A Garden Of Needlework:

A Garden of Needlework Mary Bartley Stockett, 1990 The Needlework Garden Jane Iles, 1989 Inspiring designs for creative embroidery Needlepainting Eszter Haraszty, Bruce David Colen, 1974 Gender and the Garden in Early Modern English Literature Jennifer Munroe, 2017-03-02 Radical reconfigurations in gardening practice in sixteenth and seventeenth century England altered the social function of the garden offering men and women new opportunities for social mobility While recent work has addressed how middle class men used the garden to attain this mobility the gendering of the garden during the period has gone largely unexamined This new study focuses on the developing gendered tension in gardening that stemmed from a shift from the garden as a means of feeding a family to the garden as an aesthetic object imbued with status The first part of the book focuses on how practical gardening books proposed methods for planting as they simultaneously represented gardens increasingly hierarchized by gender The second part of the book looks at how men and women appropriated aesthetic uses of actual gardening in their poetry and reveals a parallel gendered tension there Munroe analyzes garden representations in the writings of such manuals writers as Gervase Markham Thomas Hill and William Lawson and such poets as Edmund Spenser Aemilia Lanyer and Lady Mary Wroth Investigating gardens gender and writing Jennifer Munroe considers not only published literary representations of gardens but also actual garden landscapes and unpublished evidence of everyday gardening practice She de prioritizes the text as a primary means of cultural production showing instead the relationship between what men and women might imagine possible and represent in their writing and everyday spatial practices and the spaces men and women occupied and made In so doing she also broadens our outlook on whom we can identify and value as producers of early modern social space The Cross-stitch Garden Melinda Coss, 1995 An illustrated collection of 50 easy to do cross stitch projects using floral and garden designs Includes color charts

Gardening with Silk and Gold Thomasina Beck, 2002 In this fascinating and lavishly illustrated guide to the garden in embroidery Thomasina Beck examines the intriguing parallels between the beautiful work produced by embroiderers through the ages and the developing styles of the garden From Elizabethan times to the modern day changing patterns and designs are explored and illustrated with engravings woodcuts portraits and a wealth of embroideries Specially commissioned drawings add a further dimension showing how these sources can be adapted for imaginative use as patterns today Gardening with Silk and Gold a revised updated and lavishly re illustrated edition of Thomasina Beck s 1979 classic Embroidered Gardens is an invaluable source of inspiration and ideas for the modern embroiderer and a compelling and informative read for the garden enthusiast The Englishwoman's domestic magazine.
