A Gift From Self To Self

Jeffrey Bloechl

A Gift From Self To Self:

In the Self's Place Jean-Luc Marion, 2012-10-24 In In the Self's Place is an original phenomenological reading of Augustine that considers his engagement with notions of identity in Confessions Using the Augustinian experience of confessio Jean Luc Marion develops a model of selfhood that examines this experience in light of the whole of the Augustinian corpus Towards this end Marion engages with noteworthy modern and postmodern analyses of Augustine's most experiential work including the critical commentaries of Jacques Derrida Martin Heidegger and Ludwig Wittgenstein Marion ultimately concludes that Augustine has preceded postmodernity in exploring an excess of the self over and beyond itself and in using this alterity of the self to itself as a driving force for creative relations with God the world and others This reading establishes striking connections between accounts of selfhood across the fields of contemporary philosophy literary studies and Augustine's early Christianity

The Visible and the Revealed Jean-Luc Marion, 2009-08-25 In The Visible and the Revealed Jean Luc Marion brings together his most significant papers dealing with the relationship between philosophy and theology Covering the ground from some of his earliest writings on this topic to very recent reflections they are particularly useful for understanding the progression of Marion's thought on such topics as the saturated phenomenon and the possibility of something like Christian Philosophy The book contains his seminal pieces on the saturated phenomenon and on the gift although the essays also explore more recent developments of his thought on these topics Several chapters explicitly explore the boundary line between philosophy and theology or their mutual enrichment and influence In one of the final pieces The Banality of Saturation Marion considers some of the most recent objections brought against his notion of the saturated phenomenon and responds to them in detail suggesting that saturated phenomena are neither as rare nor as inflexible as often assumed The work contains two chapters not previously available in English and brings together several other pieces previously translated but now difficult to find For readers interested in the relation between the two disciplines this is indispensable reading

Theology of Eros is a work of critical and constructive theology informed by the phenomenon of erotic love Within the Christian tradition passion has long been associated with sinful lust incurring shaming and accusations of narcissism Contemporary theologies of eros on the other hand extol sexual desire as God given even sacred This book eschews these two extremes through an examination of the complexities of love and desire as narrated in biblical texts allegorized by church fathers manifested in the lives of mystics analyzed in psychodynamic theory and depicted in poetry literature and Christian art The volume pairs writers on love as different as Augustine and Jane Austen or Angela of Foligno and Simone de Beauvoir Desirable Belief argues that eros is human and as such informs the Chalcedonian claim of Christ as fully God and fully human A christological perspective that takes eros into account in turn affects the doctrine of the bodily ascension of Christ the nature of resurrected bodies in heaven and whether trinitarian impassibility is still a coherent concept
