencil is positioned horizontally across the lower middle. The title is centered in large, white, serif capital letters with a slight orange-to-white gradient. The authors' names are below the title in a smaller, plain white font. At the bottom, the edition and reviser information are also in white. The entire cover is framed by faint, stylized outlines of various plane models.
