Bear Versus Shark: What Would You Choose?

"Would you rather lose your sense of sight or your sense of hearing? Would you rather lose an arm or a leg?" Such questions often crop up in classroom ice breaker and party games, and they force people to consider unthinkable situations and make uncomfortable decisions. Perhaps the world's least known, yet most controversial, "would you rather?" question is this: "Would you rather fight a blind bear or a toothless shark?" Ms. Phalen of Forest View High School has been asking this question since 2008, and this line of questioning has seldom failed to produce anything short of a heated debate. The naïve tend to immediately choose the blind bear; however, the truly sage know that the best choice is the toothless shark.

[1.5"] First and foremost, in choosing a bear, one chooses certain death. Though the bear is blind, there are other senses to consider, including the sense of smell. Within the animal kingdom, bears are considered to have the most acute sense of smell, with a range that can be measured in miles ("Bear Smell"). With this keen sense of smell, a bear does not even require the sense of sight during a fight; the bear could simply track the victim's movement using its nose. Moreover, a bear's ability to hear makes it an even more formidable opponent, as "Hearing is the black bear's first line of defense against danger because they can hear in all directions (and the smell) and they can hear farther than they can see in brushy forest" ("Senses & Abilities"). This multidimensional sense only further increases their ability to detect an opponent

Even blind bears can spot great MLA style in a paper! But seriously, never try to fight one.

Web-based Instruction Susan Sharpless Smith, 2006. Since publication of the first edition of Web Based Instruction, many significant advances in Web based instruction have occurred. New technologies and tools have emerged, different ways of accessing the Internet are available, and virtual reference trends are redefining some library users' idea of the library. Information literacy skills are recognized as essential to students' success. Expanding on the popular practical How to Web guide for public, academic, school, and special libraries, technology expert Smith has thoroughly updated the discussion to include new tools and trends, including browsers, access methods, hardware, and software programs. She also supplies tips to secure project funding and provides strategic information for different libraries types, including K-12, public, academic, and corporate libraries. This completely revised edition also includes a new section on learning theory applied to Web based instruction, translates Web speak, and defines the lingo with an expanded glossary and acronym list. Illustrates new procedures with fresh screen shots and URLs from top library Web programs. Addresses the limitations and benefits of Web based instruction with clear criteria for decision making. A proven winner, this thoroughly updated hands-on manual is a must-have for owners of the first edition. Librarians facing the challenge of creating a Web based project will find easy-to-understand guidance to create an educational and interactive Web site from start to finish.

The Anthropology Graduate's Guide Carol J. Ellick, Joe E. Watkins, 2016-09-17. Mom will ask, "What can you do with a degree in anthropology?" If you want the answer, then you need this book. Applied anthropologists Carol Ellick and Joe Watkins present a set of practical steps that will assist you through the transition from your career as a student into a career in a wide range of professions that an anthropology degree can be used. The stories, scenarios, and activities presented in this book are intended to assist you in learning how to plan for the next five years: write your letter of introduction, construct your resume, and best present the knowledge, skills, and abilities learned in class to prospective employers. Ellick and Watkins' step-by-step approach helps you create a portfolio that you will use time and time again as you build your career.

Educators as Writers Carol Smallwood, 2006. You know that if you finish the novel you're working on, it would sell, or maybe you have written a story for a children's book. Your colleagues and family tell you it's great, but you don't know what to do next. You're an educator, not a writer, and the publishing world seems out of your grasp. Educators as Writers: Publishing for Personal and Professional Development is written by fellow educators and a few
