Save Europe Ted Kim,2021-02-11 Europe is a continent of ironies There are beautiful historic church buildings but they are empty on Sunday mornings Europeans have been surrounded by Christianity for centuries but Christ is not in them Is this the future of Christianity in Europe May it never be The author combines cultural analysis with a prophetic insight to propose a new direction for the European churches The decline of Christianity in Europe has been necessary to shed excess baggage The beautiful heritage of Christianity in Europe is truly wonderful but that is not the essence of Christianity Churches must return to the original priorities of the faith Be a fisher of men Do not assume that people already know about Christianity but are not interested People may not be interested in religion but Jesus has an irresistible appeal Christianity cannot be reinvented but churches can If churches stop presuming that Europeans are already Christians and instead compete in the marketplace of ideas they will be able to win back the hearts of the post Christian Europeans Europe is the most important mission field of the twenty first century and the fiercest spiritual contest will take place in Europe If you desire to be a servant of the Lord ask him to send you into the harvest field of Europe Exciting days are ahead of us

The Sea in the Middle Thomas E Burman,Brian A. Catlos,Mark D. Meyerson,2022-08-23 The Sea in the Middle presents an original and revisionist narrative of the development of the medieval west from late antiquity to the dawn of modernity This textbook is uniquely centered on the Mediterranean and emphasizes the role played by peoples and cultures of Africa Asia and Europe in an age when Christians Muslims and Jews of various denominations engaged with each other in both conflict and collaboration Key features Fifteen chapter structure to aid classroom use Sections in each chapter that feature key artifacts relevant to chapter themes Dynamic visuals including 190 photos and 20 maps The Sea in the Middle and its sourcebook companion Texts from the Middle pair together to provide a framework and materials that guide students through this complex but essential history one that will appeal to the diverse student bodies of today      The Worlds of Christopher Columbus William D. Phillips,Carla Rahn Phillips,1992 When Columbus was born in the mid fifteenth century Europe was largely isolated from the rest of the Old World Africa and Asia and ignorant of the existence of the world of the Western Hemisphere The voyages of Christopher Columbus opened a period of European exploration and empire building that breached the boundaries of those isolated worlds and changed the course of human history This book describes the life and times of Christopher Columbus on the 500th anniversary of his first voyage across the Atlantic Ocean in 1492 Since ancient times Europeans had dreamed of discovering new routes to the untold riches of Asia and the Far East what set Columbus apart from these explorers was his single minded dedication to finding official support to make that dream a reality More than a simple description of the man this new book places Columbus in a very broad context of European and world history Columbus s story is not just the story of one man s rise and fall Seen in its broader context his life becomes a prism reflecting the broad range of human experience for the past five hundred years Respected historians of medieval Spain and early America the authors examine Columbus s quest for funds first in Portugal and then in Spain where he finally won royal backing for his scheme Through his successful voyage in 1492 and three subsequent journeys to the new world Columbus reached the pinnacle of fame and wealth and yet he eventually lost royal support through his own failings William and Carla Rahn Phillips discuss the reasons for this fall and describe the empire created by the Spaniards in the lands across the ocean even though neither they nor anyone else in Europe know precisely where or what those lands were In examining the birth of a new world this book reveals much about the times that produced these intrepid explorers     The Foreign Encounter in Myth and Religion Kees van der Pijl,2010-03-05 How do we think about international relations There is no question that society is based upon its cultural foundations yet this mode of understanding the world is seemingly absent from IR The second volume of Modes of Foreign Relations and Political Economy a three volume project changing the way we think about international relations traces the key characteristics of foreign encounters over time It shows that myth religion and ethical philosophies have always informed the way that societies have interacted with outsiders from tribal relations to the imperial frontiers Acceptance of this points us towards the future state of international relations A truly masterful work The Foreign Encounter In Myth And Religion is a must for upper undergraduates and academics at the cutting edge of international relations theory     The Temporal Power of the Vicar of Jesus Christ Henry Edward Manning,1862     The Global Spread of Fertility Decline Jay Winter,Michael Teitelbaum,2013-06-18 div This incisive study explores population movements and declining fertility in China India Japan and North America in the 21st century suggesting that politics in addition to cultural and economic concerns must be included as a prime determining factor in these powerful global trends DIV     Greater Britain Sir Charles Wentworth Dilke,1868
