Private Salons and the Art World of Enlightenment Paris Rochelle Ziskin, 2022-11-14 In Private Salons and the Art World of Enlightenment Paris Rochelle Ziskin explores in depth two remarkable private gatherings generating significant art criticism during the middle of the eighteenth century She demonstrates how the sites harboring them came to embody and disseminate their judgments One politically active group assembled at the house Mme Doublet shared with amateur Petit de Bachaumont at her Mondays for artists Mme Geoffrin collaborated with the powerful lover of antiquity Caylus and amateurs including Mariette and Watelet In focusing on official Salons of the Royal Academy of Painting and Sculpture historians too often overlook the crucial role of these frequent regular assemblies where works of art were quite often first assessed and taste shaped This book will appeal to readers interested in eighteenth century French artistic culture journalism and women s patronage The painters discussed include Boucher Van Loo Charles Coypel Cochin Vien Pierre Lagren e and Hubert Robert

Correspondence and Epistolary Fiction, La Fête, Science and Medicine, Voltaire ,2002 Women, Agency and Religion Ilaria Valenzi, 2024-11-28 On both Mediterranean shores women s agency is articulated by new social and legal actors that face the religious factor both as an asset and as a brake This book explores how female agency is defined and takes place in the region The collection brings together contributions of both theoretical and thematic nature mapping various experiences on the public role of women in the Mediterranean context In particular the book relates the two sides observing affinities and differences in the affirmation of women s agency This synoptic approach avoids essentialist contraposition and dialectic between different cultural religious and political universes and emphasizes the role of a common geopolitical space where women s agency is playing an increasingly decisive role in the building and defense of constitutional democratic political systems The reflection is enriched by the specific analysis of the role of a religious factor in the process of affirmation or in contrast as a restraint on women s agency The book focuses both on the role of women believers in the processes of transformation of the political contexts of the North African and Euro Mediterranean area and on the role of women within religions questioning from inside the patriarchal traditions of the latter The book applies a multidisciplinary approach to the theme of women s agency in which law sociology theology and philosophy interact with each other As such it will be a valuable resource for those working in the areas of Human Rights Law Law and Religion Socio legal Studies and Gender Studies Rediscovering Women Writers of Wartime London Evelina Garay Collcutt, 2024-02-29 This book shows the war stricken city through the eyes of five women writers whose novels vividly portray life in the Blitz This new appraisal of their work brings to light the way in which they documented the Blitz in their fiction highlighting the social changes which were taking place especially in the lives of women and leading to a fuller understanding of those turbulent times The book re evaluates the contribution of these writers to wartime literature showing how their long neglected novels focus on the experiences of individual women protagonists perceived in close relation to the menacing forces of war This title will interest all those seeking to gain further knowledge of 20th century women s writing wartime literature and social history as recorded in fiction A Space of Their Own Katie Baker,Naomi Walker,2023-03-31 This collection explores how nineteenth and twentieth century women writers incorporated the idea of place into their writing Whether writing from a specific location or focusing upon a particular geographical or imaginary place women writers working between 1850 and 1950 valued a space of their own in which to work The period on which this collection focuses straddles two main areas of study nineteenth century writing and early twentieth century modernist writing so it enables discussion of how ideas of space progressed alongside changes in styles of writing It looks to the many ways women writers explored concepts of space and place and how they expressed these through their writings for example how they interpreted both urban and rural landscapes and how they presented domestic spaces A Space of Their Own will be of interest to those studying Victorian literature and modernist works as it covers a period of immense change for women s rights in society It is also not limited to just one type or definition of space Therefore it may also be of interest to academics outside of literature for example in gender studies cultural geography place writing and digital humanities Diamela Eltit Michael J. Lazzara,Mónica Barrientos,Rosa Olivera-Williams,2023-12-14 Diamela Eltit s literary work emerged on the Chilean cultural scene in the 1980s when the Pinochet regime 1973 1990 had consolidated its project of extermination censorship and neoliberal shock therapy Forced to write in a suffocating atmosphere of restriction and violence Eltit boldly cultivated a radical insurrectional poetics aimed at questioning the very underpinnings of authoritarian power and discourse While Eltit s novels published between 1983 and the present provide a remarkable vision of Chile that has evolved over the past decades she offers a different vantage point through her prolific and rigorous cultivation of literary essays Translated for the first time into English this collection of Eltit s essays allows readers to delve into her key concerns as a writer and intellectual the neoliberal marketplace the marginalization of bodies in society questions of gender and power struggles for memory truth and justice after dictatorship and the ever complex relationships among politics ethics and aesthetics Bluestocking Feminism, Volume 1 Gary Kelly,Elizabeth Eger,Judith Hawley,Jennifer Kelly,Rhoda Zuk,2024-08-01 Feminist scholarship and criticism has retrieved the Bluestocking women from their marginal position in 18th century literature This work collects the principal writings of these women together with a selection of their letters Each volume is annotated and all texts are edited and reset Piety and Modernity Anders Jarlert,2012 Exploring the nature of pious reforms in such areas as liturgy saint cults pilgrimage confraternities hymns and Bible translation during the long nineteenth century Women, Privacy and Modernity in Early Twentieth-Century British Writing W. Gan,2009-01-15 Privacy is not often thought of as a marker of modernity but a look at British women s writing of the early twentieth century suggests that it should be so This book examines the female pursuit of privacy particularly of the spatial kind as women began to claim privacy as an entitlement of the modern middle class woman Engaging with a Legacy: Nehemia Levtzion (1935-2003) E. Ann McDougall, 2014-06-11 Engaging with a Legacy shows how Nehemia Levtzion shaped our understanding of Islam in Africa and influenced successive scholarly generations in their approach to Islamization conversion and fundamentalism The book illuminates his work career and family life including his own life vision on the occasion of his 60th birthday It speaks to his relationship with researchers at home and abroad as mentor colleague and provocateur in one section several authors reflect on those dynamics in terms of personal and professional development Levtzion s contemporaries also speak of interactions with him and his life long companion wife Tirza in the 1950s and 1960s we see in these writings the birth of West African historical studies Levtzion s arrival as Israeli graduate student in Nkrumah s Egyptian leaning Ghana and the debate over what African Studies should mean in an environment that included the personal intervention of W E B Du Bois are stories told for the first time Most poignant is the account of Levtzion s commitment to building African Studies complete with emphasis on Islam in the heart of the Jewish state at The Hebrew University His never ending defence of the program reflected his determination to be both engaged historian and engaged Israeli a legacy he chose for himself Finally an Epilogue to the original publication shows how one aspect this legacy Levtzion s growing preoccupation with the public sphere in Muslim societies has become even more relevant in post Arab Spring Africa and the Middle East This book was published as a special issue of the Canadian Journal of African Studies Walking the Victorian Streets Deborah Epstein Nord, 2018-09-05 Literary traditions of urban description in the nineteenth century revolve around the figure of the stroller a man who navigates and observes the city streets with impunity Whether the stroller appears as fictional character literary persona or the nameless omnipresent narrator of panoramic fiction he casts the woman of the streets in a distinctive role She functions at times as a double for the walker s marginal and alienated self and at others as connector and contaminant carrier of the literal and symbolic diseases of modern urban life In Walking the Victorian Streets Deborah Epstein Nord explores the way in which the female figure is used as a marker for social suffering poverty and contagion in texts by De Quincey Lamb Pierce Egan and Dickens What then of the female walker and urban chronicler While the male spectator enjoyed the ability to see without being seen the female stroller struggled to transcend her role as urban spectacle and her association with sexual transgression In novels nonfiction and poetry by Elizabeth Gaskell1 Flora Tristan Margaret Harkness Amy Levy Maud Pember Reeves Beatrice Webb Helen Bosanquet and others Nord locates the tensions felt by the female spectator conscious of herself as both observer and observed Finally Walking the Victorian Streets considers the legacy of urban rambling and the uses of incognito in twentieth century texts by George Orwell and Virginia Woolf Routledge Handbook on Women in the Middle East Suad Joseph, Zeina Zaatari, 2022-12-30 The Routledge Handbook on Women in the Middle East provides an overview of the key historical social economic political religious and cultural issues which have shaped the conditions and status of women in the region The book is divided into eleven thematic sections providing a comprehensive guide to understanding the current and historical contexts of women in the Middle East each giving ground breaking insights into various aspects of women s movements The importance of historical context including pre Islamic through post colonial histories The importance of politics and the state in understanding women in the ME Women s roles in political and social movements The impacts of the formal and informal economies and education on women of the region Women s spaces and the creation of publics and counterpublics The effects of war displacement and other forms of gendered violence Women family and the state Discourses and practices of religion Women and health practices Bodies and sexualities Women and sites of cultural production A unique overview of cutting edge research in the key arenas of pre Islamic to post colonial histories this Handbook will affect the way future generations of scholars engage with and add to the vast repository of socio political studies of the Middle East It will thus be of interest to researchers in gender studies women s studies pre Islamic and post colonial studies feminist studies and socio political and socio economic studies Society and Gender Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-04-11 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels
