A Fine Red Rain:

A Fine Red Rain Stuart M. Kaminsky, 2000-05 Moscow's top cops are on the case as multiple murders sweep the city. There's Rostnikov, once a hero in the great war against Hitler, recently demoted after clashing with the KGB. There's young Sasha, who looks more like a kid than a cop. And there's Karpo, intelligent and determined, feared by criminals. Together they would track down the killers, but what if their search led into forbidden areas, into the Kremlin itself? Fine Red Rain Stuart M. Kaminsky, 2015 Inspector Porfiry Rostnikov fights to stop a vendetta against the acrobats of the Moscow circus. A drunk perches atop the statue of Nikolai Gogol in Arbat Square, and police inspector Porfiry Rostnikov sighs. After years fighting to become a top detective, he has suffered a demotion to the minor crimes unit, which means the lunatic on the statue is his responsibility. But the limping policeman fails to talk the distraught man down, and with a perfect somersault, acrobat Valerian Duznetzov makes the last leap of his storied career. Across town, Duznetzov's partner Oleg waits for him under Miracles Charles Raymond Dillon, 2000-11 Most of the stories in this book are outside the scope of our everyday experience; many are unbelievable, yet many have been validated by observers as being authentic. There are stories of weeping and mobile statues, incorruptible flesh of the dead, and spontaneous combustion of human bodies. Other stories concern ecstasy, levitation, visions, healing, and other mysterious events. The concept of miracles has been attacked by rationalist philosophers who argue that they would be a violation of the common course of nature; thus, the events could not happen. Saint Augustine answered such critics by defining miracles as being events that are unknown in nature, not as something opposed to it. This book contains a collection of wondrous events that have been reported and have occurred at different times in diverse places and among all peoples of the world. These wonderful events may be called miracles, frauds, coincidences, or whatever you may choose. Many have been investigated and determined to have been fraud. The intent is to present the information and to let you decide if they are real miracles or not. The London, Edinburgh and Dublin Philosophical Magazine and Journal of Science, 1841 The London and Edinburgh philosophical magazine and journal of science Naturforschende Gesellschaft in Zürich, 1849 The
