it was like to live under the hand of oppression and slavery The language is harsh and direct but shows what life truly was like by the stories and pictures of individuals who lived during this era This book is for any history major or any individual who wants to find Americas dark past It is filled with stories and language that may be disturbing to some but shows the true life under slavery in America This book has been left unedited as originally written in 1938 39 Belly-Ache's Roots Alfreda Leola Johnson,2022-08-14 The patriarch of the family is born into slavery and makes an unsuccessful attempt toward freedom when he runs away from his previous plantation By chance he falls captive at a cotton plantation of one of the riches planters in Darlington South Carolina His job is that of a coach driver not having to work as a buck in the field There at the plantation he meets his future wife Matilda working as a cook and a laundry maid in the big house Once slavery is over after standing in a circle with their backs turn and hands intertwine four freed slaves walk south north east or west to determine their directions to start their lives The patriarch works hard as a farmer He accumulates and becomes successful and is very prominent in the community He buys land in 1888 for approximately five dollars an acre and his children inherit more than 20 acres each and build their homes by the sweat of their brows His children are also successful farmers and their father instills in them to never work for a white man The land is still in the family today Each offspring has personal struggles with life s bouts Whatever challenges they endure they fight to keep the legacy of their father alive Each one of them is brought to life through the voice of Belly Ache s Roots Every family goes through trials tribulations accomplishments happy and sad times from the days of old Your family as well as mine has a testimony and a story to be told Belly Ache s Roots may be instrumental in you finding the stories hiding in your past Chasing Powers - New Path Daniel Powis, Inanimate Heroes Zack W. Van,2013-02-21 Andrew is a timid high school student in a small town named Tomliw Like most freshman he has quite a few things to be on edge about However unlike most freshman Andrew is in fact one of the only gay students in his high school His greatest fear is that he will become a social pariah if someone finds out his secret But once he is confronted by an old bully from middle school he comes face to face with every fear he s had since 6th grade being noticed in a bad way Luckily he isn t alone With the help from a few teachers a best friend his mother and a mysterious older boy who seems to take a platonic interest in him he begins to gain confidence in himself But is it enough to confront the bully and finally accept himself as he is The Black and White of It Debby Young,2024-05-31 Raised in the early sixties during the midst of the civil rights movement a young girl though African American was brought up in a mixed family Her mother was African American and her mother s husband was white At an already trying time this family took on the challenge of breaking the race barriers and became a blended family It was a life of fun camping swimming summer vacationing on the ocean having two definitely different families Her mom was a Washingtonian and a Christian her stepdad was raised as a Mormon Their differences never stopped them from spending holidays weekends and vacations in the Volkswagen together as one everyone loving one another and knowing no difference in the black and white skin tones Could love conquer the hatred and discourse that was prominent and seething throughout not only this city but also the entire country Things went well for a while for this family They actually pushed through some very adverse situations and stuck together as glue Life was good for all until the deception the dark secret and the betrayal of the once trusted and loved stepparent Would the family survive this No the betrayal and hurt were too much The family was forced to divide Her mom and the kids were forced into poverty The happy black and white life was finished and for the young now teenage girl comes a life of teen pregnancy drugs prostitution and crime How could things that start so good come to this Resentments and unforgiveness are poison to the soul It took twenty years of a hard life for this young girl to find joy again and she found it through the love of Jesus Christ This story is about a young happy and free girl who goes through a living hell because of the deception of one she trusted and loved turning to drugs and the streets and looking for love in all the wrong places only having to hit bottom until she looked up to God to restore her Please join me in the journey in the black and white of it where we keep it one hundred about what happens in the life of this black girl raised by blacks and whites lovingly together
