A Friendly Place To Die:

In a Queer Time and Place J. Jack Halberstam, Judith Halberstam, 2005 The first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music In her first book since the critically acclaimed Female Masculinity Judith Halberstam examines the significance of the transgender body in a provocative collection of essays on queer time and space She presents a series of case studies focused on the meanings of masculinity in its dominant and alternative forms especially female and trans masculinities as they exist within subcultures and are appropriated within mainstream culture In a Queer Time and Place opens with a probing analysis of the life and death of Brandon Teena a young transgender man who was brutally murdered in small town Nebraska After looking at mainstream representations of the transgender body as exhibited in the media frenzy surrounding this highly visible case and the Oscar winning film based on Brandon's story Boys Don't Cry Halberstam turns her attention to the cultural and artistic production of queers themselves She examines the transgender gaze as rendered in small art house films like By Hook or By Crook as well as figurations of ambiguous embodiment in the art of Del LaGrace Volcano Jenny Saville Eva Hesse Shirin Neshat and others She then exposes the influence of lesbian drag king cultures upon hetero male comic films such as Austin Powers and The Full Monty and finally points to dyke subcultures as one site for the development of queer counterpublics and queer temporalities Considering the sudden visibility of the transgender body in the early twenty first century against the backdrop of changing conceptions of space and time In a Queer Time and Place is the first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music This pioneering book offers both a jumping off point for future analysis of transgenderism and an important new way to understand cultural constructions of time and place

A Good Death Christopher R. Cox, 2025-09-23 A first rate mystery beautifully crafted fast paced and populated with the most vivid and at times seamy characters A bravura debut Douglas Preston 1 bestselling co author of the Pendergast series of novels A nail biting debut mystery that plunges readers into the seamy side streets of late 90s Bangkok and across the untamed mountains of the Lao Vietnam border hot on the heels of an alluring woman who's officially dead unless she's masterminded a half million dollar life insurance scam An expertly crafted debut A GOOD DEATH introduces Sebastian Damon a sharp witted though struggling Boston PI who catches an intriguing case Linda Watts is a beautiful talented Southeast Asian refugee with a promising career in finance or she was until she turned up dead the victim of a heroin OD in a cheap Bangkok guest house Her death seemed straightforward to the Thai authorities but her insurance company isn't buying it They send Sebastian halfway around the world to investigate where he finds himself confounded and completely out of place chasing faint leads through the broken bewildering streets of Thailand's teeming capital An award winning journalist with decades of experience traveling in and reporting on Southeast Asia Christopher R Cox takes readers on a vibrant journey through a corrupt police bureaucracy a network of steamy Bangkok nightclubs and grimy hostels to a place where you can feel the humid air and smell the stir fried street food Along the way Sebastian finds romance as he falls for a captivatingly mysterious woman and camaraderie with his father's wise cracking old Special Forces wingman an expat who can navigate Bangkok's chaotic underbelly and the wild mountains of Laos with equal aplomb For Sebastian it's the assignment of a lifetime a chase that will lead him to a long buried truth at the heart of all the dark lies a quest that will change him forever in this richly imagined compelling debut perfect for fans of John Burdett

Dying the Good Death Christopher Justice, 1997-02-27 Dying the Good Death is a unique ethnography the first to focus on the experiences of dying at the end of the life cycle In a region of northern India some people at the end of their lives leave their villages and travel to the Hindu holy city of Kashi to die These pilgrims expect that by dying in Kashi they will obtain the spiritual reward of moksha liberation from the cycle of death and rebirth Based on fieldwork conducted in Kashi's hospices or mansions of liberation Christopher Justice introduces us to a number of dying individuals and their families providing rich and evocative descriptions of their remarkable experiences The social contexts of these experiences are explored through descriptions of the families who provide care and the priests who chant the name of God twenty four hours a day The book also has clear implications for the potential ways in which we may choose to face the ends of our lives
