A History of Andres Serrano - a History of Sex, 1996     Andres Serrano Andres Serrano, Francesca Alfano Miglietti, Stéphanie Napoli, Galleria Photology (Milan, Italie), Photology srl (Mailand), 2000     History of Andres Serrano (A). A history of sex A. Serrano, 1996     Andres Serrano, a History of Sex, 2000     A history of Andres Serrano, A history of sex : exposition Groningen, Groninger Museum, 23.2-19.5.1997 Andres Serrano, 1997     Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included

Andres Serrano Galerie Yvon Lambert (Paris), 1997     Sex Museums Jennifer Tyburczy, 2016-01-11 Museums have lengthy history going back to the Renaissance Cabinets of Curiosity and they are indices of changing fashions of perception insofar as the categories museum curators use to classify objects change over time The major focus of Tyburczy's study is sexuality on display which sets up in turn her investigation of the effects of museum display on the history of sexuality Historical context for the museum is one of her themes and how categories of normativity and perversity change over time with another theme being the work of sex museums in redefining what sex means in the modern public sphere she also folds in consideration of the pleasures and dangers of exhibiting marginalized sexual subjects women nonwhite races LGBT individuals and the like last she explores the paradox of asserting as she does that all museums are sex museums bodies move around and toward objects on display they reshape the typical dances of museum goers along with their preconscious motivations in visiting a museum She proposes that explicit display or restagings of sexual artifacts provides new ways for approaching and understanding issues of desire sexual identity and sexual practices as they intersect with the history of the modern museum and with sexual history during the past two centuries Her fieldwork sites are the Leather Archives Museum in Chicago the Museum of Sex in New York the World Erotic Art Museum in Miami Beach and El Museo del Sexo in Mexico City Such institutions allow Tyburczy to show how alternative sexuality inclusive of kink fetish and sadomasochistic cultures and slavery dangerously crisscross on the surface of objects There are plenty of cases here in short to keep the casual reader titillated and the erudite reader surprised     Censorship Derek Jones, 2001-12-01 Censorship A World Encyclopedia presents a comprehensive view of censorship from Ancient Egypt to those modern societies that claim to have abolished the practice For each country in the world the history of censorship is described and placed in context and the media censored are examined art cyberspace literature music the press popular culture radio television and the theatre not to mention the censorship of language the most fundamental censorship of all Also included are surveys of major controversies and chronicles of resistance Censorship will be an essential reference work for students of the many subjects touched by censorship and for all those who are interested in the history of and contemporary fate of freedom of expression Judging the Image Alison Young, 2005 This book extends the cultural turn in legal and criminological studies by interrogating our responses to the image It provides a space to think through problems of ethics social authority and the legal imagination

Anthropology, Art and Cultural Production Maruska Svasek, 2007-02-20 This book provides an introduction to anthropological perspectives on art Svasek defines art as a social process We study not only the artefacts themselves and the values attributed to them but also the process of production and its wider context Providing a critical overview of various anthropological theories of art Svasek offers a new perspective which centres on the analysis of commoditisation aestheticisation and object agency She explores the process of collecting and exhibiting art works and how this relates to art s production distribution and consumption in an increasingly global market The book outlines the significance of art and aesthetics in everyday life and examines the shifting boundaries between art and other categories such as kitsch souvenirs propaganda and pornography Finally Svasek argues for an anthropological perspective that links the production and consumption of artefacts to political religious and other cultural processes Ideal as a teaching text this book gives a detailed overview of themes that are central to the fields of art history art sociology and cultural studies Pissing Figures 1280-2014 Jean-Claude Lebensztejn, 2017-08-22 Jean Claude Lebensztejn s history of the urinating figure in art Pissing Figures 1280 2014 is at once a scholarly inquiry into an important visual motif and a ribald statement on transgression and limits in works of art in general Lebensztejn is one of France s best kept secrets A world class art historian who has lectured and taught at major universities in the United States his work has remained almost entirely in French his American audience limited to a small but dedicated group of cognoscenti First introducing the Manneken Pis the iconic little boy whose stream of urine supplies water to this famous fountain and is also the logo for a Belgian beer company the author takes the reader through a semi scatological maze of cultural history The earliest example is a fresco scene located directly above Cimabue s Crucifixion from around 1280 at the Basilica of Saint Francis of Assisi in which Lebensztejn s careful eye locates an angel behind a pillar who looks like he is about to urinate through a hole in his garment He continues to navigate expertly through cultural twists and turns stopping to discuss Pier Paolo Pasolini s 1968 film Teorema for example and Marlene Dumas s 1996 1997 homage to Rembrandt s pissing woman At every moment Lebensztejn s prose is lively his thinking dynamic and his subject matter entertaining In this short and poignant cultural history readers not only find the care for detail that has made Lebensztejn into one of the greatest European art historians but also the rebelliousness that makes him one of the most interesting intellectuals of our time The first widely distributed book of Lebensztejn s in English Pissing Figures 1280 2014 is simultaneously published in France by Editions Macula      St. James Guide to Hispanic Artists Thomas Riggs, 2002 Arranged alphabetically from Eduardo Abela to Francisco Zuniga this volume provides biographical and career information as well as critical essays on prominent Hispanic artists      Why is that Art?
