A Gift In Secret:

Atomic Light (shadow Optics) Akira Mizuta Lippit, 2005 With a taut poetic style Lippit produces speculative readings of secret and shadow archives and visual structures or phenomenologies of the inside charting the materiality of what both can and cannot be seen in the radioactive light of the twentieth century      Last Works Mark C. Taylor, 2018-01-01 A powerful consideration of the lessons imparted in the final works of essential writers and philosophers      Sanctum Sanctorum Justin Mandela Roberts, 2019-11-11 This book seeks to answer the question What is holiness What do we talk about when we talk about holiness We might describe many things as holy but as Socrates says what is the essential aspect by which all holy acts are holy Sanctum Sanctorum gives an account of the holy from within the Christian participatory tradition and argues that holiness is included in a special category of divine names that Christian metaphysics calls transcendentals which are five being one truth goodness and beauty Moreover holiness stands in a hierarchical relationship to the other five transcendentals as the culmination or concentration of the rest Only by understanding holiness as the head of the transcendentals as the transcendental can one account for all the complexity the idea of the holy conjures Therefore holiness is the transcendental of the transcendentals It adds the aspect of reverence to existence and as such it is constituted by the formula sanctum sanctorum Holy of holies which extends from the divine nature through the triune life to all creation

Dante and Derrida Francis J. Ambrosio, 2012-02-01 Reading Dante s Commedia alongside Jacques Derrida s later religious writings Francis J Ambrosio explores what these works reveal about religion as a fundamental dynamic of human existence about freedom and responsibility and about the significance of writing itself Ambrosio argues that both the many telling differences between them and the powerful bonds that unite them across centuries show that Dante and Derrida share an identity as religious writers that arises from the human experiences of faith hope and love in response to the divine mystery of being human For both Dante and Derrida Ambrosio contends scriptural religion reveals that the paradoxical tension of freedom and absolute responsibility must lead to the mystery of forgiveness a secret that these two share and faithfully keep by surrendering to its necessity to die so as always to begin again anew      Special Sos Emmanuel Oghenebrorhie, 2011-04-25 Some say survival actually personal survival is the first law of life It is natural to strive for survival under any circumstance and God have nothing against it Jesus commended the acclaimed shrewd manager whose story He told in Luke 16 1 9 God expects that we use our earthly life to secure eternal bliss through living by unwavering faith in Him The mention of Tamar Judahs daughter in law Rahab the Jericho harlot turned member of the commonwealth of Gods chosen people Israel and Ruth a Moabitess among the matriarchs of mankind Messiah teaches that adopting personal survival strategies is acceptable as long as they are done with faith in God      Good-Templarism Rev. Hybrid Museum Experiences Annika Waern, Anders Løvlie, 2025-10-01 So you're the one getting this gift. Lucky you. Someone who knows you has visited the museum. They searched out things they thought you would care about, and they took photos and left messages for you. This is the welcoming message for the Gift app, designed to create a very personal museum visit. Hybrid Museum Experiences use new technologies to augment, expand, or alter the physical experience of visiting the museum. They are designed to be experienced in close relation to the physical space and exhibit. In this book, we discuss three forms of hybridity in museum experiences: incorporating the digital and the physical, creating social yet personal and intimate experiences, and exploring ways to balance visitor participation and museum curation. This book reports on a 3-year cross-disciplinary research project in which artists, design researchers, and museum professionals have collaborated to create technology-mediated experiences that merge with the museum environment.

The Gift Glen Scrivener, 2019-09-01 A lively and thought-provoking introduction to the God who gives. At Christmas, nothing beats the feeling of giving or receiving the perfect gift. The most meaningful gifts we receive make us feel known, loved, and valued. And when we give a gift like that, it's like we're putting ourselves in our present. And at Christmas, that's exactly what God did. This light-hearted and lively book explores how our gift-giving traditions show us a glimpse of a giving God. Evangelist Glen Scrivener helps readers to celebrate the gift of life in a world brimming with beauty before taking us to John 3:16 to unwrap the Christmas gift that can give us what we've always wanted and what we really need.

Happiness and the Good Life in Japan Wolfram Manzenreiter, Barbara Holthus, 2017-03-27 Contemporary Japan is in a state of transition caused by the forces of globalization that are derailing its ailing economy, stalemating the political establishment, and generating alternative lifestyles and possibilities of the self. Amongst this nascent change, Japanese society is confronted with new challenges to answer the fundamental question of how to live a good life of meaning, purpose, and value. This book, based on extensive fieldwork and original research, considers how specific groups of Japanese people view and strive for the pursuit of happiness. It examines the importance of relationships, family, identity, community, and self-fulfilment amongst other factors. The book demonstrates how the act of balancing social norms and agency is at the root of the growing diversity of experiencing happiness in Japan today.
