A History Of American Literary Journalism The Emergence Of A Modern Narrative Form:

A History of American Literary Journalism John C. Hartsock, 2000 This book reveals the unfolding of an important but critically neglected genre Analyzing the rift between literature and journalism Hartsock demonstrates the ways in which literary journalism attempts to narrow the gulf between subject and object His scholarship is wide and deep his prose style highly readable his conclusions carefully argued This work will help literary journalism overcome the marginalization from which it has long suffered Literary Journalism in British and American Prose Doug Underwood, 2019-05-28 The debate surrounding fake news versus real news is nothing new From Jonathan Swift's work as an acerbic anonymous journal editor turned novelist to reporter Mark Twain's hoax stories to Mary Ann Evans literary reviews written under her pseudonym George Eliot famous journalists and literary figures have always mixed fact imagination and critical commentary to produce memorable works Contrasting the rival yet complementary traditions of literary or new journalism in Britain and the U S this study explores the credibility of some of the great works of English literature Seeking to Understand the World: Literary Journalism of Vincent Sheean Anish Dave, 2023-05-30 Vincent Sheean a groundbreaking American foreign correspondent and author is known for reporting from Europe North Africa and Asia writing news reports articles and books A few books and articles have described Vincent Sheean's life and briefly discussed his major nonfiction books However no book length study or article has closely examined his nonfiction books Seeking to Understand the World Literary Journalism of Vincent Sheean textually analyzes his five nonfiction journalistic books to examine them for characteristics of literary journalism Spanning nearly the entirety of his journalistic career these books include Personal History 1935 Not Peace but a Sword 1939 Between the Thunder and the Sun 1943 Lead Kindly Light 1949 and Nehru The Years of Power 1960 Set in different world areas the books illuminate events as disparate as the Riffian war the Spanish Civil War the infamous Munich pact the Nazi bombing of London and the assassination of Mahatma Gandhi Sheean's books provide an in depth personal look at these and related events This book includes analysis of Sheean's works finding that they have several prominent characteristics of literary journalism stories and scenes cohesive structure lifelike characters vivid description well crafted sentences immersive reporting among others

Bak, Bill Reynolds, 2022-12-30 This cutting edge research companion addresses our current understanding of literary journalism's global scope and evolution offering an immersive study of how different nations have experimented with and perfected the narrative journalistic form genre over time The Routledge Companion to World Literary Journalism demonstrates the genre's rich genealogy and global impact through a comprehensive study of its many traditions including the crónica the очерк reportage the New Journalism the New New Journalism Jornalismo literario periodismo narrativo bao gao wen xue creative nonfiction Literarischer Journalismus As SaHafa al Adabiyya and literary nonfiction Contributions from a diverse range of established and emerging scholars explore key issues such as the current role of literary journalism in countries radically affected by the print media crisis and the potential future of literary journalism both as a centerpiece to print media writ large and as an academic discipline universally recognized around the world The book also discusses literary journalism s responses to war immigration and censorship its many female and Indigenous authors and its digital footprints on the internet This extensive and authoritative collection is a vital resource for academics and researchers in literary journalism studies as well as in journalism studies and literature in general Chapter 9 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Literary Journalism in the Twentieth Century Norman Sims, 2008-11-04 This wide ranging collection of critical essays on literary journalism addresses the shifting border between fiction and non fiction literature and journalism Literary Journalism in the Twentieth Century addresses general and historical issues explores questions of authorial intent and the status of the territory between literature and journalism and offers a case study of Mary McCarthy s 1953 piece Artists in Uniform a classic of literary journalism Sims offers a thought provoking study of the nature of perception and the truth as well as issues facing journalism today Insights on Literary Journalism Kevin M. Lerner, 2024-12-30 Bringing together ten chapters by some of the most important scholars of literary journalism around the world this book covers a range of topics that are key to understanding the role of literary journalism as both a practice and a topic of academic study Beginning with an introduction that situates literary journalism in its historical context the chapters go on to address the basic definitional problem of literary journalism the rhetorical strategies of literary journalists the negotiated roles of subjects and storytellers gender geography the role of literary journalism in fostering the public imagination and the role of literary journalism in education The chapters draw on contemporary and relatable case studies which help readers link broader themes with their practical applications This volume concludes with an Afterword by Bill Reynolds editor of Literary Journalism Studies which reflects on the preceding chapters and critically on the direction in which the field is heading in the near future Insights on Literary Journalism is highly recommended reading for advanced scholars and researchers of Literary Journalism as well as Literature and Media History

From Jack Johnson to LeBron James Chris Lamb, 2016 The campaign for racial equality in sports has both reflected and affected the campaign for racial equality in the United States Some of the most significant and publicized stories in this campaign in the twentieth century have happened in sports including of course Jackie Robinson in baseball Jesse Owens Tommie Smith and John Carlos in track Arthur Ashe in tennis and Jack Johnson Joe Louis and Muhammad Ali in boxing Long after the full integration of college and professional athletics race continues to play a major role in sports Not long ago sportswriters and sportscasters ignored racial issues They now contribute to the public s evolving racial attitudes on issues both on and off the field ranging from integration to self determination to masculinity From Jack Johnson to LeBron James examines the intersection of sports race and the media in the twentieth century and beyond The essays are linked by a number of questions including How did the black and white media differ in content and context in their reporting of these stories How did the media acknowledge race in their stories Did the media recognize these stories as historically significant Considering how media coverage has evolved over the years the essays begin with the racially charged reporting of Jack Johnson s reign as heavyweight champion and carry up to the present covering the media narratives surrounding the Michael Vick dogfighting case in a supposedly post racial era and the media s handling of LeBron James s announcement to leave Cleveland for Miami
